PREFACE

AILY and uninterrupted Experience, fince the Times of our bleffed Saviour, hath fufficiently confirm'd the Truth of his Prediction, The Poor you will have with you always; and from those Primitive Times in all Ages of Christianity, Charitable Provifions and Supplies have been made for them. In the first Age voluntary Contributions were rais'd in an extraordinary Manner; the Poor were (as it were) Tenants in Common with the Rich in their Possessions, and their (Agapæ) Love-Feasts were but the Refults of this Divine Disposition. But these High Flights of Charity soon flagg'd, their Zeal languish'd dwindled by Degrees, and that Brotherly-kindness, which then was the distinguishing Character of a Christian, A 2 (Ecce quam se diligunt Christiani!) soon degenerated into Sourness and Self-interest, insomuch, that the Christian Emperors, upon necessary Maxims of State, were forc'd to enact Laws, and establish Edicts, whereby the Rich, and Men of Ability, might be oblig'd to do that by Compulsion which they were not willing to do out of Choice: And such politick Constitutions were certainly founded upon good Confideration. Within the respective Precincts and Divisions, there were certain stated Allowances affign'd for them which avoided Confusion, and every Person being proportionably rated according to his Ability, render'd the Conduct of this important Affair more easie and impartial.

The Reason of the Numerosity of the Poor in our Age above what was formerly, has by many been differently assign'd. I have oft thought of the Opinion of Wadham Wyndham, by him deliver'd at the King's Bench: 'We hear' (saith he) little of any settled Law for Relief of the Poor before Q. Elizabeth's ' Time, for they encreas'd much upon the Diffolution of Abbies. It is not to be doubted but those Religious Houles (which were many, and richly endow'd) might and did administer great Supplies to the poor Neighbourhood, and the Hospitalities of Lords and Country Gentlemen (being in those Times very fashionable) were con-siderable Assistances to their Dependants. But in the Time of that wife Princess, when Trade flourish'd, Commerce improv'd, and England became denizen'd with Persia, China, and Peru; then the Foreign Commodities and Luxuries were imported together, and Plenty produced fuch an Habitual Idleness, that the Statesmen of those Days faw it necessary to advance Ways and Methods to force the sothful Poor to work, and the Rich to contribute: And yet their Designs have not anfwer'd. We have Swarms of Poor still, and young lusty Beggars (those Spectacula opprobrii in a well regulated State) make up a considerable Part of our People.

I have been much delighted with a little Piece of Chief Justice Hale's, concerning fetting the Poor to work. His Methods are naturally productive of the Design, and the Consequences are of great Importance. It's true, some foster Names than those of Bridewell, Houses of Correction, and Work-houses, and good Management, would invite the young Ones into a working Society with Credit and Delight, and their Continuance there for a stated Time should be equivalent to an Apprenticeship. And then Industry and Emulation in Trade would be fashionable, and the Criminals might receive Chaftisement in separate Places. It must be confess'd we have now excellent Laws relating to the Poor, were they duly executed, and the Execution thereof well encouraged and rewarded; and many have wrote upon them. I have perus'd Lambard (who is in many of these Points antiquated) Dalton, Keble, besides other little Guides and Manuals; but I find the Titles relating to the Poor confusedly handled; they are guided more more by an Alphabet, than the natural Method. The Cases and Resolutions upon the Laws are sew, and those that are cited are not well stated and digested, and the Resolutions (for that Reason) seem to be sometimes different and contrary: Nay, many times the interlocutory Discourses of the Judges, upon a single Argument, they thrust in as an adjudg'd Case, as you may see in one Instance in this Treatise; I mean about the Clause in the Act of 43 Eliz. for compelling Parishioners to take poor Children Apprentices.

I have endeavoured to cast the Resolutions and Judgments of Law under the proper Branches in every Act of Parliament, and each Branch under its proper Head; by which one may see (as it were) with one Glance how the Law is alter'd, explain'd, or sup-ply'd.

I hope a portable Treatife of this Nature may be acceptable, and the Perusal hereof tend to the Information and Delight of many Gentlemen; who tho' they are not Lawyers by Profession.

fession, yet are Persons of good Education, and great Sense and Usefulness in their Country. Those sew Remarks of my own which I have made, are but Opinions, which I submit to their Judgments; and the Mistakes which I have committed, to their Candor and largenuity.

upon a fingle Argument, they thrust in as an adjudged Case, as you may fee in one introduce in this Frentise: I mean about the Clause in the Art of Aresia. for tompelling i arithmodes to take root.

LAWS

Concerning the

CHAP. I.

Of the Poor in general. Of the several Sorts of Poor, and how distinguished and ranked, in order to the clearer Methodizing the ensuing Treatise.

Efore I come to treat of the Laws concerning the Poor, I conceive it will be needful to distinguish of the several Sorts of Poor, and shew how they are respectively to be either provided for, or punish'd, according as their Circumstances and Cases shall require. The Scheme then is in this Manner.

There are three Sorts or Degrees of Parts:

1. Poor by Impotency and Defect. Such as, The Aged and Decrepid.

The

Of the several Sorts of Poor. Ch. 1.

The Infant fatherless and motherless, not able to work.

The Person naturally disabled in Mind or Body, as Idiot, Lunatick, Blind, Lame, Oc.

The Person visited with grievous Sickness and Diseases, and so for a Time becoming impotent.

2. Poor by Cafualty. As,

Soldiers, Labourers, Oc. which are disabled in Body.

The decay'd Housholder, who has had the Missortunes of Fire, Water, Robbery, Surety-ship, σ_c .

The Poor Man overcharged with Children.

3. Thriftless Poor. As, The Riotous and Prodigal.

The Diffolute, as Strumpet, Pilferer, Or.

The idle, flothful Person.

All fuch as wilfully spoil or imbezil their Work.

The Vagabond, and Vagrant, flurdy Beggar.

Thus I find them ranked by Mr. Dakon.

Now the only Statute that provides univerfally for the Poor, is the Statute of 43 Eliz. c. 2. Before this Statute, we hear little of any Law for the Relief of the Poor, for that they much increased upon the Dissolution of Abbeys. To which, further Provision has been made by other Statutes, all which may be referred to these Heads:

1. For Relief of fuch as are not able to work and get their Livelihood.

Apprentices. These are of two kinds; 1. Common Apprentices, who are Such Persons as are bound by themselves or Friends in Indentures of Covenant to ferve fome Tradefman or Artificer a certain Term, for the most part 7 Years, in order to learn some Art or Trade; the Master covenanting, that he will teach and instruct such Perfons therein. Vide Stat. 5. Eliz. c. 4. $31. 2. Parish Apprentices, are fuch Children, whose Parents being unable to provide for them, are between the Age of 7 and 15 put out at the Charge of the Parish; if Males, to serve till 24; if Females, till 21, or Marriage. Vide Stat. 43. Eliz. c. 2. I Fac. 1. c. 25. 3 Car. 1. c. 4. And this later Kind of Apprentices is chiefly intended in this be but one Churchwarden in a Parish, he sufficeth, with the other Overseers, though the Statute 43 Eliz. chap. 2. says Churchwardens.

The Name and Office of Overseer is noted by Mr. Dalton to be of great Antiquity and Excellency; for though they are so denominated with a respect to their Employment, yet that Employment or Office must needs be honourable, seeing of God himself taketh Care for the Poor, and hathar a special Respect to their Necessities; and consequently those who well officiate in this Office, do therein resemble God himself; and therefore the Justices of Peace, who, by the Stat. 43 Eliz. have the appointing of these Overseers, ought therein to be very careful in chusing substantial and prudent Persons, having a Competency of Wealth and Wisdom, and, above all, Men of Integrity and a good Conscience.

The Office of these Overseers consists principally in two Things: 1. In taxing and raising Contributions of Money for Relief of the Poor: 2. In the legal and proper Distribution thereof.

I In these Taxations, Consideration must be had, I. to Equality; and, 21 to the Estate.

Equality, for that Men ought to be equally rated with their Neighbours, and by an equal and full Proportion. Estates fall under a double Respect; viz. 1. According to the known yearly Value of their Lands or Farms in the Parish: 2. According to the Value of their Bona notabilia or known Goods. And neither of these are to be charged by Supposition or Report. And Mr. Dalmon thinks some Regard ought to be had to the Burthen or Charge of a Man's Family; for if one having 500 l. in Stock, &c. hath but himself to maintain, he ought to be rated as high as another who hath 1000 l. with a Wife and Family.

-HorAs to the Distribution of these Taxations, it is principally for three Purpoles & viz.

done by weekly, monthly, or other Distributions of Money or other Necessaries to them. And this ought to be done with such Discretion and Moderation, as, it Not superflous, that thereby they may not be encouraged in Idleness, or to indulge their Imporency; and, 2. Not too small and scanty, that so they may not be induced to beg or steal, nor prove a lingering Death unto them.

3. For putting out Apprentices; and this has ever been esteemed one of the best Expedients of providing for the Poor, being not only a Work of the highest Charity and Mercy towards such Children as are so put out, in firing and enabling them for a comfortable Sublistence, but it would likewise prove (if duly regulated) of mighty Benefit and Advantage to the Kingdom.

Parish. The Cours was moved to quash an Indictment of Assault and Battery of an Overseer Villa de A. in the Execution of his Office. 1. Exception was. It should have been Overseer Parochia; there is no such Officer as Overseer Villa. 2. There is no such Officer as Collector for the Poor appointed for any one Man by the Law; the Statute saith, There shall be Overseers of the Poor in every Parish, and so the Office is joint, and not several. But both Exceptions were over-ruled by the Court. Style's Rep. 148. Anonym.

Now because several Parishes, which are large, and had many Villages in the fame, could not take the Benefit of this Act, it being inconvenient because of the Multitude and Distance of Hamlets and Townships; therefore a Clause was added by the Statute 14 Car. 2. c. 12. to comprehend them within the 43 Eliz. whereby it was enacted, That all poor, needy, impotent and lame Persons, within every Township or Village of Lancashire, Cheshire, Derbysbire, Yorkshire, Northumberland, and the Bilhoprick of Durham, Cumberland, and Westmorland, and other Counties in England and Wales, where (by reason of the Largeness of the Parishes) they cannot reap the Benefit of the Statute of 43 Eliz. shall be maintain'd, kept, provided for, and fet on work, in the respective Township and Village wherein they inhabit, or were last lawfully fettled. And that according to the Rules and Directions of 43 Eliz. yearly shall be chosen in every Townthip and Village two or more Overfeers, who shall do, perform and execute, all fuch Acts, Powers and Authorities, for the necessary Relief of the Poor within their faid Townships, and forfeit the like Penalties for Non-performance, as are limited and appointed by the faid Statute, 43 Eliz. Vide Explication of this Statute infra, where we shew what a Parish in Law is liable to be charged: And by the Statute 3 Car. 1. c. 4. in the Continuance of the Act, Fac. 1. c. 25. it is enacted, That the Courchwardens and Overseers of the Poor mentioned in the faid Alt of 43 Eliz. may, by and with the Consent of two or more Justices of the Peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum, within their respective Limits, wherein shall be more Justices than one, and where no more shall be than one, with the Consent of that one, fet up, use and occupy, any Trade, Mystery or Occupation, only for the setting on work, and better Relief, of the Poor of the Parish, Town or Place, of or within which they shall be Churchwardens, or Overfeers of the Poor, any former Stasute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Rognes, Vagabonds, and sturdy Beggars. A Rogne is so called by some, quia ostiatim rogat. A Vagabond is one who idly wanders about, having no certain House, Habitation, or Place of Residence, and is said to be sine Re, sine Fide, sine Spe, sine Sede. A Beggar is called Mendicus, quasi Manudicens, or speaking with his Hand, it being the Custom of old for such a one to hold out his Hand in Silence.

And yet it seems by the several Statutes made for the Punishment of Rogues and Vagabonds, &c. as if these Words in their legal Sense imported one and the same Thing; for as a Vagabond in its proper Sense signifies one that loiters and wanders about, so a Rogue is thereby described after the

the same Manner, and the Words Vagus and Vagabundus signify the later as well as the sormer; only as a Rogue or Vagabond is any Person who wanders about idly, though he does not beg, so when he has this last Quality annex'd to the sormer, he becomes a sturdy Beggar. Vide post, chap. 12. and 13. particular Descriptions of Rogues, &c. as they fall under the several Statutes therein recited.

I shall now proceed to the several Statutes relating to the Poor, and first to that of 43 El. c. 2. But herein I shall not take such Statutes in toto, or as they lie in gross in the several Acts themselves; but I shall reduce the particular Branches and Sections of each Statute under such proper Heads as I intend to treat of, and therein shew wherein such Branches and the Law thereupon is explain'd, alter'd or supply'd, by any subsequent Statute. For this I take to be the best Method to avoid Consusion, and enable the Reader to apprehend every particular Subject.

By the first Branch of this Statute, The Overseers, or the greatest part of them, shall take Order from Time to Time, by and with the Confent of two or more Justices of the Peace in the same County, whereof one to be of the Quorum, for fetting to work the Children of all such whose Parents Shall not by the Churchwardens and Overseers, or the greatest Part of them, be thought able to keep and maintain their Children; and also for setting to work all such Persons, married or unmarried, having no Means to maintain them, and use no ordinary and daily Trade of Life to get their Living by; and also to raise weekly, or otherwife, (by Taxation of every Inhabitant, Parson, Vicar, and other, and of every Occupier of Lands, Houses, Tithes impropriate, Propriations of Tithes, Coal-Mines, or Saleable Underwoods, in the said Parish, in such competent Sum and Sums of Money as they Shall think fit) a convenient Stock of Flax, Hemp, Wooll, Thread, Iron, and other Ware and Stuff; to fee the Poor on Work: And also, competent Sums of Money for and towards the necessary Relief of the Lame, Impotent, Old, Blind, and such other among them being Poor, and not able to work.

Observe, Any one Justice of the Peace may fend to the House of Correction or Common Gaol such as shall not employ themselves to work, being appointed thereto by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish. 43 Eliz. c. 2. Dalt. p. 148. Edit. 1690. But of this plus infra.

12 Of setting the Poor to work, Ch. 1.

Now for raising a Stock to set the Poor at work, it is by the faid Statute, 43 Eliz. c. 2. 6. 2. enacted. That the Churchwardens and Over feers fo to be nominated, or such of them as shall not be let by Sickness, or other just Excuse, to be allow'd by two fuch Justices of the Peace or more, as aforesaid, Shall meet together at the least once every Month in the Church of the Said Parish upon the Sunday in the Afternoon after Divine Service, there to consider of some good Course to be taken, and of some meet Order to be Jet down in the Premisses; and shall within four Days after the End of their Year, and after other Overfeers are nominated, as aforefaid, make and yield up to two such Justices of Peace, as is aforesaid, a true and perfect Account of all Sums of Money by them reseived, or rated and sessed and not received; and also of such Stock as shall be in their Hands, or in the Hands of any of the Poor to work, and of all other Things concerning their Office; and such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be in their Hands, shall pay and deliver over to the said Churchmardens and Overfeers newly nominated and appointed, upon Pain that every one of them absenting themselves without lawful Cause, as aforesaid, from such Monthly Meeting for the Purpose aforesaid, or being negligent in their Office. or in the Execution of the Orders aforesaid, being made by and with the Assent of the Said Justices of Peace, or any two of them before mentioned, to forfeit for every such Default of Absence or Negligense 20 S.

This Section confifts of Three Parts.

Note, Two Justices (Quorum unus) shall take the Accounts of Overseers (and also of Churchwardens) in every of the following Particulars.

1. Of all Sums of Money by them received, or rated and not received.

2. Of all fuch Stock of Ware or Stuff as they, or any of the Poor, have in their Hands.

bound, according to the Statute.

8. Of all the Burials within their Precinct.

If any of the Churchwardens or Overfeers Pall refuse to vield a true Account to the Justices, of all fuch Sums of Money, and of all fuch Stock, then any Two fuch bultices that commit them to the common Gaol, there to remain without Bail till they have made a new Account, and paid to the new Overfeers fo much of fuch Money or Stock, as shall be remaining in their Hands; and if they make a falle Account, they may be bound over to the Affizes or Seffions, and there an Indictment may be preferr'd against them. And if they shall refuse to pay and deliver such Arrears as shall be in their Hands due upon the Account, any two fuch Justices of the Peace may make their Warrant to the present or subsequent Churchwardens and Overfeers, or any of them, to levy the same by Distress or Sale of the Offenders Goods, rendring back the Overplus: and in Defect of fuch Diffres, they may commit them to the Common Gaol without Bail fill Payment or Delivery. Dalton 154.

Dom. Rex versus Carrock. 4 W. & M. B. R. The Defendant was committed by the Mayor and an Alderman, two Justices of Peace of Tannion, by Warrant reciting, that he and three others had been Overseers of the Poor of the Parish of within the Borough, and duly summoned to appear that day, to shew Cause why they had not rendred an Account of Monies received and paid by them to the Use of the Poor.

That the Defendant had appeared before them two Justices of the Peace, and being demanded to give a just and true Account of all such Monies as had been received and paid, hath only produced an Account in Gross, of his Receipts and Payments, and refuses to give a particular Account, or to shew his Books, by which he received the Monies on Rates affested, &c. And also a particular Account to whom he paid such Monies charged in Gross; and therefore they believ'd such Account to be no Account, according to the 43 Eliz. And the Desendant bath resus d to give any other Account; therefore they commit him to be detained while he should make a true Account before them, or two other Justices of the Peace for that Borough.

per tot' Cur', because the Justices have no Authority to commit in this manner, by the 43 Elic. for that an Account was confessed to have been rendred, Go. Shower, 395.

An Overfeer accounted before two Justices, and his Account was allow'd: The Parith appeal'd to the Quarter-Sessions, and they disastowed the Account, and order'd him to pay so much over, and for not doing it committed him.

Held that they should have levy'd the Arrears by Distress, and in Desault of a Distress have committed him; for the Sessions must execute their Judgment in the same manner as the two Justices must do; and the Order was quality as to that part. Reg. versus Hodges: Mich. 4. Anne, B. R. Salkeld, 533.

And if any such Stock shall be in the Hands of any Poor to work, and such Poor shall refuse to deliver the same, it seems two such Justices may make the like Warrant to sevy, Oc. and in Default thereof may commit ut Supra. ibid.

And

And the Refusers to pay their Rates or Money assessed upon them, and Overseers having Money or Stock behind upon their Account, their Forseitures shall be levy'd by the new Overseers and Churchwardens, or one of them, by Warrant from two such Justices, &c. But for other Negligences or Forseitures of the Overseers and Churchwardens, the Justices shall make their Warrant to the Constables to levy the same.

And if any Parish is not able to relieve their Poor, then any two such Justices may tax and assess any other Persons within the same Hundred to pay the Overseers of the said poor Parish such Sums of Money as the said Justices shall think fit, for the Purposes aforesaid. Ibid.

Mich. 32 Car. 2. B. R. Resolved that the Justices might impose the Charge upon any of the Inhabitants of the Neighbouring Parish, and were not obliged to put a general Tax upon the whole Parish. Vent. 350.

Now as to Taxations, either for a Stock to set the Poor to work, or competent Sums of Money towards the necessary Relief of the Lame, Impotent, Old, Blind, &c. or for the putting forth of Children: let us consider,

I. What Persons or Things are taxable.

II. In what Manner, or how Mens Estates are to be taxed.

III. What shall be faid to be a Parish chargeable to the Poor.

I. What Persons or Things are taxable.

Now in the Judges Resolutions it was a Quare, what Proportion should Parsonages or Tithes bear to the Taxation of the Poor of the Parish:

And

Ch. 2. and of Taxes for their Relief. 17

And it was Resolved, Resol. 33. The Parson or Vicar Presentative shall bear according to the reasonable Value of his Parsonage, having Consideration to the just Deduction. And concerning Parsonages impropriate, the Tithes are to be considered in their several Kinds; for Tithe-Corn is usually paid to the Parson, and small Tithes of all kinds to the Vicar. By Tembs of Parsonages, or Tithes impropriate, it is only meant that they should pay for the Tenths of the Profits they receive.

2. Every Occupier of Lands, Houses, Mines, or Saleable Underwood, (proportioning them to an Annual Benefit, Ge.) shall be tax'd. It was a Question, 27 Car. 2. in the Town of Wickbam's Case, Whether Tolls of Markets should be taxa-ble? It is reported in 3 Keb. p. 540. The Case was this: The Town of Wickham in Bucks had much Poor, and therein was a considerable Market, the Toll whereof belonging to the Corporation there, was worth 60 l. per Annum, which the Overfeers had tax'd, and the Mayor and Juffices refus'd to fign and allow it, pretending it was not taxable; the Overfeers and Justices attended the Lord Chief Justice Hale for his Opinion, who faid, He conceiv'd it taxable within the 43 Eliz. yet the Justices would not allow the Tax, of which Complaint being made to the King's Bench, a Rule was made for the Mayor, Oc. to attend, and they did attend accordingly; and they observing the Court to be angry, allow'd the Tax; and per Hale: For fuch a Refufal a Quo Warranto will lie: And the Court order'd the Mayor to pay the Charges of their Profecution. This being, tho' not nam'd, yet conceiv'd, within the Equity of the late Sratute, which shall be beneficially construed.

18 Of Setting the Poor to work, Ch. 2.

Quest. Whether Shops, Salt-pits, Sheds, Profits of a Market, &c. be taxable to the Poor, as well as Lands and Coal-Mines?

Resolv. 19. All Things which are real, and a yearly Revenue, must be tax'd to the Poor.

Also in most Cases a Man may be rated for his Goods, as well as for Lands: But 'tis said, not for both Goods and Lands; and where it is for Goods, they must be Bona notabilia. Also one shall be charg'd for his Goods, only in that Town or Parish where the Goods be at the Time of the Assessment. Vide Dalt. 140. and 5. Rep. 67. and Post.

And Note, If Persons affess'd die before the same be collected, without Default of the Over-seers, (which sometimes happens) a new Rate and Assessment is to be made to supply the same.

Vide Dalt. 154.

If a Parishoner bring into the Parish (without Consent of the Parish) one that becomes burdensome to the Parish, he may be tax'd, not only having Respect to his Ability, or the Land he occupies, but according to the Damage and Danger he brings to the Parish. Refol. 35.

If any Overseer lays out Money, he may be reimburs'd by general Order of Sessions. Peckham's Case, at Maidstone Asses; and per Hale, it is good within the Statute. 1 Keb. 236.

If an Overseer be obstinate, and will not disburse any Thing, this is Calus omissus; yet the Justices may compel them, and make a Tax for the Poor of themselves, in the same or another Year. Per Windham.

And

Ch. 2. and of Tuxen for their Relief. 19:

An Ordero is made to the Overseers to temper burse themselves; but because it was not directed to the Churchwardens and Overseers, it was quash'd.

If an Overfeer disburse without the Consent of his Partners, and no Care is taken monthly to take Account, an Order to reimburse him is null.

Mem. There is a Statute, 1 Jac. 1. c. 31. for Provision made for those who are infected with the Plague, by Rates and Taxations; quod vide.

6. 3. And be it also Enatted, That if the faid Tufices of Peace do perceive, that the Inhabitants of any Parish are not able to levy amongst themselves sufficient Sums of Money for the Purposes aforesaid, that then the Two Justices shall and may tax, rate and affess as aforesaid, any other of other Parifhes, or out of any Parish within the Hundred where the said Parish is, to pay such Sum and Sums of Money to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the said poor Parish. for the said Purposes, as the said Justices shall think fit, according to the Intent of this Law. And if the Said Hundred shall not be thought by the faid Justices able and fit to relieve the faid several Parisbes, not able to provide for themselves as aforesaid, then the fufices of Peace at their General Quarter-Seffions, or the greater Number of them, shall rate and assess as aforesaid any other of other Parishes, or out of any Parish within the said County, for the Parposes aforesaid, as in their Discretions shall seem fit.

If the Parish be not able to provide for the Poor Children of the same Parish, the Justices may provide Masters for them in other Parishes within the same Hundred; and if the Hundred be not able, then in the rest of the County, as for other Provision for the Poor, which must be at a Quarter-Sellious. Refolv. s.

Where one Parish is not of Ability to relieve the Poor of their own Parish, then the next Pasish being of Ability, are to be contributary to aid them therein, by a weekly Allowance made for their Relief; and where the first Cause doth cease of having such Relief, as if their Poor do decrease, and their Parish grow to be of Ability, the Contribution there shall cease, or this shall be lessen'd, accordingly as the Cause shall require; as if their Poor decrease, or the Poor and Charge of the other Parish adjoining doth increase.

The Case was, the Poor of the Parish of St. Peter's in Worcester encreas'd, by reason that divers Inhabitants of the Parish of St. Ellens had divers Tenements in St. Peter's, and they receiv'd great Rents, and the Tenants were very poor, and fo became a Charge to the Parish; and St. Ellen's Parish raiseth their Rents out of the Relief their poor Tenants have out of St. Peter's; the Mayor makes an Order for St. Ellen's Parish to pay 2 s. per Week to St. Peter's, and this to be rais'd by the Churchwardens of the Parish of St. Ellen's. and then the same to be by them paid over to the Churchwardens of the Parish of St. Peter's, and the Landlords of St. Ellen's, who had Tenements in St. Peter's, principally to be tax'd. The next Mayor, the Poor decreasing in St. Peter's, took off I s. per Week from St. Ellen's: This last Order was confirm'd by the Judges of Assize. And per Fones, The Inhabitants of St. Ellen's shall pay for their Tenements in St. Peter's; and if there be no Distress to be found because their Tenants are poor, upon their Refusal to pay their Rate, the Judges of Affize (upon Complaint) shall make a Special Order to the Mayor to levy the Proportion. 2 Bulft. 353. The Court refus'd to confirm an Order of Sessions, made to charge another Parish to contribute to the Poor of Hinckly, because the two next Justices, who by the Statute are made Judges within the Hundred, (as in case of Bastards, by 18 Eliz.) did not certifie, and till their Default the Sessions cannot meddle originally, because the Appeal is taken away, and therefore the next Justices ought to certifie there is no Parish sufficient in the Hundred. An Overseer is not bound to lay out Money till he receives it; but if he does, he may make a new Rate for the Relief of the Poor, and out of that he may retain to pay himself. Et per Cur' The Churchwardens and Overseers may make a Rate themselves. Tanny's Case, Hil 2 A. B. R. Salkeld, 531.

the Poor, and of every Occupier of Lands, Honses, &c. in the Said Parish, &c.

Now what shall be said to be a Parish chargeable to the Poor; and to illustrate this, I shall cite a Case adjudged in List. Rep. 73. Hill. 2 Car. 1. in Com. B. Hilton and Paul: Which was upon a special Verdict, and was thus: That the Parish of Hinckly was an ancient Rectory and Parish-Church, Time out of Memory, &c. and that Stoke golding (where the Saddle was taken, it be-C 2 ing ing an Action of Trespass for taking a Saddle) is an ancient Village, and Parcel of the Rectory of Hinckly; and that in the Time of Hen: 6. and all Times after, there was a Church in Stoke-golding; and that then, and at all Times aften, at was and is reputed and taken for a Parillo-Church; and that the Inhabitants have parochial Rights there, and Churchwardens of their own; and that Stoke-golding is distant from Hinckly two Miles: and if the Village of Stoke-golding be a Parish within the Stat. 43 Eliz, chargeable for their own Poor only? was the Question. This Case was spoke to by all the Judges, and it was resolv'd by them, That Stoke-golding was a Parish within the Intention of the Statute. For by Richardson: Here are two distinct Churches, and such which have Churchwardens, and all parochial Rights. And this is a Parish within this Law; for the Statute faith, the Churchwardens of every Parish. This is fuch a Parish as hath Churchwardens, who have Charge of the Poor. It's a Parish, tho' within the Rectory of Hinckly, and so to pay Tithes to it only. Per Hutton: It hath been objected, That there is a Provision for the Isle of Forlness, being only a Chapel of Ease, and no Parish, that the Inhabitants should act by vertue of the Statute as if they were a Parish; and if it had been included in the Body of the Act, there had been no Necessity of Exception; but, per Hutton, this Provision in the End of the Statute, proves only that the Statute extends only to reputed Parishes, and not to Chapels of Ease. Per Croke: If this should not be a Parish, there would be no Remedy for the Poor; and the Churchwardens of Hinckly were never Churchwardens of Stoke-golding, but of Hinckly only.

A like Cafe was adjudg'd in the King's Bench, Hill. 10 Car. 1. between Nichols Plaintiff, and Walker and Carter Defendants, Jones Rep. 355. Huffeld was a Parish, and Totteridge a Village within the Parish of Hatfield, and paid their Tithes to the Parson of Hatfield; but that Totteridge for the Space of fixty Years and upwards, and at the Time of the making the Statute 43 Eliz. was a reputed Parith, and had a Constable and Overfeers of the Poor, and that they prorided for the Poor of Totteridge, and never contributed to the Poor of Hatfield. The Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of Hatfield make a Taxation for the Poor, and tax Nichols Plaintiff, who had Land, and was an Inhabitant in Totteridge, which was affirm'd by Two Justices according to the Statute. Nichols refuseth to pay it, whereupon they distrain him by Warrant of the Justices of Peace, upon which Nichels brought Action of Trespass against the Defendants, Churchwarden and Overfeer of Hatfield. Adjudg'd by the Court, that the Action lies, for a Precinct of a Parish is within the Statute 43 Eliz. and is to be affes'd by it felf, and not with the Mother-Church; and if it should be otherwise, great Confusion should enfue. DEPOSED TON

Anno 1603. Two Hamlets were tax'd together with the Parish; but fince 1652, they have and do tax themselves distinctly; and the Court order'd the Justices to fign the Tax as anciently; and per Windham: Albeit there were a Soke of particular Jurisdiction from the Town, yet the Justices of Assize may settle the Tax, which the Court agreed. 2 Keb. 421. Note, by Kelynge, whereas the Statute 14 Car. 2. c. 12. is, That in great Parishes there should be distinct Overseers, this Clause was inserted for Cumberland, and others nam'd, he being in the House of Commons at the making the faid Act, which the Court agreed; but upon Appeal for Inequality, the Hamlets are not exempted. 2 Keb. 469. There was a Case, 18 Car. 2. B. R. between the Inhabitants of Shadwell against Ratcliff and Wapping. These are several Hamlets of one Parish; and in 1631, they were fevered in their Rates to the Poor, but were lately by Order of Seffions tax'd as one entire Parish of the Tower, which was confirm'd by Chief Justice Hide and Windham. But these three Streets are but one Hamlet anciently, and the other Five are distinct Hamlets, and they appear not in this Return; the Court confirm'd the first Order, and quasti'd the Taft.

Killingworth in Com' War. is a great Town of two Villages, but only one Church, (and no Chapel of Ease,) and the Tenants of both paid diffinctly and dividedly to the Poor; and on 14 Car. 2. c. 12. if the Plaintiff being Inhabitant in one End, should pay to the Poor of the other? was the Question on a special Verdict in Trespass. Per Hate: There can be no Prescription against 42 Eliz. c. 2. But if there hath been a Chapel of Ease and Churchwardens, and distinct Rates, this by Construction is a Parish within 43 Eliz. but is no Parish in Truth or Reputation (as appears in the Verdict) it's a void Prescription. The Statute 14 Car. 2. extends not to all great Parishes, for thereby Statute 43 Eliz. would be eluded, the Event of which would be to lay the Charge on the Boroughs where the Bulk of the Poor is, and the Out villages where the Lands are would be discharg'd. Here is no Prescription to maintain the Poor distinctly, and Prescriptions are left as they were before 14 Car. 2. and 43 Eliz. and for the Cafe of Wilfon and Bonner. Three Villages were found in Camden ancient, and relieving the Poor distinctly, and adjudged for the Defendant in that Cafe, because Glocester was not any of the Counties mention'd in the Statute 14 Car. 2. 3 Keb. 539. S. 6. Provided always, That if any Person or Persons shall find themselves griev'd with any Soss or Tax, or other Act done by the said Churchwardens and other Persons, or by the said Justices of Peace, that then it shall be lawful for the Justices of Peace, at their General Quarter-Sessions, or the greater Number of them, to take such Order therein as to them shall be thought convenient; and the same to conclude and bind all Parties.

This extends as well to binding Apprentices, and building Houses on the Waste for the Poor, as to Rates and Seffments.

Note, Head-Officers of Cities and Corporate Towns (being Justices of Peace) have the same Authority within their Limits, as herein is limited 36 Of Building Houses for the Poor, Ch. 3. mited to Justices of Peace of the same County, Ge. and no other Justices of Peace are to intermeddle there.

One Act made in the thirty-first Year of Her Majesty's Reign, Centituled, An Act against the erecting and maintaining of Cottages, or any Thing therein contain'd to the contrary in any wife notwithstanding: Which Cottages and Places for Inmates shall not at any time after be us'd or employ'd to or for any other Habitation, but only for Impotent or Poor of the same Barish, that shall be there plac'd from Time to Time by Ch. 3. As to providing Houses for the Poor, it's made a Quere, because the Overseers cannot do it by sorcing the Parishioner's Habitation, nor by personal Charge by engaging for the Rent. By Stat. 3 Jac. 1. c. 10. An Offender, which is to be convey'd to the Gaol, if able, shall bear all Charges, both of himself and of those that guard him.

If he refuse so to do, upon a Warrant from a fustice of Peace, the Constable of the Township where he hath any Goods (being within the same County) may sell so much thereof, as in the Discretion of the said fustices shall be thought sufficient to satisfie the said Charges; the Appraisement thereof to be made by the Neighbours there, and the Overplus to be render'd to the said Offender.

If the Offender hath no Goods to satisfy the Charges, the Constables, Churchwardens, and two or three other honest Inhabitants, or (in case there be no such Officers there) four of the principal Inhabitants of the Parish where he was taken, shall make a Tax, according to which (being allow'd under the Hand of a fustice of Peace) every Inhabitant shall pay the said Charges: And upon Resusal (by Warrant from a Instice of Peace) the Constable, Tything-man, or other other Officer, hath Power to levy the same by Distress, and (after Appraisement by four Inhabitants there) to sell the same, rendering the Overplus to the Party so resusing.

Here, if the Officer that distrains be sued, he shall plead Justification; and upon Verdict for him, or Nonsuit of the Plaintiff, shall recover treble Damages, besides Costs of Suit.

And by Stat. 19 Car. 2. c. 4. it is enacted, That the Justices of Peace of the respective Counties, at their General Sessions, may provide a Stock of such Materials as they think meet for the setting poor Prisoners on Work, as other County-Charges may be levy'd by the Law of the Land, and to provide fit Persons to oversee the Work; provided no Parish be charg'd above Six-pence a Week.

The Sheriffs of the respective Counties having the Custody of the Gaol, with the Advice of three Justices of the Peace, (one Quorum,) may provide other safe Places to remove sick Persons out of the ordinary Gaols, the same Places to be employ'd for the custody of Prisoners there to be kept.

CHAP. IV.

Of putting out Apprentices; who may be compell'd to take Apprentices or not; and how Money given for the putting them out shall be bestow'd.

THE Children of Such whose Parents shall not by the greater Part of the Overseers be thought able to keep and maintain their Children, the Over-Seers by Assent of Tao Justices may put out to be Apprentices, (viz.) the Men Children till their Age of twenty-four, and the Women Children till their Age of twenty-one Years or Marriage; the same to be as effectual to all Purposes, as if such Child were of full Age, and by Indenture of Covenant bound him or herself, Stat. 43 Eliz. c. 2. S. To which, this Addition is made in the Stat. I Jac. 25. (viz.) That all Such Persons, to whom the Overseers of the Poor shall according to the Said Act bind any Children Apprentices, may take, receive, and keep them as Apprentices, any former Statute to the contrary notwithstanding; and there is an Addition in the Statute 3 Car. 1. c. 4. by which the fame are made further to conunuc.

All such Children of the Age of Seven Years or above, so bound Apprentices, shall be taken and kept as Apprentices by their Masters, but such Binding must be by Indenture. The Form of such Indenture vide in p. 217.

The putting of poor Children out Apprentices, is holden to be one of the best Ways for providing for the Poor. Refol. 1.

One Justice of the Peace may compel any fer-fon meet, to be bound as an Apprentice.

As the Statute enableth the Chuschwardens and Overseers (with the Consent of two Justices of the leace) to put out Apprentices, so it doth enable them to place those Apprentices with their Masters. And the faid Justices may compel all fuch as be of Ability to take fuch Apprentices (according to their Diferetion); and if any fuch Malter shall refuse to take such Apprentice fo to him appointed, the faid Justices may bind fuch Masters over to the next General Gaol-Delivery, there to answer such Default. And this was the Direction of Sir Henry Mountagne, Knight, Chief Justice of the King's Bench, at Cambridge Affizes, Anno Dom. 1618. wherewith agreed Sir Nicholas Hide and Francis Harvy, And if he refuse to take such Apprentices, or to give Bail to appear at the next General Gaol-Delivery or Quarter-Sessione, he may be sent to Gaol, there to remain till he shall give such Bond. Refel. 3. 6.

Every Man who by his Calling and Profession, or Manner of Living, entertaineth, and must have use of other Servants of like Quality, must entertain such an Apprentice; yet Discretion must guide according to Circumstances, Resol. 3. As Knights, Gentlemen, Yeomen, &c. and Clergymen; so was the Opinion of all the Judges, as the Publisher of Dalton was informed, Dalt. p. 151. or at least they are chargeable to the putting them out. Q. A Sojourner, Every wealthy Person, tho' he live privately, and tho'

he have no Uie for a Servant, may be tax'd towards the putting forth Apprentices, or other Relief for the Poor. Refel. 3, 4.

They may be put out to other Parishes; but in Spearing's Case, I Keb. 474. a Certiorari was granted, to try whether by an Order of Justices and Overseers, an Apprentice might be placed with a Draper in another Corporation? And p. 517. they may do it, but not unless he be a Farmer, and he did farm Lands in the same Parish.

The Churchwardens and Overfeers (with the Confent of the faid Justices as it feems) may impose upon such Master resuling to take such Apprentice, a competent Sum of Money for the putting out fuch Apprentice elfewhere; and upon the Master's Refusal to pay fuch Money, two fuch Justices may make their Warrant, to levy the same by Diffressand Sale of the Offender's Goods, Oc. vid. Poulton, 2, 4. But it is not neceffary that any Money Thould be given with Apprentices, for that must be left to the Diferetion of the Churchwardens and Overfeers, all Circumstances of Age and Ability being confider'd; and if they cannot agree with the Party, then the Justices of the Peace adjoining, or in their Default, the Sessions of Peace are to determine this. Refot. 2.

Or the Refuters to take such Apprentices, may be presented and indicted for the same, upon the Statute 43 Eliz. at the Assizes or Sessions of the Peace, and upon such Indicament, they may be fin'd and imprison'd. Refol. 7.

If any one refuseth to take such Apprentice, he shall be bound over to the Sessions, and if when he appeareth there he shall likewise refuse, what shall be done to him? And what shall be done to the Parents who refuse to suffer their Children to be put out Apprentices, themselves not being able to maintain them? Refol. 7. If at Sessions or Assizes he refuseth, and his Excuse is not allow'd, it's fit he be bound to the Good Behaviour, and he may be indicted for a Contempt, and thereupon he may be fin'd and imprison'd; if he refuse to be bound to the Good Behaviour, let him be imprison'd till he will: And the King's Book of Orders directs, that fuch be bound with good Sureties, to appear at the Councilboard: It the Parents refuse, let them be committed to the House of Correction.

And Note, in Easter Term, 3 Anna, B. R. one Gould was indicted on the Stat. 5. Eliz. c. 4. for that a poor Boy being put to him as an Apprentice, he vi & armis refus'd to provide for him, &c. and on Motion to quash it, these Exceptions were taken, viz. I. That this was not a Matter indictable on the faid Statute. 2. In case it were indictable, there ought to have been Application first made to a Justice of Peace, and after that an Appeal to the Seffions, and then perhaps for disobeying their Orders an Indictment might lie. 2. It is laid Vi & armis, which being for a Non-feasance, is absurd and inconsistent. But it was answer'd and resolv'd per Gur', 1. That tho' in the Case of a common Apprentice an Indictment will not lie, yet it will lie in this Cafe. 2. That the formerly in Pyne's Case, (vide Post.) it was held. That the Justices could not compel one to take an Apprentice upon this Statute, yet the contrary Opinion has fince prevail'd; and when we allow them fuch a Power, we must of necessary Consequence allow an Indictment for difdisobeying their Orders, either for not receiving, or receiving, and afterwards turning off, or not providing for, such an Apprentice; and tho an Act prescribes an easier way of proceeding by Complaint, yet that does not hinder the way of Indictment. 3. That tho the Vi & Armis in this Case be absurd, yet it is only Surplusage, and shall not vitiate the Indictment. Vide Stat. 8 & 9 W. 3.

cap. 30.

It is made a Quere in the Resolution. Q. 25. Whether an Apprentice put out by the Churchwardens, &c. according to the Statute, to a Mafter in another Parish; if his Master die, and leave no Executor or Administrator fit to keep an Apprentice, or able to place him, whether he shall be provided for in the Parish where he was Apprentice, or shall be fent back to the Parish from whence he was put out? Refol. Servants and Apprentices are by Law settled in that Parish: and if they become impotent there, the Parish must abide the Adventure, after the Term or Time of Service be lawfully ended. [But if the Executor bath Affets left him, the Judge of Affize hath order'd him to keep him, or place him out.

An Order of the Justices of Peace in their Seftions, That the Executors should keep the Apprentice, was quash'd; but it was held, that Covenant would lie against the Executor, at least for Maintenance. Vide 2 Lev. 17. Salkeld, 66.

It's said, an Apprentice put to a Man in regard of his Farm, when his Lease expireth, the Apprentice must still go with the Farm, if the Master will. Otherwise, when an Apprentice is put to a Man in regard of his Ability, or for other respect. Dalt. ult. Edit. p. 152.

The Publisher of the last Dalton feems to oppose this fo long received Opinion (That Persons may be compelled to take poor Children Apprentices) of the Judges of Affize, and according to the Refolutions of the ancient Judges in 1632. And these Resolutions appear to him of little Weight, and this chiefly upon the Authority of Judge Twisden, p. 152, 161. I agree, the Reasons he gives against that Opinion are fit for Consideration, and the most equal Way feems to be by a Stock raised. But as to the general Authority of the Refolutions, I shall cite my Lord Coke's grave Opinion deliver'd in his Second Institutes, p. 735. in his Explication of the Statute 7 fac. cap 4. concerning Houses of Correction. His Words are thefe .: We have not gone about to speak of the Statute of 39 Eliz. or other Statutes concerning Rogues, Oc. or the Poor, &c. which all the ludges of England have upon due Consideration explained, and which are truly rehearfed and imprinted, and ought to be observed, &c. His Words are of Weight, and he was contemporary with them. In the Margent, he cites Lam. bard's Justice of the Peace, lib. 2. p. 207. wherein the faid Refolutions are fet down, and as many as concern this Subject are here faithfully transcribed (though the Law in some Points is singe alter'd by Acts of Parliament, as may be obferved ferved in this Treatife.) Now I shall cite some Cases that have been adjudged concerning this Point, wherein we may see the Variety of Opinions of the Judges, though in the main they all agreed of the Sense of the Act, prater Twisden, and at last how it was resolved by all the Judges in the 28th of Charles the Second, for the Question was of great Confequence.

In the Case between the King and Nemion, an Order of Sessions was made for taking a Bastard-Child Apprentice, not shewing that the Child was a poor Child, or charged on the Parish, nor in what Trade he was to be bound to, and pray'd to be quash'd; especially for that the Child was bound but to a Tenant at Will in the Parish. Per Curiam, The Order shall be confirmed; and did declare, That one may be compelled to take an Apprentice.

About the 14 Car. 2. and in the Time of Charles I. Hutton and Croke were of the fame Opinion, to whom the Justices referred such a Case. And an Order was made at the Council-Board, to quicken the Justices in all the Counties to the like Rule : And by Foster Chief Justice, The Statute would be uselets, should not there be a Compulsion to take as well as to set out. And it is part of the Resolution of the Judges, that Confideration should be had of the Age of fuch Children. Windham conceived, the Meaning of the Law was to advance Husbandry, and not to bind to other Trades; and it is intended the Seifions (being a Court) will do justly, and yet he thought they may place fuch Children where they please. Twisden stickled against this Opinion, on Tarlye's Cafe in Kent; but yet notwithstanding the Court confirmed the Order, and held held the Exception insufficient. Another Case there was about the same time between the Justices of Peace of Derby and one Gillibert; in which Case Windham was of Opinion, That they that are grieved have no Remedy but before the Justices, who in this Case are Judges of the Fitness of the Parties with whom they place them; to which Foster Chief Justice agreed: And that if the Party have Wrong, upon his Indictment, or Information preferred on Contempt, or Refusal to obey rhe Order, he may plead it.

The Justices of Spalding in Somer fet shire put one Hannah Apprentice to the Defendant, who was Parithioner (as a Farmer) but no Inhabitant; on which the Defendant appealed to the next Sessions at T. who confirmed their Order by the Defendant's Consent; for Contempt of which he was after indicted at Sessions, and he removed the Order and Indictment into the King's Bench. Counsel pray'd a Procedendo, for that the Child is well placed by 43 Eliz. in that the Defendant hath agreed to it. But per Curiam, The Defendant is a Draper in another Parish, and may have 100 l. with an Apprentice. It was referred to the Judge of Affize, 1 Keb. 634. Spering's Cafe. And then by After-Opinions, it was thought fufficient, if fuch Person to whom the Apprentice is put doth provide for him by raising Money for his Maintenance, as was done by Sir John Ferris in Hertfordsbire, tho' he was not any Trader: And Kelynge Ch. Justice faid, he had had many Apprentices put upon him, and that he had done the like. Twisden at length agreed it to be the fettled Course, and in the principal Case, the Counsel pray'd a Certiorari to remove an Order of the Justices in Confirmation of an Order made by

by the Overfeers of the Poor to place an Apprentice with the Defendant, but the Court refus'd to grant it. This was the Case of the King against

But the Act of 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 30. has in a great Measure put an end to this Dispute: For thereby it is Enacted, That where any poor Children thall be appointed to be bound Apprentices, purfuant to 43 Eliz. c. 2. the Persons to whom they are appointed to be bound shall receive and provide for them according to the Indenture; and upon refusal so to do, upon Oath thereof made by a Churchwarden or Overseer before two Juflices. He or She to offending shall forfeit 10 1 to be levy'd by Diffress and Sale of Goods, to the Use of the Poor of the Parish where such Offence is committed, faving to fuch Persons their Appeal to the next Quarter-Sellions for that County whose Order therein shall be final.

And Pasch. 3 A. B. R. Gould was indicted, for that a poor Boy being put out Apprentice to bim according to the Statute, he refused to provide for him. Per Cur'. Since we allow the Justices Power to put out Apprentices, we must allow an Indictment for Disobedience either in case of not

A. 19. It is Enacted, That if any Action of Trespass, or other Suits, shall be brought against any Person or Persons for taking any Distress, making of any Sale, or any other Thing doing by Authority of this Act, the Desendant may plead Not guilty, and give the special Matter in Evidence, or else make Avonry, Cognizance or Justification, for the taking the said Distress, making Sale, or any other Thing doing, alledging, That the said Trespass, Distress, Sale, or other Thing, was done by Authority of this Act; to which the Plaintiff shall reply, De Injuria sua propria absque tali Causa, and if the Verdict be for the Desendant, or the Plaintiff be Nonsuit after Appearance, the Desendant shall recover treble Damages with Cost, or Writ to enquire of the Damages.

Refolv. 7. If the Child refuse to be bound, fend him to the House of Correction, quousque.

By Statute 7 Jac. 1. c. 3. Children which be above the Age of Fifteen Years, are not thought fit or allow d to be first bound out as Apprentices, but must be forc'd to work, or to go to Service; and if they refuse, to be fent to the House of Correction, or bound over to their Good Behaviour to the Affizes or Sessions of the Peace.

Note, in Hillary Term, 2 Anne, the Queen vers. Daniel, an Indictment was for procuring and seducing an Apprentice to leave his Master, and perswading him to embezil his Goods; and as to the seducing him from his Master, which was the only Point in Judgment, it was held per tot. Cur', no Indictment would lie. And per Holt Chief Justice, a Conspiracy to charge one with a Bastard-Child, is indictable; but if one should advise another to do it without more, it is not.

And in the Case of one Collingwood, Mich. 3: Anne, it was held per tot. Cur', That an Indictment for inticing an Apprentice to take away his Matter's Goods Goods, was not maintainable; for the Charge ought to be direct and positive, That the Apprentice did take away the Goods; tho' in that Indictment it was averi'd, That Collingwood receiv'd the Goods from him.

How Money, given for the binding of poor Children to Occupations shall befored, by Stat. 7 Jac. c. 3. at large.

COrasmuch as the true Labour and Exercise of Husbandry, and the bringing up of Apprentices of both Sexes in Trades and Manual "Occupations, are Things very profitable in the · Commonwealth, and acceptable and pleafing " unto Almighty God, there being already Sums of Money freely given, and more in Time to come like to be given, by divers well-disposed Perfons, unto the Corporations of divers Cibies, Boroughs, Towns Corporate, and unto divers Perfons in fundry Towns not Corporate, and Parishes within the Realm of England, to be continually employ'd in the binding out as Apprentices a great Number of the poorest fort of Children unto needful Trades and Occupations, the Experience whereof hath brought o forth very great Profit and Commodity unto e those Cities, Towns and Parishes, where any · Parts of the faid Moneys have been fo given and employ'd, and fo no doubt there will confequently enfue thereof the exceeding Good of the Commonwealth in general. And for that the most part of the poorer forts of Children would (as heretofore) without fuch Care and Affiltance be brought up in Idleness, and disorder'd kinds of Life, to their utter Overthrow, throw, and to the great Prejudice of the whole Commonwealth: And for that it is very likely that many other well-dispos'd People will be the better encourag'd willingly to follow the like good Example, in bestowing all good Sums of Money to the same good and godly Purposes, if it might be so provided, if such Moneys as have been already so freely given, or as hereafter shall be given, for the binding out of such poor Children Apprentices, may hereaster continually remain and be wholly employ'd accordingly.

Be it Enacted therefore, That all Sums of Money freely given at any Time within Three Years last past, or hereafter to be given by any Person or Persons, to be continually employ'd for the binding out of Apprentices as aforesaid, that for ever hence orth continue, and be from Time to Time us'd and employ d to fuch Lies, Intents and Purpoles only, and by fuch Persons, and in fuch Manner and Form. as shall be hereafter by this present Act specify'd and declar'd; (except the fame have been or shall be otherwise order'd or dispos'd by the Givers thereof) that is to fay, That all Corporations of all Cities, Boroughs and Towns Corporate, by what Name or Names foever they hall be known or incorporated; and in Towns and Parishes not incorporate, the Parson or Vicar of every fuch Town or Parish, together with the Constables, Churchwardens, Collectors, and the Overfeers for the Poor for the Time being, or the most part of them, where any such Sum or Sums of Money are already given, or shall be hereafter given to be so employ'd, shall from Time to Time within the faid feveral Cities, Boroughs, Towns and Parishes respective-1y, have the Nomination and placing of fuch Apprentices, and the Guiding and Employment of all fuch Moneys as have been heretofore fo given, or which hereafter shall be given, to and for the continual binding forth of fuch and fo · many Apprentices, and in fuch fort as is already, or hereafter shall be so given and appointed, either by the last Will and Testament, or by any Writing or Writings under the Hands and Seals of any Person or Persons which hath already, or hereafter shall so give any Sum or Sums of Money unto the good and godly Purposes and Intents aforesaid. And if the Corporation of any fuch Cities, Boroughs or Towns · (orporate, by what Name or Names foever they shall be call'd or incorporated, or any the · Person or Persons in the other Towns and Pa-" rishes above-mention'd, appointed by this Act to have the continual Guiding and Employment of fuch Sums of Money fo already given, or hereafter to be given, to the Intents and · Purposes aforesaid, shall at any Time hereafter wilfully forbear or refuse, according to their Duties in this Behalf, to employ such Sums of Money fo given, or to be given as aforefaid, for the binding out of fuch Apprentices, by Means of which wilful Forbearance or Refusing, the said Money shall not be employ'd accordingly, that they and every of them fo offending contrary to this Act, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Three Pounds Six Shillings and Eight Pence lawful English Money, the one Half thereof to be given to the · Poor of the Town or Parish where such Fault or Offence shall be done or committed, the other 4.

other Moiety to the Party that shall sue for the same. And that every Man that will, may and shall be admitted to sue for the same Moiety to the Use and Benefit of the said Poor, and shall be also admitted to sue for the Forseiture of the other Moiety in any of the King's Majesty's Courts of Record, to his own Benefit and Behoof, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Protection, Wager of Law or Essoin, shall be admitted or allow'd.

' And for that all Moneys to given may the better continue to and for the Purposes aforefaid, be it Enacted, That the Master, Mittrels, or Dame of every fuch Apprentice or Apprentices, that shall receive any such Sum or Sums of Money as aforesaid, shall become bound with one or two fufficient Sureties, by Bond or Obligation, in double the Sum which they and every of them shall so receive with every fuch Apprentice or Apprentices as aforetaid, unto the Corporation of any fuch City, or 'Town Corporate, by what Name or Names foever they shall be call'd or incorporated, or tofuch Person or Persons in the other Towns and Parishes not incorporated, appointed by this Act to have continually the Guidance and Employment of all fuch Sums of Money to already given, or hereafter to be given, to the Intents and Purposes aforesaid respectively; upon Condition to pay fuch Sum or Sums of Money, as he or the shall receive with fuch Apprentice or Apprentices, at the End of feven Years next enfuing the Date of the faid Obligation, or within three Months next after the End of the faid seven Years. And if such Apprentice ' happen to die within the Space of seven Years, D 4

And if the Master, Mistress, or Dame, to whom any such Apprentice or Apprentices shall be bound, shall happen to die within the said Space of seven Years, then within one Year next after his or her Death, so as the said Moneys may be again employ'd, for placing such Apprentice with some other Person of the same Trade, to serve out the Residue of the Years of his or her former Apprentiship by the Discretion of the said Persons Trustees as aforesaid.

And be it further Enacted, That every fuch Sum or Sums of Money fo given, or to be given in Manner and Form, and to and for the good Uses and Intents aforefaid, shall always be put forth and employ'd by the Parties aforefaid, that by this Act shall have the Employment and Disposal thereof, within three Months at the farthest after fuch Moneys shall come to the hands of the faid Parties, that by the true Intent and Meaning of this Act ought to dispose and employ the same. And if at fuch Time there thall not be found fit and apt Perfons to be bound out Apprentices as afore-" faid within the faid Cities, Towns and Parithes, where such Sums of Money are or hereafter shall be given to be employ'd as before is declard; then such of the poorest Children of 'any of the Parishes next adjoining, shall be bound Apprentices in manner as aforefaid, as by the Care and good Diferetion of the Parties, which by this Act have the Disposing and Emplayment of the faid Sums of Moneys in the Cities, Towns and Parishes, where it was first given to be employ'd, Thall be thought fit and convenient, asking fuch Bonds and Obligations of the Persons that shall receive the same Sums of Money to put forth, and with fuch Sureties, and upon fuch Conditions, as 18 2-bove-mention'd and declar'd.

Provided always, that Choice from Time to Time be made of the poorest Sorts of Children of every fuch City, Town and Parish where fuch Moneys shall be so given, and whose Parents are least able to relieve them. And that no fuch Apprentice shall be above the Age of fifteen Years, when he or the shall be so first bound out an Apprentice.

And for the better Execution of this Act, be it further Enacted, That all and every Person and Persons appointed by this Act, to have the ' disposing and employing of any Sum or Sums of Money to given or to be given as aforefaid, within any Town or Parish not Corporate, shall once every Year in the Easter Week, or within one Month next after Eafter-day, make a true and perfect Account before four, three or two Justices of the Peace, dwelling in or next to every the faid Towns and Parishes, of all fuch Sum and Sums of Money, as they or any of them have employ'd in binding Apprentices, by Virtue of this Act, and of all Bonds and Obligations taken for the Payment thereof: And also of all such Sums of Money as then shall happen to be remaining in their Hands not employ'd : And also shall at the making and yielding up of the faid Account, or within ten Days then next following, yield and deliver up unto fuch as shall happen next to succeed them, or then to be in their faid Rooms and Places, all fuch Obligations and Bonds, as by them or any of them have been before that Time taken to the Uses aforesaid. As also all Sums of Money remaining in their or any of their Hands to be employ'd as aforesaid, and not employ'd at the Time of the yielding up the said Accounts.

And further, be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any of the Parties appointed and trufted by this Act to have the Dispofing and Employment of any of the faid Sums of Money so given or to be given as aforefaid, fhall in any Point or Degree break the Truft or Confidence in them in this Behalf repos'd, or hall commit any other Misdemeanour or Offence in mitemploying of the said Sums of " Money, or any part thereof, or in doing any other Act or Acts contrary to their Duties, and the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, for which there is not by this Act any Penalty gie ven or appointed: Then it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons whatsoever in Behalf of the Poor in such City, Borough or Parith, to exhibit his Petition to the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England for the time being, touching the fame, which Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England for the time being, shall thereupon have full Power and Authority to award a Commission out of the High Court of Chancery under the Great Seal of England, unto fuch Person and Persons as his Lordship shall think meet, to inquire, hear and determine the faid Offences, and every of them. And if the faid Commissioners, or the most part of them, shall find, that any Sum or Sums of Money so given or to be given are loft, wasted, impair'd or diminish'd, then they or the most part of them shall likewise have Power by Vertue of this

At, and of their said Commission, to rate, ' raife, and collect the faid Sums of Money fo loft, 'impair'd, wasted, or diminish'd, upon such Person or Persons in Places not incorporate, as by this Act are appointed to have the guiding and ordering of the faid Moneys, if they or any of them have fail'd in their faid Duties inthat Behalf, or otherwise, upon the able Inhabitants of the faid City, Town or Parith where the fame shall so happen, as in the Discretionof the faid Commissioners, or the greatest part of them, shall be thought fittelt, and to return the faid Commission, and the Manner of the Execution thereof, into the faid High Court of " Chancery within three Months next after the Execution thereof. And if any Person shall ' find himself aggriev'd by any thing done by the faid Commissioners, then upon Complaint made in the High Court of Chancery, the faid Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper for the time being, shall have full Power and Authority to order and decree the same, as to his Lordship shall be thought most fit to stand with Equity. and good Conscience.

Mr. Dalton makes a Quære, what Authority the Justices of Peace have by this Statute, if the Persons entrusted refuse to give Account; for they are only impowerd to take them, p. 154. I conceive this comes within the Words, or shall commit any other Misdemeanour or Offence. And so it may be remedied in Chancery.

By the Chief Justice: If the Justices of Peace discharge the Apprentice of his Covenant to his Master, it is a good Order, tho' they do not expressly discharge the Master of him, because it is disdischarg'd in Law of Course, by discharging of the Apprentice; for then the Master has no longer Power over him. 'Tis said, this must be in open Sessions, and by four Justices at the least.

Q. If they can discharge a Surgeon's Apprentice, not being a Trade within the Statute, and if he were not bound by Compulsion of the Justices, whether the Justices have Power to discharge him? For a like Construction hath been made on other Parts of the Statute; as, if a Servant in Husbandry is not paid his Wages, the Justices may order it, because they might have compell'd him to serve: But you never allow an Order for Coachmen and Footmens Wages, because the Justices cannot compel them to serve. 2 Keb. 122. I Sand. 313,314. Watkins and Edwards.

have been allow'd here for payment of more than Statute Wages; and tho' an Order for payment of Coachmens Wages hath been disputed, wet an Order for an Houshold Servant never was.

Chief Justice: The Court has indulg'd Orders for Servants Wages; but as to the Imposition of Apprentices, they are not to go to a Justice of Peace, if the Servant is willing to serve; for he is not to compel unless the Party resuseth. If the Statute should be taken, as it has been generally, then a rich Merchant in London may be compell'd to take an Apprentice with nothing. In the Case in Sannders, there was a Merchant, and Money given, which was allow'd; but a Surgeon is not a Trade within the Statute mention'd; tho' it is a Trade as to serving of seven Years within that Statute, that none can otherwise exercise it, but it is not a Trade mention'd before in the Statute, and the Statute cannot be extended to any other: Therefore per Cur. let the Order be quash'd.

Commission under the Great Scal of England, to enquire of what Moneys have been given toward erecting of Houses of Correction or Stocks.

N this Chapter I will treat concerning Workhouses and Houses of Correction, and will mention the Statutes that concern the fame.

Ch. 6. Methods and Benefits of them. 67

I shall first abridge the Statute 14 Car. 2. c. 12concerning the Work-houses in London, Middlesex, and Surrey, it being an excellent Precedent for other Corporations.

There shall be one or more Corporation or Corporations, Work-house or Work-houses, in London and Westminster, the Counties of Middle-sex and Surrey, lying within the Parishes in the Weekly Bills of Mortality, consisting of a President, Deputy-President, and Treasurer, the Lord-Mayor for the Time being to be President, and the Aldermen to be the Assistants, in London, with sifty-two Citizens to be chosen by the Common Council; and the Presidents and Assistants to chuse a Deputy, and a Treasurer, and other necessary Officers; and upon a Vacancy of any Assistant, the Power to be in the Common Council.

That the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper, to chuse the President and Deputy, the Treasurer and Assistants, in Westminster, out of the most fitting Persons of the Corporation there; and the Vacancies to be supply'd by Justices of the Peace in the Sessions.

That in Middlesex and Surrey, the President, Treasurer, and Assistants, shall respectively be nominated by the Justices of Peace in their Sessions, and the Vacancy supply'd by them: Which President, Deputy-President, Treasurer, and Assistants, shall be a Body Corporate, and shall have a perpetual Succession, and may sue, or be sued, by the Name of the President and Governours for the Poor of the respective Places aforemention'd in all Courts in this Kingdom and Wales, and may purchase Lands not exceeding 3000 l. per Annum, and any Goods, Chattels, or Sums of Money whatsoever; and each respective Corporation, or seven of them, may keep Courts at the Request of any four of the Corporation, and may have a common Seal.

The President and Governours, or any appointed by them, or any two of them, may apprehend Rogues, Vagrants, sturdy Beggars, or idle and disorderly Persons, within their Precincts, and let them to work.

The next Branch is, for the railing of a Stock for the Foundation and future Supply: And the Common Council for London, Burgesses and Justices in Sessions for Westminster, and the Justices of Peace at their Sessions for Surrey and Middle-Jex, are to ascertain such Sums of Money, not exceeding one Year's Rate, from Time to Time usually set upon Persons for the Relief of the Poor, and the same to proportion upon the several Wards, Precincts and Parishes; and thereupon the Alderman, Deputies, and Common Councilmen in London, the Burgesses and Justices in Westminster, and the Justices in Middlesex and Surrey, to rate the Inhabitants; and if any be grieved, he may appeal to the next Sessions.

The Aldermen and Deputies in London, the Burgesses and Justices in Westminster, and Justices in Middlesex and Surrey, or any two of them respectively, may, by Warrant under their Hunds and Seals, authorize the Churchwardens and Overseers, to demand and receive the Money assess and upon Notice in Writing left at the House or Lodging, and Non payment within ten Days, to levy by Diffress and Sale, rendring the Overplus.

All Stocks in London, in the Hands of any Person, with the Arrears of Money, and Legacies for the Poor, to be paid to the Treasurers there.

Indictment was on this Statute, for refusing to collect according to the Order of the Justices, which mention'd the Act only, without any Time or Place. Exception to the Indictment, because it was a private Act, and so not indictable. Per Windham, and Twisden; it's a publick Act, otherwise it would be fruitless, for a Churchwarden is a publick Officer; and here the King is in a fort concern'd, to whom Information is to be made by the Justices. 1 Keb. 732, 749. The King against Paulet, Churchwarden of St. Clements; 749. the Court agreed it a general Law, and Judgment for the King.

Certainly the raifing of Stocks, and providing Work-houses to set able Poor at Work, and to train up Children in the same, is the most effectual Remedy to prevent the Swarms of idle and vagrant Persons in every County: This would be the Way to pluck up the idle Weeds by the Roots, and to accustom People to Laboriousness, Industry and Frugality; then we should seldom be at the Cost to relieve any but the old and

impotent. We have in the Statute of 43 Eliz. Power given to the Overseers to raise Stocks, by rating the Parishioners, and setting the Poor at work, quod vid. p. 1, 2. but that Law is deficient, and doth not answer the Ends and Purposes design'd. I distinguish Work-houses from Houses of Correction, for Persons will not willingly apply themselves thither; whereas if a good Course were taken, and good Usage in Stocks and Provision, with orderly Management, it would be rather a Society or College of Artificers, than a Bridewell, and the Work would be cheerfully carry'd on. 1. There is no Power in the Justices of Peace, or some superintendent Power, to compel the raising of a Stock, where the Churchwardens and Overscers neglect it. 2. The Act chargeth every Parish apart, and it may be they can do little towards it; neither would it be so effectual, as if three or four adjoining Parishes did contribute to the raising of a Stock, proportionable to their Poor respectively. 2. There is no Power for hiring or erecting a common House, or Place for a common Workhouse, and yet this is the least of the Defects.

Sir Matthew Hale in his little Book of the Poor, hath given a Form of Remedies for these Defects, which I shall set down briefly; the Book being scarce, and not easie to be had.

1. That the Justices of the Peace at the Quarter-Sessions do set out and distribute the Parishes, in their several Counties, into several Divisions; in each of which there may be a Workhouse for the common Use of the respective Divisions, wherein they are respectively plac'd; that Ch. 6. Methods and Benefits of them. 71 that is to say, two, three, four or five Parishes to a Work-house, according to the Greatness or Smallness, and Accommodation of the several Parishes.

2. That at that Sessions, the Chnrchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the respective Parishes, bring in their several Rates for the Relief of their respective Poor upon Oath. And that the said Justices do assess three, four or five, yearly Pays beforehand for raising the Stock, and buying Materials, and for instructing Children in Trade.

3. That the Justices chuse a Master yearly for each Work-house, with a convenient Salary out of the said Srock, or the Proceed thereof, to continue for three Years; and two Overseers to see the Issuing and Returning of the said Stock, and to take the Accounts quarterly or monthly of the Master, as they shall-think sit.

4. That the Stock be deliver'd to the Overfeers, and by them issu'd to the Master, as there shall be Occasion; and that they from Time to Time receive the Proceed of the said Stock, and the Accompts for the fame.

5 That at the End of every Year, the Master and Overseers give up their Accounts to the two next Justices of the Peace, at Times by them pre-fix'd, and publickly notify'd to the Inhabitants of each Precinct, to the End they may take Exceptions to such Account, if Cause be.

6. That the Master and Overseers of every Work-house be incorporated, and capable to take in Succession, by Will or otherwise, Lands, Goods, or Money, &c.

7. That if any Person, not able to maintain himself, shall refuse to work, to be forc'd by

Warrant from two Juffices of Peace, by Impri-

Somment and Correction.

8. If any Person cumploy'd shall embezil, or wilfully prejudice or spoil his Work, he may, upon Complaint to any Justice of the Peace, recerve Impresonment and Correction by Warrant of fuch Justice.

The Benefits would be great, were this Method taken.

1. By incorporating of these Work-houses, charitable Persons would have a Pillar to fasten their Charity, and it would invite Benefactors. because of the careful Administration.

2. This would bring up Hundreds to gain a Livelihood.

3. It would bring People, and their Children after them, into a regular, orderly, and industrious course of Life; and all the Laws against Vagrants, Beggars and Wanderers, will then effectually be put in Execution, when we may be fure they may be employ'd if they will.

4. Wealth will be encreas'd, Manufactures advanc'd, and every Body put into a Capacity of eating his own Bread. We may improve our Populousness to our Wealth as well as Holland and Flanders, and Barbadoes; and if we had the same industrious Education, we should have the Same industrious Disposition.

By the Statute of 39 Eliz. c. 4. It is Enacted, 'That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices of the Peace of any County or City in this Realm, or the Dominion of Wales, affembl'd at any Quarter-Seffions of the Peace within the same County, City, Borough or Town-Corporate, or the Major part of them, to make and fet down Orders to erect, and to cause to be erected, one or more Houses of Correction within their several Counties or Cities, for the doing and performing whereof, and for the providing of Stocks of Money, and all other Things necessary for the same, and for raising and governing of the same, and for the 'Correction and Punishment of Offenders thither to be committed, fuch Orders as the faid ' Justices, or the Major part of them shall from Time to Time, take, reform, or fet down in any ' their said Quarter-Sessions in that behalf, shall be of Force, and be duly perform'd, and put in ' Execution.

This Part of the Act is made perpetual.

Observe, These Houses of Correction are call'd Work-houses.

The next Branch is, That an House of Correction shall be provided in every Shire to set idle Persons to work : But because it's more fully mention'd in 7 Fac. c. 4. I shall recite the second. Branch of that Statute.

And be it farther enacted and establish'd by the Authority aforesaid, That before the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel, which shall be in the Year of our Lord God 1617, there shall be erected, built, or otherwise provided within every County of this Realm of England and Wales, where there is not one House of Correction already built, purchas'd, provided or continu'd, one or more fit or convenient House 74 or Houses of Correction, with convenient Backfide thereto adjoining, together with Mills, Turns, Cards, and fuch like necessary Implements to fet the faid Rogues, or other idle Perfons at work. The fame Houses to be built. erected or provided, in some convenient Place or Town in every County; which Houses shall be purchas'd, convey'd or affur'd unto fuch Person or Persons, as by the Justices of Peace, or the Major part of them, in their Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, to be holden within every County of this Realm of Eugland and Wales, upon Truft, to the Intent the same shall be us'd or employ'd for the keeping, correcting, and fetting to work of the faid Rogues, Vagabonds or flurdy Beggars, and other idle and disorderly Persons.

Note, This Clause being in the Affirmative, taketh not away the Perpetuity of the Act of the So that Justices of the Peace in Cities and Corporations, may erect Houses of Correction within their Precincts.

The Justices of Peace in their Sessions may encrease the Number of Work-houses, if there be occasion; but the Tax cannot be rais'd upon any particular Precinct or Hundred, but must be a general Tax upon the whole County, because the House of Correction must be for the whole County, and cannot be erected for a particular Precinct, unless in Boroughs and Corporations. But Per Cur'. The Sessions cannot delegate their Authority to particular Juffices, nor invest them with a Power to erect Work houses, Oc. The Case of the Hundred of Blackbeath, Pasch. I A. B. R. You may see the Use of these Houses of Correction is twofold: 1. To correct and set to work Rogues and Vagrants. 2. To set to work idle and disorderly Persons, which are not Rogues within the Statute: As for Rogues being corrected, vid. Chap. Rogues, ubi supra.

Which Houses shall be purchas d, convey'd or assur'd:

faid Rogues, Vagabonds, idle and disorderly Persons, by putting Fetters or Gyves upon them, and by moderate whipping of them; and that the said Rogues, Vagabonds, and idle Persons, during such Time as they shall continue and remain in the said House of Correction, shall in no fort be chargeable to the Country for any Allowance, either at their bringing in or going forth, or during the Time of their Abode there, but shall have such and so much Allowance as they shall deserve by their own Labour and Work.

The Master hath his Designation by the Justices; but his Authority to punish and set at work by the Parliament.

Note, The Mrster hath Power to punish idle and disorderly Persons, by Fettering or Whipping them, tho' they are not Rogues.

These Rogues and idle disorderly Persons shall not be chargeable to the Country, but shall have such Allowances as they shall deserve by their own Labour and Work. The fixth Branch, as it is abbreviated. The Governors of the Houses of Correction shall have such a Sum of Money yearly, as shall be thought meet by the more Part of the Justices of Peace within the said County at the Quarter-Sessions of the Peace; the same to be paid quarterly beforehand by the Treasurers appointed by the Statute of 43 Eliz. cap. 2. the Governors giving Security for the Continuance and Performance of their said Service; which if the said Treasurer shall neglect or resuse to perform, then the said Master or Governor shall have Authority by this present Act to levy the same, or so much thereof as shall be unpaid, upon the said Treasurer's furer's Account, in such Manner and Form as by the faid Statute they the faid Treasurers are appointed and authorized to levy the weekly Sum, or Payment being to them unpaid: And by that Statute, it is by Diffress and Sale of Goods, rendring to the Party the Overplus.

The feventh Branch is, Concerning committing of lewd Women having Bastards, &c. to the House of Correction, which shall be explain'd in the Chapter of Bastards.

The eighth Branch is, Concerning committing of Persons that do run away, or threaten to run away, and leave their Families, Ge. which shall be explain'd under the Title of Incorrigible Rogues.

The ninth Branch. By Treasurer, they mean Treasurer of the County-Stock.

This needs no further Explanation.

By the Statute 39 Eliz. c. 4. it is Enacted, That the Lord Chancellor or Keeper of the Great Seal of England, for the Time being, shall and may at all Times hereafter, without further Warrant, make and direct Commission or Commissions under the Great Seal of England to any Person or Persons, giving them, or some of them, thereby Authority, as well by the Oaths of good and lawful Men, as of Witnesses, or Examination of Parties, or by any other lawful Ways or Means whatfoever, to enquire what Sums of Money or other Things have been or shall be collected or gather'd for or towards the Erection of any Houses of Correction, or any Stocks, or other Things to fet Poor on work, or for the Maintenance thereof, at any Time after the 17th Day of November, in the 18th Year of Queen Elizabeth, and by whom the same were or shall be collected or gather'd, and to whose Hands come, and to what Use, and by whose Direction the fame was or shall be employ'd: And to call all and every fuch Person and Persons, and their Sureties, and every of their Executors or Administrators, to an Account, and to compel them, and every of them, by Attachment of their Goods or Bodies, to appear before them for the Legal Settlement, or not. What Justices are empower'd about removing and settling of Wife, Children, Servants. Of Settlement, in reference to Bastards and Mothers. Of Settlement by the Act of 14 Car. 2. Of Disturbance within Forty Days. Of Removal. Who are likely to be chargeable, or not. Of Security for saving the Parish harmless. Of the Act of Settlement made 3 & 4 W. & M. and how far the Law is alter'd thereby.

I Shall now come to that which hath been full of Perplexity in our Books, and which hath created more Trouble to the Officers and Justices, than any one Point of this Law; (viz.) Settlements, Removals, Disturbances, Gc.

And in this, I shall consider how the Lawhath been, and wherein it is alter'd, that so we may the better know how it stands at this Day.

And:

84 Of Settlements and Removals. Ch. 7.

And this in reference to the Poor in general, and Servants, and Bastard-Children particularly.

Now as to the Places of fettling, they are two, the Place of one's Birth, and the Place of last Settlement, if it may be known. Vagrant Rogues are to be fent to their Place of Birth, others to the Places of their last Settlement; and therefore, if one be born in one Parish, and afterwards is an Inhabitant, or in Service in another Parish, if he grow poor and impotent, or wander, he must be found by that Town wherein he dwelt, and not be fent to his Place of Birth; But if he turn a Vagabond, sturdy Rogue, he must be fent to the Place of his Birth. frode 352. Refol. 9. By 12 A. Seff. 2. c. 23. concerning Vagrants. If a Vagrant be apprehended, he shall be fent to the Place he was last legally fettled at and not to the Place of his Birth. Those that have Houses when their Terms are expir'd, and Servants whose Time of Service is ended, if they are not impotent, are to provide themselves Houses and Places; if they cannot, they are to be fet to work by the Overseers, if able; but if such Persons wander abroad, begging out of the Parish, then they shall be fent as Vagabonds to the Place of their Birth. To this Purpose was the Case of the Towns of Kimmalton and Laystas, 7 Car. at Hereford Affizes, 1631. W. and his Wife liv'd at Layltas five Years, and after came into Kimmalton, and did there rent an House for a Year, and having Children, the Town fearing they would be chargeable to them, procur'd a Justice of Peace to charge the Landlord to warn them out of his House, or to put in Security to fave the Town harmless : harmless; the Landlord put them out at the Year's End, and let the House to another: W. complains to the Justices, who order, That the Town of Kimmalion (hould provide him an House, paying an yearly Rent, or else that the Overseers of the Poor do provide for them : which they refus'd to do, and fo were in Contempt. Whereupon W. complains to the Judge of Affize. Per Whitlock: The Order made by the Justices was against Law, for that W. was neither poor nor impotent within the Statute 43 Eliz. c. 2. but W. is to provide himfelf an House, and he might go back to Laystas, where he formerly liv'd, and had Means. Bulftr. 2. 242. If he become impotent, Kimmalton must provide for him.

If the Case of Settlement of a poor Child be between two Parishes, the Court usually refers it to the Judges of Assze; but if between two Counties, this Court will determine it. 3 Keb.

644. The King and Tening.

What hath been deem'd a legal Settlement, and what not.

As to that, we find these Rules :

Every one who is settled as a Native, an Housholder, a Sojourner, Apprentice, or a Servant retain'd for one Month at the least, without a just Complaint made to remove Him or Her, shall be held to be settled, (except there be any Practice in the Case, vid. infra) Resolv. 26 This one Month is alter'd to forty Days, vid. infra; yet an Abode by the Space of a Month, must not be to live or keep privately sometimes in one House, sometimes in another; or to abide by reason reason of Sickness, Lunacy, Lameness, &c. nor to a Nurse Child, nor to a Scholar at School, or at University, or Persons sent to an Hospital or House of Correction, or to the Common Gaol, but their Settlement is where their Parents are settled, or themselves last lawfully settled. Resolv. 32.

If one be retain'd in Service only, or had but hir'd a House, the Law unsettles not such Perfons. Note, such as shall by indirect Means hinder a poor Man from hiring an House, may for such Disturbance be indicted upon the Statute for causing them to turn Rogues. 39. Eliz. c. 5.

And it is finable to remove or put any out of the Parish who ought not to be put out, and the Persons so remov'd may be sent back. Dalt. 98. Resol. 11. For the Law unsettles none who are lawfully settled, nor permits it to be done, by Compulsion or by Practice.

NoSettlement can be legal, that is brought about by Composition, Practice or Agreement. Therefore if a Parish will have a Man born in A. but settled with them, to go and wander, and beg in D. that he may be sent to A. and he doth so; he must be sent back to the Parish from whence he came.

No Settlement is legal, that is brought about by Compulsion. Therefore if a Man born in A be settled in B. and he is there thrust and kept out of his House, so that he is forc'd to wander and beg in D. and thence is sent to A he is to be settled in B. for this was by Compulsion. A Man with his Wife and Children, takes an House in one Parish for a Year, and before the End of the Term is put out of Possession, and then goeth into another Parish, where the Woman in a Barn

Ch. 7. Of Settlements and Removals. 87 is deliver'd of a Child; this thrusting out of Possession was an illegal unsettling, therefore they must be sent to the Parish where they were last Lwfully fettled. Refolv. 24.

A mistaken Settlement is no Settlement at all. Therefore if a Rogue be taken and examin'd, and saith his Birth is at D. and it cannot appear otherwise, but he consesset truly that his last Place of Habitation was at S. whereupon he is whip'd and sent to S. and at his coming to S. the Place of his Birth is known to be W. in this Case he must be sent to W.

No Settlement can be legal in any Parish, when the Residence of the Party is obscure and uncertain, as coming now and then, and lying in Barns and Outhouses, &c.

As to the Alteration of the Law as to some of these Points, vide infra, under the Statute of. 14 Car. 2. c. 12. and 1 Fac. 2. and 3 & 4 Willielmi & Maria.

No Settlement can be where the Party is under Disturbance by the Officers: Vid. 3 & 4 Will. &

Mar. infra.

Note, They that are fent from one Parish to another, must be offer'd to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Place, &c. and not to any other Person.

Note also, It was deliver'd by Sir Francis Harvey at Summer Assizes at Cambridge, 1629, that the Justices of Peace (especially out of their Sessions) were not to meddle either with removing or settling of any Poor, but only Rogues. Dals. p. 158. Some hold the next Justice of the Peace may give Order in it, and upon Appeal the Quarter-Sessions shall fully take Order therein.

88 Of Settlements and Removals. Ch. 7.

H. being a Labouring Man, and having an Abode at T. goeth to work, (viz.) to make Brick with his Family to E. where he died; T. and E. being both in the County of Middlefex, his Family shall be kept by T. altho' his Employment last longer than that Season, as well as if he had only remov'd to an Harvest, or such like. Keb. 243. between the Parishes of Eling and Thisserworth.

An Order was made by two Justices for settling a poor Person at such a Place, and that Order was confirm'd at the Sessions; and now it was mov'd to set aside that Order, but the Court would not enter into the Merits of the Cause. The Order of Sessions being a final Determination, unless upon the face of the Order some Error had appear'd in point of Form. Pasch. 29 Car. 2. B. R. I Vent. 310.

Settlement as to Wives and Children, where the Hufband is a Servant, Rogne, &c.

Regularly the Wife is to be sent to, and settled with, the Husband where he is settled, the he be there but as an Inmate or a Servant. If he be a Rogue, she shall be sent to him; if the Husband be a Rogue, and the Wife not, she must be sent to the Place of her last Settlement so long as the Husband is in Bridewell, and then to be sent to him where he is settled.

If the Husband hath an House in A. and lives there by Night, but is in Covenant to serve a Master in B. and he is there all the Day, in this Case she is to continue in A. but if he take an House in B. she must be settled with him.

If

If a Man hireth an House in A. and being there with his Wise and Children, he afterwards shall bind himself as a Servant with one dwelling in B. yet his Wise and Children are not to be sent to B. or plac'd there, but are to remain still at A. where they were once settled; otherwise if the Husband had hir'd an House in B. Dalt.

ult. Edit. 158.

If a Child be born, or be a Servant in B. it's a Settlement there whether the Father be impotent or not; but it not appearing whether the Child were above or under seven Years old, the Order was quash'd. Also the Justices cannot send the Child to the Father, but must order Contributions to be levy'd on the Father at P. (where he liv'd, to be sent to B.) and Kelynge and Moreton said, the Wise and Children may be settled in one Place, and the Husband in another; but Twisden conceiv'd, if the Husband be settled in another Parish as a Servant, the Children not settled may be sent to him. 2 Bals. 357. 2 Keb. 618. The Inhabitants of P's Case about Settlements as to Children.

Regularly all Children are to be fent to, and Children above seven Years old, if begging and vagrant with the Parents, are to go to Bridewell with them; if under, to the Place where they last pass'd through without Punishment.

If Children unsettled have no Parents, or the Parents cannot be found, they must go to the Place of their last Settlement; but otherwise, young Children whose Parents are dead, and were settled, in that Place are they to be settled, and set at work, where the Parents dwelt at the

If a Child be duly settled with Father or Mother, and they die, or run away thence, it must there continue, and may not be sent to the Place of its Birth.

And where-ever the Woman with Child is to be settled in a Parish, if she die, her Child shall be charg'd on the same Parish. Dalt. I Edit. 121.

If one great with Child be fent to the House of Correction, and there she is deliver'd, the Child shall be sent to the Parish from whence the Mother came, there to be provided for: Per Jones. And Children born in the Common Gaol and Houses of Correction, their Parents being Prisoners, are to be maintain'd at the Charge of the County. Refol. 32.

Settlement as to Servants

If a Woman unmarry'd be hir'd weekly or half-yearly in a Parish, and there she hap to be gotten with Child, and then goeth into another Parish, where she is settled in Service or otherwise two or three Months, and then she appears to be with Child; in this Case she is to be settled in this Place, and not in the Place where she was got with Child. Resol, 12.

If a Maid-servant be got with Child at A. by one of the same Parish, and both their Times of Service end, and they marry, and then the Man is retain'd in Service at B. and the Woman is deliver'd of her Child in A. In this Case, she and her Child shall be settled with the Father at B. Ber Dalton 159. Vide plus infra de Bastard-Children.

By 12 A. c. 18. whoever shall by Indenture be bound Apprentice, or be an hired Servant to one who comes into a Parish by Certificate, (and who does not afterwards gain a legal Settlement there) such Apprentice or Servant shall not gain any Settlement in the Parish by reason of such Apprenticeship, or hiring and serving therein, but shall have his Settlement in such Parish, as he should if he had not been bound Apprentice or hir'd as a Servant to such Person.

Of Settlements as to Bastards and their Mothers, and of Relief.

A Woman-Servant unmarry'd is gotten with Child, and then goeth out of her Master's Service before or after it be discovered that she be with Child, and the reputed Father be run away, or is not able to free the Parish; here if the Master hath legally discharg'd his House of such a Servant, he is no more bound to provide for her than any other. Resol. 13.

Otherwise he must provide for her till her Delivery, and one Month after, and so if her Time be not expir'd. Vide post.

A hir'd Servant in A is got with Child, after her Time of Service expir'd she goeth into another Parish, and is there hir'd in Service, or otherwise settled by the space of one Month, and is then discover'd to be with Child; she now is not to be sent to the Place or Parish where she was got with Child, but to the Place where she was last lawfully settled. Refol. 12.

Children born in Common Gaols, or in Houses of Correction, their Parents being Prisoners, Refol. 32.

A Travelling Woman having a small Child sucking upon her, is apprehended for Felony, and sent to the Gaol, and is after arraign'd and hang d: This Child is to be sent to the Place of its Birth, if it can be known, otherwise it must be sent to the Town where the Mother was apprehended: for that that Town ought not to have sent the Child to the Gaol (being no Malesactor) And so it was deliver'd by Sir Nich, Hide at Cambridge

Lent Affizes, Anno 3 Car. Regis. Dal. 157.

It is made a Overe in the Judges Resolutions, Whether a Justice of Peace may discharge a Servant being with Child from her Service allowing that as a reasonable Cause, that she is thereby made unable to do the Service, which otherwife the might have done; and if he may difcharge her, whether that Parish shall provide for her till her Delivery, if the cannot provide for herself? And so also, if her Time be expir'd before her Delivery, who shall provide for her after the Time ended ? Refol. 22. It is refolv'd, if a Woman being with Child procure herfelf to be retain'd with a Master who knoweth nothing thereof, this is a good Caufe to discharge her of her Service; and if the be gotten with Child during her Service, it is all one; but in neither of the faid Cases can he turn her away of his own Authority: If her Term be ended, or the otherwife lawfully discharg'd, the Matter is not bound to provide for her; but it is a Misfortune fallen upon the Parish, which they must bear as in other Cases of Impotency.

It is made another Quare, Whether one being deliver'd of a Baltard-Child in one Parish, and goeth into another with her Child, and becomes Vagrant, and fo is fent to the Place of her Birth : her Bastard-Child being under the Age of seven Years, shall be settled with her Mother, and there maintain'd? If the Mother be not able, Whether it shall be fent to the Place of its Birth? Or being fettled with the Mother, Whether the Parish where it was born shall be order'd by the two next Justices to pay a weekly Sum towards its Maintenance?

Refol. The Bastard-Child must be plac'd with the Mother, so long as it is within the Quality or Condition of a Nurse-Child, which shall be till seven Years of Age, and then is fit to be fent to the Place of its Birth to be provided for, the Mother or reputed Father not being able; and the Place where the Child is born, shall not be forc'd to contribute to the Charges as long as the Mother lives, and the Child be under feven Years of Age.

Margaret B. was got with Child by one Gough; the Child was born at Drayton in the County of Salop eleven Years fince, and Gongh the reputed Father took the Child from the Mother, and plac'd him at Nurse elsewhere; and after marries another Woman, and dwells with her at St. Chad, and the Bastard-Child dwelt with him; afterwards Gongh the reputed Father dies, leaving his Wife and divers Children, and the faid Bastard-Child, all poor, and maintain'd by the Parish. The Mother of the Bastard hath been all this while in Service, but is a simple Woman, yet able to work: The Question was, Whether this Bastard shall be sent to the Town of Salop, where he had liv'd for ten Years, or to Drayton, the Place of his Birth, or to his Mother? Refolv'd. 94 Of Settlements and Removals. Ch. 7.

folv'd, It shall be sent to the Mother if she be able; if she be not, then to the Town of Salop, in regard he had been there formerly settled with this reputed Father, and because it is the Place of last Settling, he being there for ten Years; and the Law respects the Place of last Settling, as well as the Place of Birth.

Where the Mother, or putative Father, leave their Child or Children on the Parish, the Churchwardens and Overseers, by Warrant of two Justices, may take their Goods and Profits of Lands, and by Order of Sessions sell the same, towards Maintenance of such Children; and so they may where other Children are left by their Father or Mother on the Parish.

Upon Complaint to two Justices about a Bastard-Child, the Order of the next Sessions is conclusive, and no future Sessions can intermeddle with it. Burwell's Case, Mich. 21 Car. 2. B. R.

I Ventr. 48.

If upon Complaint made to two Justices, a Person is order'd to keep a Bastard Child, and upon an Appeal to the Sessions that Order is discharged, that Person can never be charg'd with it again: And if no Father can be sound, the Court said the two Justices must keep it themselves. I Ventr. 59.

But as to the Point of Settlement, some few of the former Resolutions are alter'd by the Statute

14 Car. 2. cap. 12.

Whereas by reason of some Desects in the Law, poor People are not restrain'd from going from one Parish to another, and therefore do endeavour to settle themselves in those Parishes where there is the best Stock,

the largest Commons or Wastes to build Cottages, and the most Woods for them to burn and destroy, and when they have consum'd it, then to another Parish, and at last become Rogues and Vagabonds, to the great Discouragement of Parishes to provide Stocks, where it is liable to be devour'd by Strangers. Be is Enacted therefore, That it shall and may be lawful, upon Complaint made by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of any Parish to any Justice of Peace, within forty Days after any such Person or Persons coming so to settle as aforesaid, in any Tenement under the yearly Value of ten Pounds, for any two Justices of the Peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum, of the Division where any Person or Persons that are likely to be chargeable to the Parish shall come to inhabit, by their Warrant to remove such Person or Persons to such Parish where he or they were last legally settled, either as a Native, Hou-Shoulder, Sojourner, Apprentice or Servant, for the space of forty Days at the least, unless he or they give sufficient Security for the Discharge of the said Parish, to be allow'd by the said Justices.

Provided, that all such Persons who think themselves aggriev'd by any such Judgment of the said two Justices, may appeal to the Justices of the Peace of the said County at their next Quarter-Sessions, who are hereby requir'd to do them Justice according to the Merits of their Canfe.

Provided also, that (this Act notwithstanding) it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to go into any County, Parish or Place, to work in Time of Harvest, or at any Time to work at any other Work, so that he or they carry with him or them a Certificate from the Minister of the Parish, and one of the Churchwardens, and one of the Overseers for the Poor for the Same Year, that he or they have a Dwelling-house, or

96 Of Settlements and Removals. Ch. 7. a Place in which he or they inhabit, and hath left

Wife and Children, or same of them there (or otherwife as the Conditions of the Persons shall require. and is declar'd an Inhabitant or Inhabitants there). And if he and they shall not return to the Place afore-Said when his or their Work is finish d, or shall fall fick or impotent whilf he or they are in the same Work, it shall not be accounted a Settlement in the Cases above said, but that it shall and may be lawful for two Justices of the Peace to convey the said Person or Persons to the Place of his or their Habitation under the Penalties in this Act. And if such Persons shall refuse to go, or shall not remain in the Parish where they ought to be fettled, any two Justices of Peace where the Offence is committed, may send them to the House of Correction. And if the Churchwardens and Overseers refuse to receive such Person into the Parish where they shall be remov'd, any Justice of Peace of that Division may bind any such Officer or Officers to the Assizes or Sessions, there to be indicted for his Coutempt.

If any Person shall be su'd for any Matter or Thing which he shall do in Execution of this Act, he may plead the general Issue, and give the special Matter in Evidence: and if the Verdict pass for him, or the Plaintiff be nonsuit, or discontinue, he shall recover treble Damages.

Per Holt Chief Justice. The most regular way for Justices to proceed upon 14 Car. 2. in removing a poor Person is to make a Record of the Complaint and Adjudication, and upon that to make a Warrant under their Hands and Seals to the Churchwardens to convey the Persons to the Parish to which they ought to be sent, and deliver in the Record per proprias manus into Court the

[Within forty Days after any such Person, &c.]

Mr. Keeling pray'd the Opinion of the Court, whether Complaint to a Justice of Peace within forty Days be such a Disturbance, as may hinder the Settlement of the Poor that is not actually by him remov'd within the forty Days. The Court conceiv'd, if there be no Discontinuance in the Profecution, the Complaint doth disturb the Settlement, but not a bare Complaint and Sleeping an Year after, but the Parish must profecute; and if a Sellions intervene, it is a Default of Profecution, and there must be a fresh Prosecution to remove, as well as complain. 2 Keb. 764, 769. R. and the Matter appearing thus upon Affidavits, they declar'd their Opinion only upon the Order to remove, viz. That the Man had gain'd a Settlement in the Parish to which he remov'd, for he being an Inhabitant there for fo long Time, as was then requir'd by Law to make a Settlement, and not disturb'd by the Officers. they were remiss in their Duty, and the Court would not help their Negligence. 3 Mod. A Motion was to quash an Order made for the Maintenance of a Bastard-Child, when it was born in lawful Wedlock, and the Husband was at Cales.

Exception, That it is faid, that the Father was not there when the Child was begot or born; in the Disjunctive, which is ill, for he might be there at one of those Times: And he must be abfent the whole Space of Time, both when the Child was begot, and when it was born.

Chief Justice; If the Child be not a Bastard, the Order is ipso facto void; 'tis out of their Jurisdiction, they must take Care that it be a Bastard. But the Order must be quash'd, for it must appear, that he was not here all the Space: If he was here either at the Beginning or Birth of the Child, it is sufficient. Let the reputed Father be bound over to appear here. Alenson vers. Spence, Trin. 10 W. 3.

Unless he or they give Security for the Discharge of the Parish. It was a Case in Mich. 14 Car. 2. 3. R. between Tavernour and Quatermaine. Bond was given to save the Parish harmless from all Charges that may happen, by placing A. in a Cottage. Defendant pleads, Non Damnificatus: Plaintiff replies, They were damnify d by placing such a Child in the said House; in being forc'd to provide Necessaries for him, by reason of a Rate set on the Inhabitants by the Major Part of the Justices and Overseers. Defendant denurrs, for not shewing any the particular Inhabitants were tax'd or charg'd. Per Cur'. It's needless, for by the Rule made, the Possibility that they may be charg'd, is a sufficient Damnification. It was also agreed, The Overseers by 43 Eliz. may provide, and the Rate is to be set by them, and the Churchwardens afterwards, and confirm'd by the Justices: And by some, the alledging H. became poor, is a present Charge to the Parish, tho' no Rule be made; Quere of that, for till he becomes chargeable, I cannot see an Action can lie against the Security. Vide 1 Keb. 440.

In Debt on Obligation, to fave the Parish harmless of nursing a Battard, and Non Damnisicatus was pleaded by the Defendant; Plaintiff reply'd, that the Child was ready to starve, and the Parish laid out 4 s. and so damnify'd: Defendant rejoins, he was always ready to keep the Child, and offer'd to keep it, and had tender'd to pay for it, and what was laid out was de injuria propria. Plaintiff demurs, because it was a Departure; and per Curiam, it is so; it should have been pleaded specially in Bar, and this is a Iufficient Breach, tho' but finall: It should have been pleaded thus, That non fuit Damnificatus till fuch a Time, and that then you offer'd to take Care of the Child, and tender'd, &c. Vide 3 Mod. Rep. 247. Mich. 3 Fac. in B. R. Rex vers. Inhabitantes de Malden: Where, upon this Statute, it was alledg'd, that being tax'd to the Poor, would not amount to Notice; and the Countel cited a stronger Case, which was, viz. That the Churchwardens of Covent-Garden certify'd under their Hands, that fuch a Person was an Inhabitant within their Parish; but because no Note was left with them pursuant to the Statute, notwithstanding such Certificate, he was held to be no Inhabitant within their Parish; and of that Opinion was all the Court. Yet this Case is otherwise reported by Sir B. Shower, Rex vers. Payn. Pasch. I W. & M. and that coming in publickly by taking a House, and being rated in the Poors Rates, &c. was sufficient Notice. Vide cap. prox.

Now are we come to a Statute, whereby these Notices to be given, and being tax'd, &c. are fully declar'd; which is that of 3 & 4 W. &

M. cap. 11.

By which, the Act made 13 & 14 Car. 2. for the better Relief of the Poor; (except what relates to the Corporations therein mention'd) which was reviv'd and continu'd with Alterations, by an Act made in the first Year of the late King James II. shall be in force from the first Day of March, 1691.

It is also Enacted, That the forty Days Continuance of a Person intended by the said Act to make a Settlement, shall be accounted from the Publication of a Notice in Writing, which he or she shall deliver of the House of his or her Abode, and Number of his or her Family, to the Churchwarden or the Overseer of the Poor; which shall be read immediately after Divine Service, in the Church or Chapel of the Place, on the next Lord's-day, when there shall be Divine Service in the same: The Churchwarden or Overseer to register such Notice in the Book kept for the Poors Accounts.

No Soldier, or any other Person in her Majesty's Service, shall have Settlement by Delivery and Publication of Notice, as aforesaid, unless they be dismiss'd the Service.

Churchwardens or Overseers refusing to read, or cause to be read, such Notice, as aforesaid, (upon Proof thereof by two Witnesses upon Oath before a fusice of Peace) shall forseit 40 s. to the Use of the Party griev'd, to be levy'd by Distress, and Sale of Goods, by Warrant of a Justice of Peace to the Constable; and for want of a Distress, shall be committed to Gaol for a Month: And if any Churchwarden, or Overseer, shall neglect or resuse to register such Notice as aforesaid, they shall forseit 40 s. to be levy'd as aforesaid; and for want of Distress shall be committed as aforesaid.

If any Person coming to inhabit in any Town, or Parish, shall on his own Account execute any publick Annual Office or Charge in the same during a Year; or pay his Share towards the publick Taxes or Levies of such Town, &c. he shall be adjudged to have a legal Settlement, without Notice in Writing deliver'd, &c.

Ch. 7. Of Sectlements and Removals. 103

If any unmary'd Person, not having Child or Children, shall be lawfully hir'd for a Year; such Service shall be deem'd a good Settlement without Notice, &c.

Being bound Apprentice, and inhabiting in a Town or Parish; shall be adjudg'd a good Settlement.

Persons aggriev'd by the Determination of any fustices of the Peace, may appeal to the next Quarter-

Seffins, who shall finally determine the same.

If any Person be removed by Vertue of this Act from one Place to another, by Warrant of two Justices of the Peace, the Chnrchwardens or Overseers of the Place to which he shall be removed shall receive him; and in case of Refusal, (upon Proof by two. Witnesses, upon Oath before a Justice of Peace of the County, Riding, &c. to which he shall be removed) shall forfeit 5 1. to the Use of the Poor of the Parish from which he shall be removed; to be levy'd by Distress and Sale of Goods, &c. by Warrant of a Justice of Peace of the County, &c. to which he shall be removed, to the Constable of the Place where such Offender dwells; and for want of a Distress, shall be committed to Gaol for forty Days.

Persons aggriev'd by the Judgment of the said two Justices, may appeal to the next General Quarter Sessions of the Place, from which the said Person was remov'd.

There shall be kept in every Parish, at the Parish-Charge, a Book or Books, wherein the Names of Persons receiving Collections shall be register'd, with the Time when they are first admitted to have Relief, and the Occasion of their Necessity: And yearly in Easter Week, or oftner, the Parishioners shall meet and have such Books produc'd before them, and the Persons receiving Collections shall be call'd, and the Reasons of their taking Relief examined, and a new List be made and enter'd of such as they shall think sit to allow to receive receive Collection; and no other shall be allow'd to receive Collection, but by Authority under the Hand of a Justice of Peace residing in the Parish; and if there be none in the Parts next adjoining, then by Order of

she Justices of Peace in their Quarter-Sessions; except in Cases of Pestilential Diseases, Plague or SmallPox, in respect of Families insected only.

In all Actions to be brought in the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes, for Moneys mis spent by the Churchwardens or Overseers, the Evidence of the Parishioners (other than such as receive Alms) of the Parish where the Defendants are Inhabitants, shall be taken and admitted.

Note, It was mov'd to quash an Order of Sessions, for that the only Ground of settling a poor Person in the Parish, appears upon the Order to have been, for that the Banns of Matrimony of the poor Person were published in the Parish-Church, which is ill; for that the Notice given the Parish must not only be in Writing, but the other Ceremonies required by the Statute of 3 & 4 W. & M. must be observed. And that Act being an Explanatory Act, cannot be taken by Equity.

And in the Case of the Inhabitants of Dalbery vers. the Inhabitants of Toston. Hill. 8 W. 3. B. R.

A Man comes into a Parish, and there keeps a Smith's Shop, and is employ'd in his Trade by a Justice of Peace, the Lord of the Manor, the Parson of the Parish, and several other Inhabitants; and the Question was, If this amounted to a Notice, and consequentially a good Settlement within the said Statute? And held per tot' Curiam, That it was not a good Notice, and by Consequence no good Settlement: For that Statute

Ch. 7. Of Settlements and Removals. 105

tute is an explanatory Law, and the Direction thereof ought to be strictly pursued. And they cited a Case, Mich. 7 Willielmi, between the Parishes of St. Nicholas and St. Hellen's in Abington, where one coming into a Parish was rated to Parish-Duties, but did not pay; and adjudg'd it was no Settlement, the Statute saying, [Shall execute any Office or Charge, or pay his Share.]

But note, in the Case of the Inhabitants of Instrict, it was held, That where one was rated or assessed towards the Land-Tax, it amounted to a Notice and Settlement within this Act, tho' the Statute only says, [Taxes or Levies of such Town or Parish:] For tho' this be no Parish-Tax, yet it is a Tax on such Town or Parish, and the Statute saying, [Publick Taxes.] And Quare the Case of the Inhabitants of Grampound, Trin. 7 Will. A Man kept an Alehouse in the Parish where the Officers of the Parish us'd to meet to make up their Rates, &c. and the Court inclin'd, That this did amount to a Notice within this Statute.

Observations on this last Act of Settlement, made in the third and sourch Year of William and Mary, cap. 11.

This Act confifts of three Parts:

1. Supplemental and Explanatory of the Laws, as to Settlements.

2. Directive, as to the Poor being enter'd into Pay and Relief, and who shall be so relieved, and how long.

3. Enabling the Parishioners to become Witnesses in a Suit, for recovering of Money mis spent by Churchwardens and Overseers.

F 5

Be it Enacted, That the forty Days Continuance of such Person in a Parish or Town, intended by the faid Act to make a Settlement, &c. By the Statute of 14 Car. 2. c. 12. If forty Days elaps'd, without Complaint to a Justice of Peace, and Diflurbance, then it was a good Settlement: If the Disturbance was within forty Days, tho' Prosecution was not till after, it's no good Settlement. (Vide prins.) Now in two Cafes, a Man by that Act ought not to have been disturbed: 1. If he were not likely to be chargeable. 2. If he settl'd in any Tenement of the Yearly Value of 101, Now I conceive, the Act of William and Mary doth not reach either of thefe Cases: The Words are, Forty Days Continuance, intended by those Acts to make a Settlement. Now by 14 Car. if a Man came to fettle in a Tenement under 101. per Annum, he might be disturb'd within forty Days; if he were not, then it made a Settlement: But then if one took 10 l. per Annum, he could not be disturb'd at all, and that I conceive to be a good Settlement, and there needs no publishing of Notice by this Act; for as those Acts did not extend to 10 l. per Annum, so neither doth this. The Intention of all the Acts is plain; if the Parties were fuffer'd to inhabit forty Days without Disturbance, it's a Sign that the Parish was well pleas'd with their Continuance: But the Law of 14 Car. 2. was deficient and did not answer the Ends; for many Persons would come and perhaps first creep into a Parish, and after bring in their Children as Inmates or Sojourners, in some blind Corner or other, and by the Aid of some Relations and Friends, might sculk without Disturbance for forty Days, and fo steal a Settlement. This

Ch. 7. Of Settlements and Removals. 107

This Act hath clench'd the Nail in that Point? By it, the forty Days shall be accompted from the Publication of Notice in Writing, &c. This is sufficient Notice to a Parish, that so they may make Enquiry who they are, and what are their Circumstances, that come to live amongst them; if they find they are like to become chargeable, they have the same Liberty of Disturbance as before; but if the Churchwarden and Overseers do not complain within forty Days after such

Notice, that makes a compleat Settlement.

The Removal must be as is appointed by the Statute 14 Car. 2. by the Warrant of two Juflices of Peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum, And yet by an After clause of this Act, it seems to be by the Warrant of any Justices of the Peace: For in the Clause of receiving such as shall be remov'd, it faith, If any Person be remov'd by Vertue of this Act, by Warrant, and the Hands and Seals of two Justices, the Churchwarden and Overseers. &c. Vid. Postea: But this is of Removal from one County to another. And by the faid Act of 14 Car. 2. Those that give sufficient Security to fave the Parish harmless. are not within this Act of William and Mary, but are become fettled without any Publication of Notice.

If after Publication of this Notice there be a Disturbance, Whither must such Person be remov'd? To such Parish where he was last legally settled, either as a Native, Housholder, Sojourner, Apprentice or Servant, for the Space of sorty Days at the least; the Place of Settlement now must be the Place which was a legal Settlement before this Act commenc'd; and this appears by 14 Car. 2, cap. 12.

Nois

Now that which the Law has alter'd chiefly by this Act is, that bare Inhabitancy without Diffurbance shall not make a Settlement, as it was always heretofore; but Inhabitancy and Publication of Notice will, if no Disturbance be for forty Days after the Publication. As to other Points, the Laws concerning the Poor stand as they did.

Now I conceive, fix forts of Persons are not within this Act of William and Mary.

1. Those that are not likely to become chargeable, and this by the Construction of 14 Car. 2.

they need no Publication.

2. Such as shall give Security to save the Parish harmless, if they become poor; yet their Settlement is legal, and their Security must be sued.

3. Such as shall come into any Parish, and there for himself, and on his own Account, execute any publick annual Office or Charge in the said Town during one Year; as if he execute the Office of Bailiss, Constable, Overseer, Scavenger, &c. but he must not be hir'd to do it for another.

4. Such as are charg'd with, and pay their Shares to, the publick Taxes or Levies of the Town or Parish where he is, shall be deem'd to have a legal Settlement, tho' no such Notice in Writing be publish'd.

5. An unmarry'd Person not having Child or Children, being lawfully bir'd into any Parish or Town for one Year, that makes a good Settlement; tho' there be no Notice in Writing. Observe, It is be bir'd into any Parish, and saith not, live there; so that the bare Hiring for one

Year

Ch. 7. Of Settlements and Removals. 109

Year feems to be a Settlement, and so the Law was taken formerly. Vide prins.

6. If any Person shall be bound Apprentice by Indenture, and inhabit any Town or Parish, such Binding and Inhabitation shall be adjuded a good Settlement without such Notice.

First, It must be by Indenture, or else it's no Settlement: And then it must be Binding and Inhabitation; bare Binding is not enough, as it feems it is in the Case of Hiring.

As to Notice, we may see,

1. Of what Notice is to be made, and that is, of the House of his or her Abode, and the Number of his or her Family, if he or she has any.

2. To whom it must be deliver'd; to the Churchwarden or Overseer of the Poor; to one fufficeth.

3. How this Publication of Notice is to be made: 'It must be in Writing, and the Church-warden to cause it to be read publickly immediately after Divine Service, in the Parish-Church or Chapel of the said Town, on the next Lord's Day, when there shall be Divine Service for the same; and they are to register the said Notice in Writing in the Poors Account-Book.

We have consider'd, that six sorts of Persons may have a legal Settlement, the there be no Notice of Publication

Notice of Publication.

Now there are some that shall not have a Settlement in a Town or Parish, tho' there be Delivery and Publication of such Notice in Writing.

'No Soldier, Seaman, Shipwright, or other Artificer or Workman employ'd in their Majesties Service, shall have a Settlement by such Publi-

Publication, unless the same be after the Dis-mission of fuch Person out of their Majesties

Service.

These Persons are sent upon peculiar publick Employs and Professions, and act not properly as private Men; and therefore their Inhabitancy in such a Case is not intended for a Settlement, or more than a Scholar at School, or at University: and as to that, the Law is as formerly, and Publication in such Case shall not make a Settlement.

The Penalty for not causing the Notice in Writing to be read is plain, and how it is to be recover'd; it's 40 s. for every Offence, upon Proof by two Witnesses before a Justice of Peace, to the Use of the Party griev'd; to be levy'd by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, by Warrant under Seal of any one Justice in the Division, to be directed to the Constable; and for want of Distress, Imprisonment for one Month.

The like Penalty for not registering the 40 s. Forseiture, for this Neglect is to the Use of the Poor.

Now if any Person shall find himself aggriev'd, by any Determination, which any Justice or Justices shall make in any the Cases abovesaid, the said Person may appeal to the next General Quarter Sessions, who upon sull hearing shall have full Power to determine the same.

So that as to the Cases abovesaid, no further Application need to be made to the Judges of Assize. Q. de hoc.

We have seen how and in what Cases Persons may be remov'd; the next Clause is, How they are to be receiv'd, in Case a Removal be from one County to another.

'If any Person be remov'd by Vertue of this Act, from one County, Riding, City, Town Corporate or Liberty, to another, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of two Justices, the 'Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish to which the Removal is, shall receive the faid Person, and upon Resulal to receive, shall forfeit the Sum of 5 1. to the Use of the Poor of the Parish from which the Removal was, to be levy'd by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, by Warrant under Hand and ' Seal of any Justice of the Peace of the Coun-'ty, &c. to which fuch Person was remov'd, to the Constable of the Parish where such Offender dwells : And for want of sufficient Diffres, to. be by him committed to Prison for forty Days. This is in Case of Removal from one County or Jurisdiction to another; for the Justices of Peace for one County cannot properly send their Warrants into another County, &c. therefore this Act impowers them to make such Warrants.

But if any Person be aggriev'd with any such, Judgment of the two Justices, he may appeal to the next General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace to be held for the County, City, &c. from which the Party was so remov'd.

The next General Part of this Act, of the Poors being enter'd into Pay, and how long they thall continue fo:

It's Enacted, 'That a Book shall be in every Parish, and in it shall be set down the Names of such as receive Collection, with the Day and Year when they were first admitted to have Relief, and the Occasion which brought them under that Necessity. And yearly in Easter Week the Parishioners shall meet, and all Persons receiving ceiving Collections shall be call'd over, and a " new List made as they shall think fit to allow " Collection to; and that no other Person shall have * Collection, but by Authority under the Hand of one Justice in the Parish, or near adjacent, or by Order of Sessions, except in case of Plague or Small-pox.

The last Part is, 'That upon Suit for Recovery of any Moneys mif-spent, or taken by ' Churchwardens or Overseers, the Evidence of the Parishioners (except such as receive Alms, or any Pension out of such Collection) shall be admitted in all Courts of Record at Westminster, or at the Affizes.

Note, By the Statute 8 & 9 Will. 3. c. 30. it is Enacted, 'That no unmarried Person, not having Child or Children, lawfully hir'd into any Parish or Town for a Year, shall be deem'd to have a good Settlement in such a Parish, un-1 less he continue in the same Service during one whole Year.

And by the same Statute, 'If any Person, who fhall come to any Parish or other Place to inhabit, shall at the same Time deliver to any of the Churchwardens or Overfeers of the Poor of the Place where he comes, a Certificate under the Hands and Seals of the Churchwardens or " Overseers of the Poor of any other Parish or ' Place, attested by two or more Witnesses; thereby owning the Person nam'd in the said ' Certificate to be an Inhabitant legally fettled in ' that Parish or Place; such a Certificate having been allow'd or subscribd by two Justices of the Peace of the County, City or Borough, from whence it comes, shall oblige the said Parish or Place to receive and provide for the PerCh. 7. fon mention'd in the Certificate with his Family as Inhabitants, whenever the Party shall happen to become chargeable to the Place, to which such Certificate was given; and then, and not before, it shall be lawful for such Perfon and his Children (tho' born in that Parish) not having otherwise acquir'd a legal Settlement, to be remov'd to the Place from whence fuch a Certificate was brought.

Now for the better explaining of this Clause about the Certificate, by Statute 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 11. it was Enacted, That fuch Persons as shall come into any Parish or Place to inhabit, should at the same time deliver to the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor there, a Certificate, as by the Act is directed: But it is declar'd, That no Persons that shall come into any Parish by any fuch Certificate, shall be adjudg'd by any Act what soever, to have procur'd a legal Settlement in fuch a Parish, unless such Persons shall Bona fide take a Lease of a Tenement of 10 1. per Annum, or shall be legally plac'd in, and execute some Annual Office in such a Parith. 3 Mod. Rep. 247, Gc. That where, upon fuch a Certificate from a Parish, he was held to be no Inhabitant within their Parith, because no Notice was left with them, pursuant to the Statute.

By the aforesaid Statute 8 & 9 W. 3. the Appeal against an Order for Removal of any poor Person, shall be had at the Quarter Sessions of the County or Division, wherein the Parish or Place from whence such a Person shall be removed doth lie, and not elsewhere; but the Liberty of St. Albans is excepted out of this Act as to an Appeal.

Alfo Justices of Peace at their Quarter-Sessions, upon any Appeal concerning the Settlement of any poor Person, or upon Notice given of an Appeal, (tho' the Appeal be not afterwards profecuted) shall award to the Party for whom such Appeal shall be determin'd, or to whom Notice had been given, such Costs and Charges as they shall think reasonable: And if the Person order'd to pay fuch Costs shall live out of the Jurisdiction, any fuch Justice of the Peace where such Person shall inhabit, may and shall upon Request, and upon a true Copy of the Order produc'd, and prov'd upon Oath, cause the Money mention'd in such Order to be levy'd by Distress, and in case no Goods can be found, to commit the Person to Prison for twenty Days.

And by this Statute, every Person that receives Relief, shall wear a Badge, a Roman (P) upon the Right Shoulder of their upper Garment. The Person resusing or neglecting to wear such a Badge, to have the Relief withdrawn: And that if any Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor shall relieve any such poor Person not wearing such a Badge, shall forfeit 20 s. for every Offence.

Where the Justices of Peace said in their Order, That they were credibly inform'd that such a Place was the last legal Settlement; said to be ill, for they ought to have averr'd it expressly, for otherwise they don't pursue the Statute, which saith, That the Party must be remov'd to the last Place of legal Settlement,

It was alledg'd on the other Side, That (credibly inform'd) doth suppose that it might be upon Oath or otherwise. Ch. Justice; We will intend nothing but what appears in the Order it self. Hill, 8. W. 3. Parish of Sanbridge's Case.

CHAP. VIII.

Of the Relief of Bastards, and of punishing their reputed Parents. The Power of Justices in making Orders. What Orders shall be good or not. What final or not. Of Appeals. Of the Power of Justices of Peace in Sessions, by 3 Car. c. 4. And how far that alters the Statute of 18 Eliz. Of the Punishment of the Mother of a Bastard-Child. Of the reputative Father and Mother of Bastard-Children running away. If they leave an Estate, how to be employ'd.

Nder this Head of Bastards, I shall set down the Statute made 18 Eliz. c. 3. How Justices of Peace shall order the Punishment of the Mother, and reputed Father of a Bastard. And cite such adjudged Cases thereon that shall direct us, as to the Maintenance of such Bastard-Children.

Concerning Bastards begotten and born out of lawful Matrimony, the said Bastards being now left to be kept at the Charges of the Parish where they be born, to the great Burden of the same Parish, and in defrauding of the Relief of the Impotent and Aged true G Poor,

Poor of the same Parish, and to the evil Example and Encouragement of lend Life: It is Enacted, That two Justices of the Peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum, in or next unto the Limits where the Parish-Church is, within which Parish such Bastard Shall be born (upon the Examination of the Cause and Circumstances) shall and may by their Discretion take Order. as well for the Punishment of the Mother and reputed Father of such Bastard-Child, as also for the better Relief of every such Parish in part or in all, and shall and may likewife by like Discretion take Order for the keeping of every such Bastard-Child, by charging such Mother or reputed Father with the Payment of Money weekly, or other Sustentation for the Relief of such Child, in such wise as they shall think meet and con-venient: And if after the same Order by them subscrib'd under their Hands, any the Said Persons (viz.) Mother or reputed Father, upon Notice thereof, Shall not for their Part observe and perform the Said Order, That then every such Person so making Default in not performing of the said Order, to be committed to Ward of the common Gaol, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize; except he, she, or they, shall put in Sufficient Surety to perform the Said Order, or else personally to appear at the next General Sessions of the Peace to be holden in that County where such Order shall be taken, and also to abide such Order as the said Justices of the Peace, or the more Part of them, then and there shall take in that Behalf (if they then and there shall take any) and that if at the said Sossions the Said Justices Shall take no other Order, then to abide and perform the Order before made, as is abovefaid.

That two Justices of the Peace, &c. The Justices of Peace in case of Exigence may provide for for Bastard-Children; and other Justices of Peace, besides the two next, may make an Order; and this Statute was only made to order and regulate the Manner, which may be extended by Equity unto any Justices into whatsoever Place the reputed Father removeth. The Case was, The Justices of London made an Order for keeping of a Bastard-Child in S. in Sussex, and there the reputed Father gave Security to keep him. Now the Party having removed into London with the Child, the Order is fufficient, tho' it were to pay 15 l. Arrears of 3 s. by the Week order'd in Suffex. and to give Security to pay for the future what the two next Justices think fit : Here being not only a Contest between the Parish and the Defendant as to the Bastard, but for his Misdemeanour in refusing necessary Maintenance; and the Court remanded him, and confirmed the Order. 1 Keb. 459. William's Cafe.

At the next General Sessions. Upon Motion to quash an Order made by the Justices of Peace at their Sessions in Kent, for the keeping of a Bastard Child; it was resolved, That these Words, [next Quarter-Sessions] shall be intended, that the Order made by the Justices shall be confirmed at the next Quarter-Sessions, held for that part of the County where it was made, and not the very next Sessions in the County, for this would be mischievous in many Counties, as in Kent: For the Sessions held at Canterbury do not intermeddle with Things done in Maidstone Division, nor Maidstone with Canterbury Division. This Act is continued by 3 Car. 1. c. 4. (that is to fay) so much of it as concerneth Bastards, begotten out of lawful Matrimony, with this Addition, That all Justices of Peace within their several Limits and Precincts, and in their several Sessions, may do and execute all Things concerning that part of the said Statute, that by Justices of Peace in the se-veral Counties are by the said Statute limited to be done. This Clause that gives Authority to Justices of Peace in Sessions, is to be understood, where the next Justices have made no Order therein. Dalt. p. 40. For the Justices of Peace in Sessions could not before the Statute 3 Car. 1. c. 4. meddle with the Settlement of, or Provision for a Bastard-Child, according to 18 Eliz. c. 3. until the two next Justices had made some Order therein; and after fuch Order made by the two next Justices, the Sessions might proceed therein to make a new Order. But now by this Stat. 3 Car. 1. c. 4. the Justices in Sessions have Power originally to make an Order therein.

As to Bastards begotten and born out of lawful Matrimony.

The Statute 18 Eliz. c. 3. shall be taken by Equity; and although Bastards are intended Children born, yet the Justices may take Security of fuch as are big, or of reputed Fathers during that Time, lest they be gone before the Child be born; and after the Child is born, it is an usual Practice for the Overfeers to take Security of the reputed Father to fave the Parish harmless; and oftentimes they take a Sum of Money in Gross for that Purpole, especially about London. And many fay, That if the Child die in a short Time after, this Money is conceal'd from the Parish; of which, Quare.

An Order of Discharge was not the next Sessions after the Charge, the Desendant being beyond Sea; but it was the next Sessions after the Desendant return'd, and had Notice of the Order of Charge as reputed Father: Per Cur'. Did this appear in the Order of Discharge, that the Sessions after Notice is the next, on 18 Eliz. c. 3? 3 Keb. 551. The King and Baker.

This Statute shall be taken by Equity; and albeit Bastards are intended Children born, yet the Justices may take Security of such as be big, or of reputed Fathers during that Time, lest they be gone before the Child is born; which the Court agreed. 3 Keb. 708. The King and Browne.

And the reputed Father of such Bastard-Child. By this Statute the reputed Father is only chargeable, and therefore in one Linter's Case, the Indictment of a reputed Grandsather of a Bastard was quash'd, and all the Orders therewith re-mov'd, were quash'd also. 3 Keb. 747.

Note, Every Justice of Peace (upon his Discretion) may bind to the Good Behaviour, him that is charged or suspected to have begotten a Bastard-Child, that he may be forth-coming when the Child shall be born, otherwise there will be no reputative Father, when the two Justices (after the Birth of the Child) shall come to take Order according to the Statute 18 Eliz. The like may be done after the Birth of the Child, and before fuch Order taken. Lambert 122. Crompt. 196. Dalt. 39. And if such reputative Father shall by Perswasion or other Practice be convey'd away. or run away, to as the Justice of Peace cannot come by him; every Justice of Peace, upon his Discretion, may bind to the Good Behaviour, and to over to the next General Gaol-Delivery, or to G 3 the next Quarter-Sessions, such as shall have an Hand in such Practice; and such Offenders may by the Discretion of the Justices (at their General Sessions) be ordered to contribute towards the Maintenance of the said Bastard-Child; So is Constables having received a Warrant to apprehend the reputative Father, shall willingly or negligently suffer him to escape or sine them: So if the Mother be conveyed or sent away, whereby she leaveth her Child to the Charge of the Town.

Such Bastard shall be born. Such Bastard-Child must be such that is left to the Charge of the Parish, or one likely to be chargeable.

Take Order, &c. and upon Non performance, to commit, except Sureties put in to perform the faid Order, &c. Hammond's Case, 3 Car. 1. was, He got a Child; the Examination whereof was referr'd to the two next Justices, according to the Statute, upon which the Justices make an Order, which Hammond refused to perform; thereupon they cause him to enter into Bond to appear at the next Sessions, where he appeared; the Justices there made another Order, and because he refused to perform this, they committed him to Prison. Per Curiam. The Imprisonment was illegal, being not warranted by the Statute, but they ought to have proceeded against him upon his Bond. Hide, Chief Justice: The Justices ought not to commit for not performing their Order of Quarter-Sessions, where they alter the former Order made by the Justices, who had first the Examination; for by the fecond Order the first was made null: And it was one Smith's Case, 6 Car. 2. It appeared by Proof before two Justices, that Smith was the reputed Father of a Bastard Child,

Ch. 8. Punishment of their Parents. 127 and the Justices made an Order for Maintenance of the Child, and for Discharge of the Parish according to Law, and afterwards committed him for not performing the Order: Per Cur' B. R. The Commitment is void, and the Justices should have taken Bond of him to appear at next Sesfions.

But this Case went farther: Sir H. Poole and Dr. Standard being the two next Justices, did examine this Matter; upon which it then appear'd that one Field was the reputed Father; and made their Order against Field, that he should maintain the Child, discharge the Parith, and enter into Bond for his Appearance at the Quarter-Sessions, and to abide their Order there made: He refus'd to enter into Bond, but appear'd at the Sessions, and there shewed that Smith was the reputed Father. The former Order was certify'd, but the Justices did nothing upon it, but granted a new Reserence unto Dr. Standard and Master Gregory, Sir H. Poole being gone out of the County, and they made the last Order contrary to the former, and by this they charged Smith as the reputed Father: It was refolv'd, 1. That the Juflices at their next Quarter-Sellions ought to have made their final Order, or to have affirm'd or difallow'd the former Order, and then afterwards to have granted a Reference to the fame next Justices which made the first Order, to consider better of it, and of the Proof, and this had been according to Law. 2. That after an Appeal to the Sessions, and the Justices there do repeal the first Order, the Matter then is as Res integra before them, and they may then grant a Reference to the two next Justices. 3. That the Recognizance ought to be in the Disjunctive, (viz.) To perform_ perform the Order by them made, or to appear at the next Quarter-Sellions, and to abide the Order there. 4. The Reference by the Justices at the Sessions, before they had allow'd or disallow'd the first Order, was illegal: This was so resolv'd in the King's Bench.

Anne Tarling having a Bastard-Child; upon Complaint made thereof to the Sessions, it was referr'd to the next Justices to examine and order: who did make an Order against John Wood to be the reputed Father, and order'd him to allow one Shilling and Four-pence weekly, &c. Wood appeal'd to the Sessions, where the faid Order was difallow'd, and one W. C. charg'd to be the reputed Father. Jones, Justice, at Glocester Assizes, confirmed the last Order made at Sessions, which was final, and no Appeal to be admitted against it. And fo was Pridgeon's Cafe of Lincolnshire: Pridgeon being examined, was found by two Juflices to be the reputed Father of a Bastard-Child; they made an Order against him, for Allowance, &c. Afterwards he appeals to the Seffions, where Pridgeon was discharged, and another was found to be the reputed Father, and an Order made against him. Afterwards at another Sessions of the Peace, upon a Re-examination, another Order was made against the last Order, whereby Pridgeon was found again to be the reputed Father, and so ordered to maintain the Child, and if he did not perform it, should be committed; he was committed, and brought his Habeas Corpus. Pridgeon appeals to the Judges of the King's Bench. Refolv'd, That Pridgeon Shall be freed from the fecond Order at Sessions, it being illegal; and the first Order made by the Quarter-Sessions, upon Appeal to them, to stand in Force, and no Appeal to be admitted against it, the same being final, and not to be alter'd by the Judges of Assize. Cro. Car. 341, 350. Jones 330.

It was resolved upon the Statute 18 Eliz. c. 3. That the Justices of Peace at their Sessions, nor the Judges of Assize, have Power to meddle with Bastard-Children, but upon Appeal and Settling; but this is to be done by the two next Justices.

Pasch. 8 Car. 1. B. R. Bowber and Painter.

But suppose two such Justices cannot agree upon their Order, what is then to be done? As, suppose they cannot agree upon the reputed Father, Gc. Some think it fit that fuch Difference should be referred to the Hearing of the whole Bench, so the Matter to be re-examined by them, and what Order therein shall be set down by the Bench, the same to stand good; but I like the other Opinion best, which is (as is conceived) the Words of the Statute being in the Disjunctive. Two Justices of Peace in or next to the Limits. &c. If the two Justices of Peace in that Division or Limits cannot agree, then the two Justices of Peace next to that Division or Limits (being in the fame County, and one of them of the Onorum) have Power to take Order therein.

But now per Stat. 3 Car. 1. c. 4. the Justices have Power in Sessions originally to make Orders about the Settlement or Provision for Bastard-Children, which before they had not; for now the Justices of Peace in Sessions have the same Authority given them as was given the two Justices by 18 Eliz. 3. and the same Rules are to be observed in drawing their Order mutatis mutandis.

This Statute doth not give Authority to one Sessions to alter that which in a former Sessions was ordered; for the Statute is, That if the two next Justices of Peace do not make Provision for the Bastard, the Justices of Peace at their Quarter-Sessions shall settle an Order for keeping the Bastard, as the two next Justices ought. Cro. Car. 350, 351. Pridgeon's Cafe.

The Justices can't confirm the first Order, and add further Penalty; but they may alter or enlarge at Pleasure upon Appeal; but on Appeal they cannot refer the Order back to be alteted by the first Justices. 1 Keb. 570. The King against

By this Statute, 3 Car. 1. c. 4. the Justices in Sessions may proceed on Order made by the next Justices, whether begun originally in Sessions or not. 2 Keb. 720, The King against Jennings.

On the Confideration of these foregoing Cases, Kelynge faid, That in the first Order of Justices for keeping a Bastard, the Security by 18 Eliz. is to abide the Order of the next Sessions, and no other; and if they affirm the first Order on Appeal, or annul it, still the first Security only remains, and no other can be taken of him, or any other Person that shall appear to be the reputed Father; and in this Case, the Justices of the third Sessions have nothing to do to discharge or affirm the first Order. 1 Keb. 546. The King against Costing.

A Servant-Maid dwelling in Twyning was got with Child, and being near her Time, was convey'd by Practice into an Out-house in Tewksbury, where the Child was born. Afterward Twyning gave her Relief; and as soon as she was able to remove, they of Twyning gave her and her Child Relief for two Years. Afterwards the Mother being sick, they sent her away with her Child to Longden in Com. Wigorn. where the Mother died: Then they of Longden sent the Child to Twyning, and they of Twyning sent the Child (being under the Age of three Years) to Tewksbury, and they sent it back to Twyning. Resolv'd at the Assizes, 9 July, 8 Car. An. 1682. The Child regularly is to be kept where it was born, if no Practice was us'd to have it born there; but if by Practice, then it is to be kept by the Parish where she did dwell, and where she was got with Child, and which used such Practice, and that is the Parish of Twyning. And so it was ordered.

And in Trinity Term, 3 Anne, a Case was thus: viz. A poor Woman with Child was removed from the Parish of Westbury to the Parish of Costham, by Order of two Justices near Westbury; and before the Sessions, she was brought to Bed at Costham, and afterwards the Order was quash'd on Appeal at the Sessions. And per Cur'. The Child is legally settled in the Parish of Westbury, from whence the Mother was illegally removed; for they shall not take Advantage of their own Wrong: And so it would have been in this Case, though they had not known of the Woman's being with Child at the Time of the wrongful Re-But if a Woman with Child be travelling, without Fraud of the Parish in which she is fettled, and in fuch Travel is delivered of her Bastard, it shall be settled where born; but otherwife if there be Fraud in the Cafe: According to which, fee the Case of the Parish of Bowham in Effex, 2 Bulft. 349. And Note, in the principal Case supra, it appeared on the Order of Removal, That the Woman had a Husband, who had left her: her seven Years before, but not said that he was dead, and so the Child could not be a Bastard.

A Man is charged to be the reputed Father of a Bastard by Order of two Justices; he appeals to the Sessions, and prays a Day to another Sessions to bring in his Proofs; and besides giving a Day, nothing is done. Now the Question was, If the Court might give him Relief at another Seffions? And at the Affizes, per Walter Chief Baron, refolv'd, That the next Sessions, after the two Justices Order, must relieve him, or none else could. 6 Car. I. Gitten and Edwards. So in 6 Car. I. it was resolved in the Case of one Smith against the Parish of Blackthorn in Comit. Oxon.

Note, Such as shall remove or put any out of the Parish that ought not to be put out, this is against the Statute concerning the Relief of the Poor, and finable; and if any be so sent away, they may be fent back again. And this Fine feemeth to be by Force of the Statute of 39 Eliz. cap. 4. and to amount to five Pounds, and is to be levied by Diffress and Sale of the Offenders Goods, upon a Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any two Justices of the Peace, either upon the Confession of the Offenders, or else upon the Testimony of two sufficient Witnesses.

A Maid-Servant was gotten with Child by one R. at D. and the Child born there; R. take the Child from the Mother, and puts it to Nurse, and marries another Woman, and keeps the Child with him ten or eleven Years together, and died. leaving a Wife and divers Children, which she was not able to maintain, but they were reliev'd by the Parish. The Mother of the Bastard-Child usually liv'd at Service, and had three Pounds per Annum left her by her Friends; but it was not in her own Hands, and the was still able to do fome Work, tho' fhe was a Woman but of a week Understanding. It was resolv'd at Salop Affizes, by Jones and Whitlock, 7 Car. 1. That the Child was to be fent to the Mother, if she were able to maintain it; if not, to the Place where it was settled ten Years with the Father. Rep. 350.

Farther Observations touching Orders for the Relief of Bastard-Children.

1. If the Party appeal to the next Sessions, and the Justices there make an Order thereupon, it is final, and cannot be alter'd by any After-Sessions. Crok. Car. 350. And this was the Case of Pridgeon.

2. The Order must be by two Justices of the Peace, whereof one is of the Quorum.

3. It must appear by the Order, that the Justices of Peace, making the Order, are the next Justices of Peace to the Parish-Church where the Child was born. Style 154.

4. A Return of an Order of Tustices of the Peace for keeping a Bastard-Child, remov'd hither by Certiorari, was read; and upon the Reading, the Court was mov'd to quash the Order upon this Exception chiefly; for that the Order doth not direct how long the Party shall keep the Child, as the Statute doth direct it should; and it was quash'd. For the Payment must be made to continue fo long as the Child shall be chargeable to the Parish; for the Party may take it, and keep it himself; and where the Mother is able, the Justices have nothing to do in the Case. Style's Rep. 154. and pag. 386. Order was topay three Shillings per Week to keep a Bastard. It was quash'd; the Party may keep it himself, if he will.

5. It must be positively declared and adjudged who is the reputed Father, and not to repeat what the Witnesses say, or what the Mother faith, but the Order must be positive and absolute; for it is a Judgment in the Case, and every Judgment must be positive and certain. Therefore in Mich. 24 Car. 1. the Court was moved to quash an Order of Sessions made, that one should keep his reputed Child, because he had kept him heretofore; and it doth not shew, either that it is his Baffard, or his lawfully, begotten Child; and it was quash'd. Siyle's Rep. p. 154.

6. The Order was, That the Party should pay 2 weekly Sum for the keeping of the Child; and it was quash'd; for no such Order could be made without the Party's Consent: And by the Statute, he is only compellable to secure the Parish where the Child was born, that it should not be a Charge to the Parish. See Style's Rep. 14.

7. If it doth not appear that the Justices had any Power to make any Order at all in the Case, as if it appears not where the Child was born, and so it may be born in another County, where the Justices have nothing to do, it shall be quash'd. Style p. 14. As an Order of Sessions made at Arundel in Sussex, for paying so much Money Weekly to a Parish, towards the keeping of a Bastard-Child, was quash'd; because it did not appear by the Order, that the Child was born in that Parish to which the Money was awarded to be paid. Style's Rep. 368.

8. By some, the Justices of Peace may adjudge a reasonable Sum in Gross, to be paid to the Parish for the Charges of the Woman's Lying-in. The Justices order'd a Sum in Gross, besides a weekly Payment for Maintenance of the Child, and the Order was held to be gnod. Reg. vers.

11. An Order of the publick Sessions, made against one Denton for the keeping of a Bastard-Child, was remov'd into this Court by a Certiorari; and the Party also, who was committed to Aylesbury Gaol for disobeying the Order, was brought into Court upon an Habeas Corpus granted to him; and upon the reading of the Return of the Habeas Corpus, this Exception was taken to the Return, That it appears by the Return, that the Order, made for Denton to keep the Bastard-Child, was made by the Justices at the Quarter-Sessions; and that, for not obeying this Order, he was committed to the Gaol by two Justices at a private Sessions of the Peace: Whereas the Juflices at the Quarter-Sessions had no Authority by the Statute to make fuch an Order; for it ought to have been made by the next two lustices of Peace to the Place where the Bastard was born. And to this, Glyn, Chief Justice, agreed, but would not release the Prisoner till he was bound over with good Bail to the next Quarter-Sessions for the County of Buckingham, to appear there, and to answer the Fact. Style's Rep. p. 475. Denton's-Cafe. But this Opinion feeems not to be Law; for by Stat. 2, Car. 1. c. 4.]uflices in their Seffions have Power originally to make Orders about Bastard-Children. Supra.

Counsel mov'd to quash an Order for keeping a Bastard-Child, being two pence per Week; but Per Cur. Two Justices of Peace made an Order in Sessions-time against one R. as reputed Father, for keeping a Bastard-Child: R. appeal'd after the Order made by two Justices to the same Sessions, where the Justices made an Order, that one B should keep it. I shall not speak of the Punishment of the Mother or reputative Father of the Bastard-Child Child, it being my Design only to treat of the Relief of the Poor, &c. Only let me add, That over and above the Punishment in the Statute II Eliz. c. 3. quod vide supra, it is enacted in one Clause of 7 fac. c. 4. about the Houses of Correction, That every lend Woman which bath any Baflard which may be chargeable to the Parish, the fuflices of Peace (hall commit such lend Woman to the House of Correction, there to be punish'd, and set on Work during the Term of one whole Year; and if she Shall eft soons offend again, then to be committed to the said House of Correction as aforesaid, and there to remain until she can put in good Sureties for her Good Behaviour, and not to offend so again. This is not to be till after the Child is born, and she able again; and this must be done by two Justices, which may be the fame as are authorized by 18 Eliz. Note, By Statute of I fac. c. 7. it's Enacted, That no Authority to be given or made by any Baron of this Realm, or any other honourable Personage of greater Degree, unto any other Person or Persons, shall be available to free or discharge the said Persons, or any of them, from the Pains or Punishment of the said Statute. And in the said Statute I fac. c. 7. it is Enacted, That all such Person and Persons as shall wander up and down the Country to sell Glasses, shall be adjudg'd, deem'd and taken, as Rogues and Vaga-

The Word Rogue comes from the Hebren 177
Roage, or because oftiatim Rogat, which is all one; for I question not but the Latin, as well as English Word, Rogo and Rogue, comes from the Hebren Original, as it is in many others: Mendicus quasi Manu dicens, (speaking with the Hand,)

Hand,) mos enim erat apud Antiquos Egenum silentio Manum extendere; a silent, and oftenimes a most fuccessful way of Begging.

But a Rogue in our Law signifies an idle Beggar, that wanders from Place to Place without lawful Passport; and yet Vagabond signifies, any who wandereth about idly and loitering; and is a Rogue, tho' he beggeth not. Vide infra.

Now the Persons which are accounted Rogues in our Law, and shall be punished as such, are these, if they be above the Age of seven Years:

Having seen who are Rogues and Vagabonds, let us see how the Law disposeth them as to Settlement.

In the faid Statute 39 Eliz. c. 4. it is Enacted, That every Person which is by this present Act declared to be a Rogue, Vagabond, or sturdy Beggar, which shall be at any Time taken begging, vagrant, wandering, or misordering themselves in any part of this Realm, or the Dominions of Wales, shall upon their Apprehension, by the Appointment of any Justice of Peace, Constable, Headborough, or Tythingman of the same County, Hundred, Parish or Tything, where such Person shall be taken, the Tything-man or Headborough being therein affisted with the Advice of the Minister and one other of that Parish, shall be strip'd naked from the Middle upward, and shall be openly whip'd, till his or her Body be bloody; and shall be forthwith sent from Parish to Parish, by the Officers of every the same, the next fraight way to the Parish where he was born, if the fame may be known by the Party's Confession, or otherwise; and if the same be not known, then to the Parish where he or she last dwelt before the same Punishment, by the Space of one whole Year, there to put him or her felf to labour, as a true Subject ought to do; or not being known where he or the was born, or last dwelt, then to the Parish thro' which he or the last pass'd without Punishment: After which Whipping, the same Person shall have a Testimonial subscribed with the Hand and Seal of the same Justice of Peace, Constable, Headborough, or Tything-man, and of the Minister of the same Parith, or of any two of them, tellifying, That the fame Person hath been punished according to this Act; and mentioning the Day and Place of his or her Punishment, and the Place whereunto fuch Person is limited to go, and by what Time the faid Person is limited to pass thicher at his Peril: And if the faid Person thro' his or her Default do not accomplish the Order appointed by the faid Testimonial, then to be eftfoons taken and whip'd; and so as often as any Default shall be found in him or her, contrary to the Form of this Statute, in every Place to be whip'd, till fuch Person be repair'd to the Place limited. The Substance of which Testimonial shall be regifter d by the Minister of that Parish, in a Book to be provided for that Purpose, upon Pain to forfeit 5 s. for every Default thereof; and the Party whip'd, and not known where he or the was born, or last dwelt by the space of an Year, shall by the Officer of the faid Village, where he or the fo last pass'd thro' without Punishment, be conveyed to the House of Correction, Oc.

2 Bulft. p. 357. Rogues are not to be fent to the House of Correction (except in the Case abovementioned) but by Passes to the Place of their Birth. And altho' it shall appear a Person was an Inhabitant a long while in another Parish, and there became impotent by any Mischance in Labour, and then beg; yet he shall be sent to the Place of his Birth, as it was resolved by Sir William Jones at Worcester Lent Assizes, 14 Car. 1. in Chappel's Case.

Note, Rogues may not be sent by a general Passport, but from Parish to Parish.

If a Man and his Wife be Roguing, and they have an House in another Parish, it's said they may be sent thither: Quare, for it must be then, after they be sent to the Place of their Birth.

By Holt, Chief Justice, Trin. 8 W. 3. Rex vers, Inhabit. Luckenden. The Statute of Vagrancy is 29 Eliz. by which the Vagrant is to be sent to the Place of his Birth, if known, or else to the Parish where he was last settled. Now if a Vagrant is removed by the Justices to the Place he was born, whether they can't send him from thence to the Place he was last settled since his Birth? And I think they may do it by the Statute 1 Jac. 1. c. 7. (tho' not before,) tho' I believe the Justices don't practise it so. Adjornat.

Note, No Child under the Age of seven Years shall be adjudged a Rogue within the Statute 39 Eliz. c. 4. But such Children being vagrant, must be sent to, and placed with the Father; and if he be dead, then with the Mother where she was born, or last dwelt by the Space of one Year: And such Children once thus settled or placed, must there remain, and not be sent thence to the Place of their Birth; although after the Parents die, or run away, or that the said Children grow above seven Years of Age.

One

One D. Clavely, with a Child under feven Years of Age, wandred to the Village of Arley, in Com. Wig. and there defired a Warrant to be conveyed to E. in Com. Staff. where the had some Friends, and where the Child was born; upon this, the Constable of Arley made her a Pass to convey her to E. and delivered her to the Constable of Rand he to B. where the Mother died. The Question was at Stafford Affizes, Where the Child should be fent; whether to the Parish where the Mother died, or the Parith where the Child was born? Per Sir William Jones, and Sir James Whitlock, they were ordered to be sent to the several Parishes where they were born, and fo they were fent: For a Child under seven Years of Age shall not be a Vagabond. 2 Bulft. 351.

Eliz. B. being a Wanderer, with Three Children born in three several Parishes, came with them to D. in Com. Wig. to her Sifter, where she died, the three Children being there left. Per Fones and Whitlock, the Children ought to be kept and provided for by the several Parishes where they were born, and not in the Parish where the Mother died in Transitu. 2 Bulft. 351. And accordingly an Order was made and fign'd by them, and the same delivered to the Clerk of the Assizes, to deliver the same to the Parties.

The Rogue whose last Place of Birth, or last Dwelling cannot be known, having Wife, and Children under seven Years of Age, they must be fent with the Husband to the Place where they were last wilfully suffered to pass without Punishment; where the Children must be reliev'd by the Work of the Parents, though the Parents be committed to the House of Correction.

A Rogue is taken at D. and will not confess the Place of his Birth; but he confesseth his last Dwelling was at S. whereupon he is whip'd and sent to S. and coming to S. his Place of Birth was learnt to be at W. In this Case, the Rogue is to be sent to the Place of his Birth, without any new Vagrancy: For his Settling at S. was no legal Settling. Resol. 27.

The Wife being a vagrant Rogue, must be fent to her Husband, though he be but a Servant in another Town. Refol. 3.

If the Husband or Wise have an House, (tho' as an Inmate) and either of them rogue about, they are to be sent to the Town where that House is. Refol. 5.

No Man is to be put out of the Town where he dwelleth, nor to be fent to his Place of Birth or Habitation, but only a Vagrant Rogue, such as wander abroad in the Country, and not such as are vagrant, and beg in the same Town where they dwell. Refol. 6.

Before the Statute of 12 Anna, one who had gained a Settlement, and afterwards became a Vagrant, should have been sent to the Place of his Birth; but then he might have been sent from thence to the Place of his last legal Settlement according to 43 Eliz. c. 2. Salk. 526.

In the eighth Branch of the Statute 7 fac. c. 4. And for that many wilful People finding that they have Children, have some Hope to have Relief from the Parish wherein they dwell; and being able to labour, and thereby to relieve themselves and their Families, do nevertheless run away out of their Parishes, and leave their Families upon the Parish. For Remedy thereof, be it further Enacted, That all such Persons so running away shall be taken and deem'd to be Incorrigible Rognes, and endnre the Pains of incorrigible Rogues. And if either such Man or Woman being able to work, and shall threaten to run away and leave their Families as aforesaid, the same being proved by two sufficient Witnesses upon Oath before two Justices of Peace in that Division, that then the Said Person so threatning shall by the said Justices of Peace be sent to the House of Correction, (unless he or she can put in Sufficient Surety for the Discharge of the Parish) there to be dealt with and detained as a furdy wandering Rogue, and to be delivered at the said Assembly or Meeting, or at the Quarter-Seffions, and not othernife.

This Branch consisteth upon two Parts:

1. If any Man or Woman having Children, being able to labour, and thereby to relieve their Families, do run away out of the Parishes, and leave their Families upon the Parishes, he or she shall be deem'd and taken to be an incorigible Rogue.

2. If any fuch Man or Woman being able to work, shall threaten to run away, and leave their Families as aforesaid, the same being proved by two sufficient Witnesses before two lustices of Peace in that Division, he or she shall be sent to the House of Correction as a sturdy wandering Rogue, &c. unless sufficient Surety be found for the Discharge of the Parish.

At the Meeting or Assembly: That is, the Meeting of the Justices twice in every Year at least, for the better Execution of this Statute; which is the fifth Branch of it. Et plus vid. in cap. Houses of Correction.

Note, Such Offenders as run away, shall be taken to be incorrigible Rogues, and they are to be dealt withal by two Justices of Peace.

They shall be punished as incorrigible Rogues, (viz.) They shall be sent by two Justices of the Peace to the House of Correction, or to the Gaol, there to remain till the next Quarter-Sessions, and then he or she shall be there branded in the Left Shoulder with an hot Iron, &c.

Note, All such that threaten to run away, and shall be sent to the Houses of Correction as aforesaid, upon their Delivery out of the House of Correction, they are to be sent to their Place of Dwelling if they have any; if not, then to the Place where they last dwelt by the Space of an Year.

Who shall be deem'd and taken to be incorrigible Rogues.

They are such as shall either appear to be dangerous to the inferior sort of People; as shall offer any Violence, or use any threatning Speeches towards People, &c.

Or fuch as will not be reformed of their Roguish kind of Life.

If a Rogue affirmeth he was born in snch a Town in such a County, and is sent thither; if he were not born there in Truth, he shall be said to be an incorrigible Rogue. Dalt. p. 210.

So if it appear not where he was born; if he untruly affirm that he was last dwelling in such a Town and County by the Space of an Year, and was not. Dalt. p. 210.

Ch. 9. Of Roques and Vagrants.

All Persons able to labour, that shall run away and leave their Families upon the Pariffic shall be punished as incorrigible Rogues. But they that threaten ro run away, shall be proceeded against as wandering Rogues only; for the Act feems to make a Difference.

The Punishment of an incorrigible Rogue, 39 Eliz. c. 4. I Jac. c. 7.

I shall abridge this Branch.

39 Eliz. c. 4. Two Justices of the Peace (one: of the Quorum) shall commit the incorrigible Rogue to the House of Correction, and if at the next Quarter-Sessions by the major Part of the Justices he shall not be thought fit to be deliver'd, he shall by them be banish'd, and at the Charge of the County shall be conveyed to such Parts beyond the Seas, as shall by fix or more of the Privy Council be affign'd, whereof the Lord-Keeper or Lord Treasurer to be one, or sent to the Gallies; and if a Rogue so banish'd return without Licence, he shall suffer as a Felon, to betry'd in the County where he shall be apprehended.

But by the Statute 1 Fac. c. 7. instead of banishing an incorrigible Rogue, or committing him to the Gallies, he thall in open Sessions be branded on the Left Shoulder with a burning Iron, having a great Roman R upon it as broad as a Shilling, and from thence shall be sent to his. Place of last Abode; and if that cannot be known, to the Place of his Birth: After which Time, if he offend again, he shall fuffer as a Felon, without Benefit of Clergy.

39 Eliza

39. Eliz. c. 4 All fuch Persons as shall in any wise disturb or hinder this Law, or any Part thereof, concerning the Punishment, or conveying of Rogues; or the Relief or Settling of poor impotent People in any manner of wife, or making Rescues against any Officer or Person authorized by this present Act; for the due Execution of any the Premisses, the same Person so offending, shall forfeit and lose for every such Offence the Sum of 5 l. and shall be bound to the Good Behaviour. And per Dalton, p. 210. two Justices of the Peace may bind such Offenders to the Good Behaviour; and may also, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, cause to be levy'd by Distress and Sale of the Offenders Goods the said Sum of 5 l. upon the Confession of the Offenders, or upon the Testimony of two Witnesses before the said Justices, of such Offence.

These Persons following are Offenders in this Law, and are Disturbers of the Execution of this Law.

r. They that fend Rogues by a general Paffport, without conveying them from Parish to Parish.

2. If the Officer, (viz.) Constable, or Overfeer, will not receive a Rogue, to convey him to the Place where he was born or dwelt: This is a Forseiture of 5 l.

3. So if the Constable shall not deliver him to the next Constable, (the next straight way.)

And upon the Words, Or the Relief or Settling of poor impotent People in any Manner of wife, which Mr. Dalton hath omitted. If any Officer shall refuse fuse an impotent Person that is poor, and no

Rogue, he forfeits 5 1. by this Act.

39 Eliz. c. 4. 3d Branch. If in any Town, Parish, or Village, the Constable, Headborough, or Tything-man, be negligent, and do not his or their best Endeavours for the Apprehension of such a Vagabond, Rogue, or sturdy Beggar, which there shall be found contrary to the Form of this present Act, and to cause every one of them to be punish'd and convey'd according to the true Meaning of this present Act, such Constable, &c. in whom such Default shall be, shall lose and forseit for every such Default 10 s. By the Statute 1 Jac. c. 7. it's 20 s. &c. Vide supra.

By Statute I Jac. c. 7. ' Every Person or Perfons shall apprehend, or cause to be appre-' hended, fuch Rogues, Vagabonds, and flurdy Beggars, as he or they shall see or know to refort to their Houses to beg, gather, or receive any Alms, and him or them shall carry, or cause to be carry'd, to the next Constable or 'Tything-man, upon Pain to forfeit for every Default 10 s. to be levy'd and employ'd in ' Manner and Form, and upon fuch like Proof and Conviction, as Penalties and Forfeitures are to be levy'd and employ'd by the Statute 39 Eliz And in Default of fuch Levy, then to be levy'd and employ'd by the Lord of the Leet, or his Officer, where such Offence shall be committed, and in such Manner as the Person au-' thoriz'd by the faid Statute might or should have levy'd or employ'd the fame.

Now the Employment and levying of the Forfeitures in the 39 Eliz. are:

Be it Enacted, 'That all Fines and Forfeitures appointed, or to grow due by this present Act, (except fuch as are otherwise limited or appointed by this present Act) shall wholly go and be employ'd in the Use of the Reparations and Maintenance of the Houses of Correction. and Stock and Store thereof, or Relief of the Poor where the Offence shall be committed, at the Discretion of the Justices of the Peace of the fame Limit, City, Borough, or Town-Corporate; and that all Fines and Forfeitures appointed, or to grow by Conviction of any Perfon according to this present Act, shall by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any two or more of the Justices of the Peace of the same County, City, Borough, or Town Corporate, be levy'd by Diffress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender, which Sale shall be good in the Law against such Offender. And that if any of the faid Offences shall be confess'd by the Offender or that the same shall be prov'd by two fufficient and lawful Witnesses, before fuch two or more Justices of the Peace, that then every fuch Person shall forthwith stand and be in the Law convicted thereof.

Other Offenders within these Acts are,

1. The Minister which shall not keep a Register-Book, and therein enter the Substance of every Testimonial made for the conveying of Rogues (punish'd in his Parish), shall forseit for every Default 5.

2. The

2. The Constable which shall not do his best Endeavours for the apprehending, punishing, and conveying all Rognes which shall be found in his Parish, shall forfeit for every Default 1 0s.

3. The Constable which shall not cause to be punish'd, and to be convey'd according to the Statute of 39 Eliz. all such Rogues as shall be brought or sent to him by any of his Neighbours, shall forfeit for every such Default 20 s.

4. Every Person relieving vagrant Rogues, and not carrying them to the next Constable, shall sorfeit 10 s. At Cambridge Assizes, Anno Dom. 1630. it was agreed by Sir Nicholas Hide, That is any Alehouse-keeper, or other Person, shall but lodge a Rogue, this is a relieving them, and contrary to the Statute 1 fac. and is a Forseiture of 10 s. 2, That giving of Money by a Constable to a Rogue, is relieving of him contrary to this Statute, and is a Forseiture of 10 s. Persons that suffer Rogues to lodge in Barns, ought to be bound over to the Assizes or Sessions, Resolv. 21. It's a Relieving within the Statute.

5. By 39 Eliz. c. 4. Every Person that shall willingly bring or convey in any Vessel out of Ireland, or the Isle of Man, into this Realm any Rogue, or any such as shall be like to live by Begging, &c. shall forseit for every such Person

6. The Justices at their Meetings may assess reasonable fines, being not above 40 s. upon such Constables as shall not appear and give Account according to Statute 7 fac. c, 4. Branch, quod vide prins, as also for conveying of Rogues, and other idle and disorderly Persons, sent to the Houses of Correction by their Warrants, which Conveying to the Houses of Correction shall be

7. By 7 Jac. c. 4. 'If the Masters of the Houses of Correction shall not every Quarter-Sessions yield a true and lawful Account unto the Justices of Peace, of all such Persons as have been committed to their Custody; or if the said Persons, or any of them, shall be troublesome to the County, by going abroad, or otherwise shall escape away from the House of Correction before they shall be from thence lawfully deliver'd, they shall be fin'd at the Discretion of the Justices in their Quarter-Sessions, and the Fines shall be paid in to the Treasurer, and accounted for by Bills.

For the Encouragement By 14 Car. 2. C. 12. of fuch Person or Persons as shall apprehend Rogues, Vagabonds, and flurdy Beggars, according to the Statutes made 39 Eliz. and I fac. It is Enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Justices of the Peace, to whom any Rogues, Vagabonds, or flurdy Beggars, fo apprenhended shall be brought, to reward any Person or Persons that shall apprehend any Rogue, Vagabond, or sturdy Beggar, by granting unto fuch Person or Persons, an Order or · Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to the Confable, Headborough, or Tything-man of fuch Parish where such Rogue, Vagabond, or sturdy Beggar pass'd thro' unapprehended, requiring him to pay fuch Person and Persons the Sum of 2 s. for every Rogue, Vagabond, or sturdy Beggar which shall be so apprehended: And if fuch Constable, &c. refuse or neglect to pay the 2 s. as aforesaid, that then the said Justice of Peace, or any other Justice or Justices of Peace, fhall

's shall proceed against any such Constable according to the said Statutes of 39 Eliz. and 1 Jac. and to compel him to pay such Sums of Money as he hath forseited by the Statute of 1 Jac. and to allow out of the said Forseiture the said 2 s. and such reasonable Means and Allowance for Loss of Time as they shall think fit, which Forseiture by the Statute 1 Jac. is 20 s.

' And if any Person or Persons shall apprehend any Rogue, Vagabond, or sturdy Beggar, at the Confines of any County, which pass'd thro' any Parish of another County unapprehended, it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons to go to some Juffice of Peace of that County thro' which fuch Rogue or Vagabond pas'd, unapprehended; who is hereby requir'd (upon a Certificate under the Hand of some Justice of Peace of the County where fuch Rogue or Vagabond was so apprehended) to grant his Order or Warrant under his Hand and Seal, requiring the faid Constable, Headborough or Tythingman, to pay unto fuch Person or Persons as aforefaid the Sum of 2 s. which if he shall refuse or neglect to do, then such Justice is hereby requir'd to proceed against such Constable, Headborough or Tything-man, and to cause him to pay 10 s. or fo much thereof for his Expences and Loss of Time as the faid Justice of Peace shall think fit, to such Person or Persons, which he hath forfeited by the Statute made in the 39th of Eliz.

By the same Statute of 14 Car. 2. Whereas Constables, Headboroughs or Tything-men, are or may be at great Charge in relieving, conveying veying with Paffes, and in carrying of Rogues and Vagabonds to Houses of Correction or Work-houses, and as yet have no Power by Law to make Rates to reimburse themselves: It is enacted. That all Constables, Headboroughs, and Tything men, so out of Purse as aforesaid, together with the Churchwardens and Overfeers of the Poor, and other Inhabitants of the faid Parish, shall hereby have Power and Authority to make an indifferent Rate, and to tax all the Occupiers of Lands and Inhabitants, and all other Persons chargeable by the Statute of the 43d of Eliz. concerning the Office and Duty for the Overleers of the Poor within the faid Parish; which Rate being confirm'd under the ' Hands and Seals of any two Justices of Peace as aforesaid, the Constable, Headborough or Tything-man, shall have Power, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of two Justices of the · Peace, to levy by Distress and Sale of the Goods of any Person and Persons refusing to pay the same, rendring the Overplus to the Owner, if any shall be.

In the Act of 14 Car. 2. there is a Proviso, That it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of Peace in any of the Counties of England and Wales, in their Quarter-Sessions assembled, or the major part of them, to transport, or cause to be transported, such Rogues, Vagabonds and sturdy Beggars, as shall be duly convicted and adjudged to be incorrigible, to any of the English Plantations beyond Seas. Q. At whose Charge? Out of the County Stock, as I conceive.

Note.

Note, It is enacted by the Statute 39 Eliz. c. 4. That any two or more Justices of the Peace within their several Shires, Cities, Boroughs, or Towns-Corporate (whereof one to be of the Quorum) shall have full Power to hear and determine all Causes that shall grow or come in Question, by reason of this Statute 39 Eliz. made for the Punishment of Rogues, Vagabonds, and sturdy Beggars.

And now, because the Penalty of wandering Beggars is so severe, I shall shew who may beg, and not be in Danger of the Statute of Rogues, and who not.

The Justice of Peace dwelling in or near the Place where any Seafaring-Man fuffering Shipwreck shall land, may make a Testimonial under his Hand to fuch Person, (not having wherewith to relieve himself in his Travel Homewards) fetting down in fuch Testimonial the Place and Time of his Landing, and the Place of his Birth and Dwelling unto which he is to pass, limiting therein a convenient Time for his Pass, in which Time, and in his direct Passage, he may beg neceffary Relief. 39 Eliz. c. 4. So of a Soldier or Mariner, 39 Eliz. But by the Statute 43 Eliz. c. 3, as to fick or maimed Soldiers, they now are usually, and may be reliev'd with Money by the Treasurers of every County where they come, wirh fuch convenient Sums as may carry them to the next County, vid. le Ssat. So that only in the faid two Cases of Shipwreck, and Soldiers or Mariners, may they beg Relief.

Any one Justice of Peace may license Labourers in Hay-time and Harvest to pass from one County to another to work, but not to

cap. 18.

The Statutes of 39 Eliz. c. 4. and 1 Jac. 1. c. 7. and also part of Sect. 5. of 7 Jac. 1. c. 4. having been repeal'd by the late Statute of 12 Ann. And the former Laws touching Rogues, Vagabonds, &c. thereby altered in divers Particulars, it will be necessary to add that Statute, together with some explanatory Notes or Observations thereupon.

This Statute is infituled, An Act for reducing the Laws relating to Rogues, Vagabonds, Sturdy Beggars

Beggars and Vagrants, into One Act of Parliament; And for the more effectual Punishing such Rogues, Vagabonds, Sturdy Beggars and Vagrants, and sending them whither they ought to be sent.

W Hereas many Parts of this Kingdom are extreamly oppressed by the usual Method of Conveying Vagabonds or Beggars from County to County, by having such Persons conveyed as Vagrants, who ought not to fo to be.

1. Be it enacted, Oc. That all Persons pretending themselves to be Patent-gatherers, or Collectors for Prifons, Gaols, or Hospitals, and wandring abroad for that Purpose; All Fencers, Bearwards, Common Players of Interludes, Minstrels, Jugglers: All Persons pretending to be Giplies, or wandring in the Habit or Form of Counterfeit Egyptians, or pretending to have Skill in Phisiognomy, Palmestry, or like crafty Science, or pretending to tell Fortunes, or like phantaffical Imaginations, or using any subtile Craft, or unlawful Games or Plays; All Persons able in Body, who run away, and leave their Wives or Children to the Parish, and not having wherewith otherwise to maintain themfelves, use Loytering, and refuse to work for the usual and common Wages; And all other idle Persons wandring abroad and Begging, (except Soldiers, Mariners, or Seafaring Men, Licensed by some Testimonial or Writing under the Hand and Seal of some Justice of Peace, setting down the Time and Place of his or their Landing, and the Place to which they are to pass, and limiting the Time for fuch their Passage, while they continue in the direct Way to the Place to which they are to pass, and during the Time so limited) shall be deemed Rogues and Vagabonds. 2. And

2. And be it enacted by the Authority aforefaid, That if from and after the first Day of August, 1714. any Person by this Act declared to be a Rogue or Vagabond, shall be found in any Parish or Place to be wandring and begging. or misordering him or her felf, as aforesaid, It shall and may be lawful for the Constable, or other Officer of fuch Parish or Place, or any other there dwelling or being, to apprehend the Person so deemed a Rogue or Vagabond, and to convey, or cause to be conveyed, him or her to fome Justice of Peace for the fame County, Division, Riding, City, Borough. or Town-Corporate, in or near the faid Parish or Place where he or the shall be so apprehended; And in Case any Constable or other Officer of any Parish or Place, shall refuse or neglect to use his best Endeavour to apprehend any fuch Rogue or Vagabond, it shall be deemed a neglect of Duty in fuch Constable or other Officer; And in Case any other Inhabitant of any such Parish or Place, being charged by any Justice of the Peace, or other lawful Authority fo to do, shall refuse or neglect to use his best Endeavour to apprehend and deliver to the Constable of the same Parish or Place, or carry before fome Justice of the Peace, where no Constable or other Officer shall be found, any fuch Rogue or Vagabond, who shall be seen or known to resort to any House to beg, or gather Alms, and shall be thereof found guilty by the Oath of one or more credible Witneffes, before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the fame County or Place, which Oath the faid Justice or Justices are hereby authorized to administer, he shall forfeit the Sum of 10 s., to be levied to the use of the Poor of the faid Parish or Place, by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, by Warrant from any fuch Justice or Justices of the Peace; And in Case any Person shall apprehend any such Rogue or Vagabond, and cause him or her to be brought before any Justice of Peace, it shall and may be lawful for fuch Justice to reward any fuch Perfon, by ordering under his Hand and Seal, any Constable or other Officer, where any fuch Rogue or Vagabond was found begging, and paffed unapprehended, to pay 2 s. to the Person so apprehending him or her; which Moneys if the faid Constable or other Officer refuse or delay to pay on Demand, it shall and may be lawful for fuch Justice of the Peace, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to levy the Sum of 20 s. by Distress and Sale of the Goods of such Constable or other Officer, and thereout to allow to the Person apprehending such Rogue or Vagabond the faid 2 s. and fuch other Recompense for his Trouble, Loss of Time, and Expences, as the faid Justice shall think fitting.

3. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Justices of the Peace of every County, Division, Riding, City, Liberty, or Town-Corporate, or any two or more of them, some convenient Time before their Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, or oftner, if need be, shall meet in their respective Divisions, and by their Warrant command the Constables of every Hundred, Parish, Town and Hamlet, in their several Divisions, (who shall be assisted with sufficient Men of the same Places) to make a general Privy Search in one Night, through their several and respective Limits, for the finding and apprehending of Rogues, Vagabonds, and Sturdy Beggars, and such as they shall find and apprehend upon such Search they shall cause to be brought before any Justice or Justices of the Peace of the same County, Division, Riding,

City, Liberty, or Town-Corporate.

4. And be it enacted by the Authority aforefaid, that where any Person or Persons, apprehended by any Constable, or other Officer, or Inhabitant of any Parish or Place, or upon such Privy Search, as aforesaid, shall be brought before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, it shall and may be lawful for fuch Justice or Justices, and he or they are hereby required to examine and inform him or themselves, as well by the Oath and Examination of the Person or Persons oath or Oaths the said Justice or Justices are hereby authorized to administer) or by any other Ways or Means (he or they shall think most proper) of the Condition and Circumstances of the Person or Persons so apprehended, and of his, her, or their Place of Abode, or Birth; the Substance of which Examination or Examinations. the faid Justice or Justices shall cause to be put down in Writing, and to be subscribed or signed by the Person or Persons so examined, and after transmitted to the next Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, to be holden for the same County or Place, there to be filed and kept on Record: And in Case it shall appear that such Person hath obtained any legal Settlement, fuch Person shall be fent to the Place of his or her last Legal Settlement, by fuch Order, and in fuch Manner. as by the Laws of this Realm, other Persons likely to be chargeable to the Parish are to be fent; but if it cannot be found that fuch Person hath gained 170 Of Rogues and Vagrants. other Officer shall be obliged to receive any Perfon or Persons by any Pass or Order, as aforesaid, unless it appear by the said Pass, that the Persons so ordered to be conveyed have been whipped or sent to the House of Correction, as aforesaid, in the County, City or Town-Corporate, through which they last passed (except Women great with Child, Soldiers wanting Subsistence, having lawful Certificates from their Officers or Secretary at War, or such Persons as the Justice or Justices shall judge not able to undergo such Punishment) which shall be certified in the said Order or Pass.

14. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Justices of Peace of any, County, Division, Riding, City, Town-Corporate, or Franchise, shall and may, at their General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, from time to time appoint and direct, what Rates or Allowances per Mile, or otherwise, shall be made for the passing, conveying, or maintaining of Vagrants, so to be passed or conveyed, as aforesaid: and may likewise make such other Orders, Rules. and Directions, for the more regular proceeding or acting therein, within their respective Limits. and Jurisdictions, as they in their Discretions shall think proper; which Rates, Allowances, Orders, Rules and Directions shall from time to time be observed and submitted to by all other Justices of Peace, Constables, Officers, and other 1.5

Persons within the same Limits and Jurisdictions respectively.

5. And be it further Enacted, That the faid Justices of the Peace, at such their Quarter-Sesfions, may, from time to time, when need shall be, by fuch Ways and Means as Monies for County-Gaols or Bridges may be raifed, caufe fuch Sums of Money to be raifed within their respective Precincts and Jurisdictions, for the pasfing and conveying, or maintaining of Rognes and Vagabonds, as aforesaid, as shall be necessary for those Purposes; which Monies so to be rais'd, shall be quarterly paid to the Chief Constables of each Division, in such manner as that such Chief Constables may have a Quarterly Payment in their Hands before-hand, for the Purposes hereafter mentioned; and the faid Chief Constables shall twice a Year, or oftner, as the said Justices shall direct, account for the same with the Treafurer or Treasurers of their respective County. Riding, City, Town-Corporate or Place.

16. And be it further Enacted, That in case any Petty-Constable or other Officer of any Parish or Place shall bring to any such Chief Constable any such Certificate, as aforesaid, as shall be given him by any Justice or Justices of the Peace of the proper County or Place, ascertaining how, and for what Rates and Allowances he shall be required to convey any Rogues or Vagabonds, as aforesaid, together with a Receipt or Note from the Constable or other Officer, to whom the Person or Persons so to be conveyed were delivered, and not otherwise, the said Chief Constable shall and may pay unto such Petty-Constable of other Officer the Rates and Allowances ascertained in and by such Certificate, and no more, taking from fuch Petty-Constable or other Officer such Certificate, and his Receipt for the same; which Certificate and Receipts the Chief Constable shall be allowed to discount, on his Account to be made with the Treasurer or Treasurers of the said County or Place respectively.

17. Provided always, and be it further Enacted, That in case any such Petty-Constable or other Officer shall counterfeit any such Certificate, Receipt or Note, or alter any Sums mentioned in fuch Certificate, or shall not really convey, or cause to be conveyed, the Person or Perfons thereby intended to be convey'd to the Place where, by this Act, he, the or they ought by fuch Constable or other Chief Officer to be conveyed, that in any of the faid Cases the faid Constable or other Officer shall forfeit the Sum of 20 1. over and above the Sum so fraudulently taken, one Moiety to the Poor of the Parish where fuch Offence is committed, the other Moiety to the Informer, to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, by Warrant from any Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County or Place where such Offence shall be committed.

18. And be it further Enreted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace to examine any Constable or other Officer upon his Oath (which Oath the said Justice or Justices are hereby authorized to administer) whether he did convey the Person or Persons whom he was oadered to convey by any Pass or Certificate, as aforesaid, and to whom he delivered such Person or Persons; and in case such Constable or other Officer shall refuse to be sworn, or in case upon his Examination it shall appear that he hath neglected his Duty, he shall lose such Allowance as by the faid Certificate he would have been otherwife entitled unto.

19. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforefaid, That the Parish or Place to which any Rogue or Vagabond shall be conveyed by Pass, as aforefaid, shall take care to employ in Work. or to place in some Workhouse or Almshouse, the Person or Persons so conveyed to them, until he, The, or they shall betake themselves to some Service, or other Imployment; and in case any fuch Person or Persons shall refuse to work, the Overfeers of the Poor of the same Parish or Place, or one of them, may cause such Person or Persons to be carried before some Justice of the Peace, in order to be fent to the House of Correction, there to be kept at hard Labour; and in case any Parish or Place shall not take care to employ, but shall encourage or voluntarily permit any fuch Person or Persons so conveyed to them by País, as aforesaid, to escape or wander about again, and the faid Person or Persons shall be after taken up again wandering and begging, or misordering him or herself in any other County or Parish, it shall and may be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the County where such Rogue or Vagabond shall be again apprehended. to compute what Charge the faid County shall be put to by the apprehending, punishing, or passing any such Rogue or Vagabond, and the Sum of Money so computed and ascertained, the faid Justice or Justices shall and may, by Warsant under his or their Hand and Seal, order to be levied upon any of the Constables, Churchwardens, or Overfeers of the Poor, fo in Default, by Distress and Sale of his or their Goods: or in case such Parish or Place that is in Default be in another County, then the Warrant ascertaining fuch Charge may be brought to fome Justice or Justices of the Peace of the same County, who shall and is hereby required to cause the same to be levied in manner aforesaid, and the Money so levied, shall be paid for the Use and Benefit of the County or Place where or by whom fuch Charge was expended; and the Contable or other Officer upon whom the faid Monies shall be levied, may put the same in his or their Rates, which shall be allowed by the Inhabitants of fuch Parish or Place; and likewise the Justices of the Peace of the County or Place, whither any fuch Rogue or Vagabond shall be conveyed and brought by Pass, as aforesaid, may at their general Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, to which such Pass is to be transmitted, as aforesaid, enquire of the Default or Neglect of any Officer or other Person of any Parish or Place, to which any Rogue or Vagabond shall be brought, as aforefaid, in permitting or encouraging his, her or their Escape or Departure, and may punish the Person offending according to the Nature and Merit of his Offence; and in case any Person shall be afterwards found again wandring and begging, or misordering him or herself, it shall and may be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace, upon Proof thereof before him or them, to fend fuch Person or Persons to the House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour till the next Quarter-Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the same County or Place; and in case such Person or Persons shall not then give Security for his Good Behaviour for one Year

Year then next enfuing, to be approved by the faid Juffices of the Peace at the faid Quarter-Seffions, the faid Justices may adjudge him or them to be dangerous and incorrigible Rogues, and order him or them to be punished accordingly.

20. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforefaid. That in cafe any Person or Perfons apprehended and brought before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, as aforesaid, shall, upon Examination, be found by his, her, or their own Confession, or by Oath of one or more credible Witnesses (which Oath such Justices or Justices are hereby enabled to administer) to have obtained no legal Settlement fince his or her Birth, and to have committed any of the Acts of Vagrancy mentioned in this Act, or to have used the Trade or Life of a common Beggar or a Vagabond, for the space of two Years then last past. although he had formerly a Settlement, or to be a dangerous and incorrigible Rogue within the Intent of this Law, It shall and may be lawful for fuch Justice or Justices of the Peace, instead of punishing or passing him, her, or them away, in the manner before directed, by Order under his or their Hands and Seals, to commit the Perfon or Persons so apprehended to the Custody and Power of him or them who procured fuch Apprehension, or in Case of his or their Refusal, to the Custody and Power of any other Person or Persons, Body Politick or Corporate, willing to receive him, her or them, as his or their Apprentice or Servant for the Space of feven Years thence next enfuing, and no longer; and the Person and Persons so committed shall be the Apprentice or Servant of him or them to whom he, she, or they shall be committed, during the faid faid space of seven Years, to all Intents and Constructions of Law whatsoever; and the Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to whose Custody and Power he, she, or they shall be so committed, shall and may detain, keep, employ, and fet to work, either within this Realm of Great Britain, or in any of Her Majesty's Plantations, or any British Factory or Factories beyond the Seas, the Person or Persons so committed to his or their Custody and Power, during the faid space of seven Years, and no longer; any Law, Custom or Statute to the contrary in any wife notwithstanding.

21. Provided always, That no fuch Person or Persons shall be transported beyond the Seas, until his, her, or their Master or Mistress shall become bound by Recognizance in the Penalty of 40 1. with Condition, that the Person or Persons so to be transported, shall be sent to, and employed in some of Her Majesty's Plantations, or in some British Factory or Factories, and there fupplied with Necessaries fitting and convenient, and at the end of the faid seven Years, or sooner, be absolutely discharged and set at Liberty, and in the mean time not be fold or disposed of to any Alien or Aliens whatfoever; which Recognizance any Justice or Justices of the Peace are hereby enabled to take, and shall transmit the fame to the next Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, to be holden for the same County, Riding, City, Borough, or Town-Corporate, there to be filed and kept on Record.

22. Provided any Person or Persons who shall think himself aggrieved by any such Order of any Justice or Justices of the Peace, may appeal to the next Quarter-Sessions of the County where fuch Order was made, and shall not be sent away or committed by Vertue of such Order, till such Quarter-Sessions, whose Determination therein shall be final, but may in the mean time be kept in the House of Correction of the same County or Place, if such Justice or Justices shall think it necessary.

23. And whereas many loofe, idle, and diforderly Persons, blind, lame, or pretending to be fo, or with distorted Limbs, or pretending fome Bodily Infirmity, place themselves to beg in Streets, Highways, or Passages, to the great Annoyance and Disturbance of Passengers, for want of due care in the Constable, or other Officers, in whose Precincts or Liberties such Perfons are suffered to beg; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any such Perfon shall be found begging, as aforesaid, in that part of Great Britain called England, Complaint thereof being made by two or more Inhabitants of the Parish, Town, or Place, to the Constable, or in his Absence, to the Headborough or Tythingman of the Precinct, Liberty or Place where fuch Person shall be found begging in such manner, as aforefaid, fuch Constable or other Officer, as aforesaid, shall, with all convenient Speed after such Complaint made, cause the said Person to be removed, and in case he or she shall refuse to be removed, or being removed, shall offend a second time, such Constable or other Officer shall cause such Person to be stripped naked from the Shoulders to the Waste, and whipped till his or her Body is bloody; and if fuch Constable or other Officer shall neglect or refuse to do, or cause the same to be done, Oath of fuch Neglect or Refusal being within 24 Hours made made by two or more credible Witnesses, before one or more of the Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, City, Town, or Place where such Person shall be sound begging, as aforesaid, (which Oath such Justice or Justices have hereby Power to administer) such Constable or other Officer, for every such Neglect or Refusal, shall forseit the Sum of 10 s. to the Use of the Poor of the Parish, Town or Place, where such Offence shall be committed, to be by Warrant under the Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals of such Justice or Justices, levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Offender, rendring the Overplus (if any be) to the Owner.

24. And whereas there are sometimes in Parishes, Towns and Places, Persons of little or no Estates, who by Lunacy, or otherwise, are furiously mad, and dangerous to be permitted to go abroad, and by the laws in being, the Juflices of Peace and other Officers have not Authority to restrain and confine them; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforefaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any two or more of the Justices of the Peace of any County, Town or Place in England, Wales, or Town of Bernick upon Tweed, where such Lunatick or mad Person shall be found, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, directed to the Constables, Churchwardens, and Overseers of the Foor of such Parish, Town or Place, or some of them, to cause fuch Person to be apprehended, and kept safely locked up, in fuch fecure Place within the County where such Parith or Town shall be, as such Justices shall, under their Hands and Seals, direct and appoint; and (if fuch Justices shall find it necessary) to be there chained, if the last legal Settlement of fuch Person shall be in any Parish, Town or Place within fuch County; and if fuch Settlement shall not be there, then such Person shall be fent to the Place of his or her last legal Settlement, as Vagrants by this Act are directed to be fent Whipping excepted) and shall be kept fafely locked up or chained, as aforefaid, and the Charges of keeping and maintaining fuch Person, during fuch Restraint (which shall be for and during fuch Time only as fuch Lunacy or Madshall continue) shall be fatisfied and paid by Order of two or more Justices of the Peace for the County, Town or Place where fuch Settlement shall be, out of the Estate of such Person, if fuch Person hathan Estate to pay and satisfie the fame, over and above what shall be sufficient to maintain his Wife and Children, if he hath any; and if he hath not fuch an Estate, then the Charges of keeping and maintaining such Person, during fuch Restraint, shall be satisfied and paid by fuch Ways and Means, as the Poor of tuch Parish, Town or Place, are by the Laws in being to be provided for.

Thing therein contained, shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to restrain or abridge the Prerogative of the Queen, or the Power or Authority of the Lord Chancellor, Lord-keeper, or Commissioners of the Great Seal of Great Britain, for the Time being, or of the Chancellor or Vice-Chancellor of the County-Palatine of Lancaster for the Time being, or of the Chamberlain or Vice-Chamberlain of the County-Palatine of Chester for the Time being, touching or concerning the Premisses; Any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary not with standing.

26. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in Case the Master of any Ship or Vessel, or other Person, having Command in the Voyage, shall bring into this Realm from Ireland, the Isle of Man, the Isles of Fersey, Guernsey, or Scilly, or any of the Foreign Plantations, any Rogue, Vagabond, or Beggar, or any Person or Persons likely to live by begging, being a Native of any the faid Islands or Plantations, and the Person or Persons, so brought over, shall be apprehended wandring and begging, or otherwise misordering him or her self, as aforefaid, fuch Master or Person having Command in the faid Voyage, shall forfeit the Sum of 5 1. for every Rogue, Vagabond or Beggar fo brought over, over and above fuch Sum of Money as shall be necessary to defray the Charges that any Constable or other Officer shall be put unto, by Means of apprehending and reconveying back the Perfon or Persons, so brought over; and that the Constable or other Officer of any Parish or Place, where any Person or Persons, so brought over shall be found wandring and begging, or misordering him or her felf, as aforefaid, may cause him, her, or them to be apprehended and openly whipped, and after carried and put on Board any Ship or Vessel, in order to be re-conveyed and set on Shore in the fame Island or Place from whence he, she, or they were brought, paying for the Passage back of such Person or Persons such Rate per Head, as the Justices of the Peace at their Quarter Sessions, shall from Time to Time, appoint, to the Master of the said Ship or Vessel for his Carriage back; and in case such Constable or other Officer, shall, upon Oath, make appear before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, for the fame County or Place, (which Oath fuch Justice is hereby impowered to administer) what Expence he hath been put to upon fuch Occasion, It shall and may be lawful for such Justice or Justices of the Peace, by order under his or their Hand and Seal, to direct the Payment of the Sum of Money so expended, as also of the said Penalty of 5 1. and in case such Master or other Person having Command of the said Ship or Vessel, shall refuse or neglect to pay the same Monies, so ordered to be paid upon Demand, it shall and may be lawful for such Justice or Justices, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the faid Ship or Veffel, or any Goods within the same, while found or remaining within the Power or Jurisdiction of such Justice or Justices; and if the faid Master of the said Ship or Vessel, shall be gone out of the Power or Jurisdiction of the faid Justice or Justices of the Peace, the faid Order of the faid Justice or Justices may be removed by Certiorari into Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench, and there filed on Record; and being so filed, the Judges of the said Court are hereby authorized and required to direct Process for the Staying and Arresting the said Ship or Vessel, and detaining the same, until the Monies mentioned in fuch Order, together with the Charges of iffuing and executing fuch Process, shall be fully satisfied, or otherwise to award Process for levying the said Money by Capias, Fieri-facias, or Elegit, against the Master or Owners of the faid Ship or Vessel, as the faid Court shall think most proper.

27. Provided always, That in Case such Masters or Owners of the said Ship or Vessel. or any of them, shall, in the faid Court of Queen's Bench, shew any probable ground of Grievance by the faid Order, he or they may be admitted by the faid Court to traverse the same Order. giving Security, by Recognizance or otherwise, in the Penalty of 50 1. to answer and satisfie the Costs and Charges of such Traverse, in case it shall be determined against him or them.

28. And whereas divers Vagrants have been conveyed from County to County, in order to be fent to Places in Ireland, the Isles of Man, Fersey, Guernsey, or Scilly (their last Legal Settlement) but for want of Authority to compel Mafters of Ships and Veffels to take them on Board thither, at reasonable Rates, they have been very chargeable to feveral Parishes, Towns and Places in England and Wales, where they have lain for Exportation; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Master and Masters of Ships and Vessels bound for Ireland, the Isles of Man, Fersey, Guernsey, or Scilly, shall, and they and each of them is and are hereby required, upon Warrant to him or them directed, under the Hand and Seal of a Justice of the Peace of the County, Town, or Place where fuch Ship or Veffel shall lie, to take on Board the fame fuch Vagrant or Vagrants, as shall be named and expressed in the faid Warrant, and convey him, her or them, to fuch Place in Ireland, the Isles of Man, Fersey, Guernsey, or Scilly, as such Ship or Vessel shall be bound to, or shall arrive at; and for the Charges thereof fuch Master shall take, and the Constable, or Person who serves him with the faid Warrant, shall pay him such Rate per Head, as the Justices of the Peace, at their Quarter-Seffions, fions, shall from Time to Time appoint, for every fuch Vagrant fo brought and delivered to him; and fuch Mafter shall and is hereby required, on the Back of the faid Warrant, to fign a Receipt for the Money so paid, and also for the Vagrant or Vagrants to brought and delivered: which Warrant, so endorsed, shall then be produced to the Justice of the Peace, who figned and fealed the fame; and upon his Allowance thereof under his Hand, the Money so paid shall be repaid by the County, in fuch Manner as by this Act the Money to be paid for conveying Vagrants from County to County is directed: and every Master of such Ship or Vessel neglecting or refufing to receive on Board, or to transport such Vagrant or Vagrants, or to endorse and sign such Receipt, as aforefaid, shall forfeit 5 1. to the Use of the Poor of the faid Parish, to be levied by Diffress and Sale of the faid Ship, or any Goods within the same, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any Justice of the Peace for the same County, City, or Town-Corporate, returning the Overplus (if any be) after the faid Penalty and Charges of levying the fame,

29. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Constable or other Officer shall sail of his Duty, in the apprehending, punishing, or conveying of Rogues and Vagabonds, or shall be otherwise desettive, remiss, or negligent in his Duty, or in case any Person or Persons shall disturb or hinder the Execution of this Ast, or shall rescous any Person apprehended, or be aiding or assisting to his or her Escape, and shall be thereof convicted, either upon the View of any Justice or Justices of the Peace, or by the Oath of one or more credible Witnesses, which Oath

the said Justice or Justices are hereby impowered to administer, the Person or Persons so offending for every such Offence shall forseit 20 s. to the Use of the Poor of the same Parish, to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offenders Goods, by Warrant from one or more Justices of the Peace for the same County, returning the Overplus (if any be) after the said Penalty and Charges of making and keeping the said Distress.

30. And be it enacted by the Authority afore-faid, That an Act made in the thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, Intituled, An Act for Punishment of Rognes, Vagabonds, and Sturdy Beggars, and another Act made in the first Year of the Reign of King James I. Intituled, An Act for the Continuance and Explanation of the same Stasute, and so much of another Act made in the seventh Year of the same Reign, Intituled, An Act for the Execution of divers Laws and Statutes heretofore made against Rognes, and Vagabonds, and Sturdy Beggars, and other lewed and idle Persons, as relates to the privy Search thereby directed to be made, shall be and are hereby repealed.

Thing therein contained, or any Authority thereby given, shall not in any wise extend to disinherit, prejudice, or hinder the Heirs or Assigns of John Dutton of Dutton, late of the County of Chester, Esq; deceased, their Heirs or Assigns, for, touching, or concerning any Liberty, Privilege, Preheminence, and Authority, Jurisdiction or Inheritance, which they, their Heirs or Assigns, now lawfully use, or have or lawfully may or ought to use, within the County Palatine of Chester, and the County of the City of Chester, or either of them, by reason of any ancient Charters of any Kings 192 Of Rogues and Vagrants. Ch. 9.

Kings of this Land, or by reason of any Prescription, or lawful Usage or Title whatsoever.

In the precedent Statute we may observe, the Title, the Preamhle, the Body of the Act, and the several Provisoes therein; which are the usual formal parts that compose our modern Acts of Parliament.

The Title thereof consists of three Parts, viz.

1st. For reducing Laws relating to Rogues, Vagabonds, &c. into one. And yet by Section 30. it appears that only two formal Acts, and part of a Paragraph in a third, are hereby repealed.

2dly. For more effectual punishing them, &c. and yet no express mention in the Act how Vagrants are to be punished, or distinguished from Rogues and Vagabonds; though by the Preamble of the Act, and comparing Sections 7, 20, and 28, a Difference seems intended.

3dly. And sending them whither by Law they ought to be sent. And this seems to be the principal Intention of making this Stat. for that the former Laws had not sufficiently provided touching passing or conveying Rogues and Vagabonds, as well as Vagrants.

For though Vagrants as well as Vagabonds, are such as wander about begging, &c. and both of them fall within the Definition sine Sede, Fide, Spe aut Re, yet here it seems, as if a Vagabond was intended one, whose Place of Settlement or Birth may be found on Emination, as is directed, Sect. 4. But a Vagrant is one, whose Settlement or Birth cannot be found to be within this Kingdom; and therefore such may be forced to serve Apprentices, and thereby acquire Settlement, or be transported out of the Kingdom. Vide Sect. 20, and 28, and the Stat. 11 W. 3. c. 18. and Anne, c. 14.

And that this or the like difference was intended, appears from the Preamble of the Act, which recites----Whereas many Parts of the Kingdom, (i. e. the Sea-Coasts, &c.) are oppressed by the usual Method of conveying Vagabonds or Beggars, &c. by having such Persons conveyed as Vagrants, who ought not so be: Which plainly declares, that Vagabonds ought not to be conveyed as Vagrants were.

For former Laws having directed that Vagrants should be whipp'd from Town to Town, and so carried from County to County, till their Place of Birth, &c. could be found, it became a usual Practice for ignorant Justices, Constables, &c. by a general Pasport, to convey Vagabonds and Beggars in like manner, which was a great Burthen and Oppression to the County, and occasioned the making of this Act, which has directed a particular Pasport for that purpose. Sect. 5.

And the Body of the Act in several Parts thereof, has not only ascertained how Rogues and Vagabonds shall be apprehended, committed, punished, and conveyed to their last legal Settlement, or Place of Birth, &c. as Sect. 3, 4, 5, &c. to Sect. 19. but also in Sect. 20. mentions Vagrants as having no legal Settlement; and orders such to be compelled to serve as Apprentices for seven Years, and may be sent to the Plantations. &c.

And Sect. 28. reines, Whereas divers Vagrants have been convent from County to County (compare this Sect. with the Words of the Preamble ante Sect. 1.) in order to be fent to Places in Ireland, &c. Their Places of Settlement being out of the Kingdom, it takes Order how they shall be fent this ther; and these two Particulars make up the principal Body of the Act.

Indeed Sect 23. contains a Direction how another kind of idle and disorderly Persons shall be punished, i. a. idle Persons, &c. and lame or blind, begging in Streets and Highways, &c. (The Description, Sect. 1: relating to such only as wander and beg at Houses, &c.) And Sect. 24 and 25, concerns the confining of Lunaticks and Mad People. But neither of these are denominated Rogues, Vagabonds or Vagrants by the Act, nor can they be so esteemed within the Intent or Meaning thereos.

Another Part of the Act contained in Sect. 26, 27. directs how Masters and Owners of Ships importing Rogues from Ireland, &c. shall be distrained or prosecuted for the same. But that not appearing to be any of the principal Branches of the Act, not to come within the first Intention or Design of the Law-makers, I shall wave it at present, and proceed to consider some of the principal Sections or Clauses therein.

[Sect. 1.] Gives a Description of the several Species of Persons who are to be deem'd Rogues and Vagabonds within this Act: And they are hereby distributed under seven particular Classes or Divisions, viz.

Patent-Gatherers, mandring for or Collectors for that Purpose.

Prisons, &c.

Fencers, Bearwards, Common Players of Inter-though not manludes, Minstrels, dring, &c. and Juglers.

or

Ch. 9. Of Rogues and Vagrants. 195
3. Pretended Syptians, Habit or Form.
Physiognomy, or like crafty Palmestry, Science, or, like phane

4. Pretenders to Fortune-telling, or, like phantaftical Imaginations.

5. Using any subtil Craft or unlawful Games on Plays.

6. All able-bodied Persons, who run away, and leave their Wives or Children to the Parish, and not having otherwise to maintain themselves, use loitering, and resuse to work for the usual and common Wages.

(Note, This Description is very perplexed, and the several Copulatives therein render it very uncertain.)

7. And all other idle Person wandring abroad and begging (except Soldiers, Mariners, Oc. licensed, Oc. Vide the Act.)

Note, The said Exception in the Act can refer to this last part of the Description only, viz. All other idle Persons, &c. And to bring any Person within this Description, there must be both a wandring, and also begging.

or travel without such Testimonial, &c. as is mentioned in this Exception: But then they must take care they do not beg (at Peoples Houses) or come under any of the former parts of the above Description; in which Cases such a Testimonial, &c. would not protect them; for it cannot give them a License to do a Thing expressly prohibited by the Act; but with such a Testimonial they may beg and wander, but not out of the direct Way.

Note

Note, There are several Parts of the Description of a Rogue or Vagabond in the Statute of 39 Eliz. (hereby repealed,) but omitted in this; particularly (all Persons calling themselves Scholars, going about begging) Vide the taid Act and Quere, If the said Omission will not be one Means of introducing the Order of Mendicants. &c.

[Sect. 2.] Here the Descriptions which in the former Section were confined to wandring, seem to be enlarged and rendred less certain by adding the Words, and begging or misordering, &c. But no doubt these Words shall be taken distributively, reddendo singula singulis; so that wandring, begging and misordering, &c. must respectively refer to the several Species of Rogues, &c. as they are above described.

For as wandring is here express'd to be the sole efficient Cause why pretended Patent-Gatherers and Collectors for Prisons, &c. are to be deemed Rogues and Vagabonds within this Act, so both wandring and begging are necessary to bring all idle Persoos under that Description: And the Word misordering must relate to all those Parts of the Description from N°. 2. to N°. 5. inclusive; as Fencers, Bearwards, &c. All which are Rogues within this Act, because they are included in these Words, misordering themselves as aforesaid.

The Manner of apprehending Rogues and Vagabonds being particularly directed in this Section, the Direction ought to be strictly pursued, as that it be done by Warrant or Charge from a Justice. Tis true, the Constable being an Officer at Common Law, may apprehend without such Warrant or Charge. But any other Inhabitant (in this Section mentioned) must, I take

Ch. 9. Of Rogues and Vagrants. 197 it, have an Authority in Writing from the Juffice.

But, Note, Inhabitants after such Authority received, must obey it, under the Forseiture of 10 s. Yet a Quare may be here made, whether such Forseiture can be, or such Inhabitant, or the Constable, are obliged to apprehend, in the Case of idle Persons, but only where such Persons is feen to refort to some House to beg?

And I conceive they cannot. For though the Constable or any Inhabitant should see any idle, loitering or disorderly Person begging or gathering Alms in the Highways, Streets or Fields, &c. in such Cases they may refuse to apprehend, without incurring the Forseiture, notwithstanding the Warrant or Command of a Justice. And for such begging in the Highways, Streets, &c. particular Directions are given by another Branch of this Act, viz. Sect. 23. and therefore cannot be intended to be included in this Clause.

Besides, by the following Words of this Section, a Reward is given to any Person that shall apprehend a Rogue, &c. which seems intended to take place where the Forseiture could not; and is to be paid by the Constable, &c. where such Rogue, &c. last was found begging, &c. and pass'd unapprehended, to the Person apprehending----Which Words begging, and passing unapprehended can respect only that part of the Description of a Rogue, which makes both begging and wandring necessary to his being fo.

And therefore the Penalty of 20 s. in case of the Refusal or Delay of the Constable, &c. to pay the Reward of 2 s. to the Person apprehending on Demand, can only be in those Cases where there is both a wandring and a begging.

K 3 [Sett. 3.]

[Sect. 4.] After such Rogues, &c. are apprehended, either by the Constable or Inhabitants, as Sect. 2. or upon a privy Search, as Sect. 3. they are to be examined by some Justice or Justices, who upon Oath of the Parties and others, or by other Ways they shall think proper, are to inform themselves of their Condition, Circumstance, Place of Abode and Birth: This Examination is to be put in Writing, and signed by the Party examined, and transmitted to the next Sessions, there to be filed and kept on Record. And if it appears that such Person has gained any legal Settlement, he shall be sent thither in the same manner as former Laws direct, touching other Persons likely to become chargeable to a Parish.

But if no such legal Settlement can be found, then the Justice or Justices are by a Pass directed and penned according to the Form in this Act prescribed, to cause him to be conveyed to the Place of his Birth, if above sourteen, or if under, and has a Father and Mother, to their Place of Residence; or if that cannot be known, to the Parish or Town where he last was sound begging or misordering himself, and pass'd unapprehended, to be there delivered to the Constable, &c.

of fuch Parish or Place.

[Sect. 5.] Contains the Form of the Pass, whereby such Rogues, &c. are to be conveyed, which being particularly prescribed, ought to be expresly observed according to the Form or Tenour thereof.

Sett.

[Sett. 6.] Is a Proviso for whipping any Perfon having a legal Settlement, that wanders and begs, and (it should be or) misorders himself as aforesaid: or any other Person apprehended as a Rogue, &c. before he be sent by such Pass, if the Justice thinks proper; or for sending him to the House of Correction at the Justices Discretion.

But here note, where such corporal Punishments, &c. are to be left at the Justices Discretion, they would do well to be cautious in the Exercise of such Powers; for such Powers are to be strictly limited, as being contrary to the Common Law; and the Justices Warrant or Order, if illegal, will not secure the Officer that executes it, from being liable to an Action.

For the Office of Justices of Peace being unknown to the Common Law, they can have no Authority, but what is given them by the plain and express Words of a Statute. And such Statutes as give them any Authority, are to be strictly expounded, and are in no case to be taken by Implication or Construction in sayour of any Authority which is not warranted by the Common Law.

There needs little to be faid on the twelve following Sections, the fame being plain and express in themselves. And as for the Sections from 23 to 30 inclusive, I have already said something to them in the Notes on the Body of this Act.

But touching Sect. 31. I shall here present the Reader with a Piece of History of good Authority, and some Records, in order to explain the Matter contained therein, viz.

Randal Blandeville (not Glanville, as some would have it) Earl of Chester, after many Victories obtained against the Welsh, was, about the K A End

End of the Reign of Richard 1. circumvented by them, and forced to retreat to the Castle of Rothelent in Flintshire, where they straitly besieged He presently sends to his Constable of Cheshire, viz. one Roger Lacy, who for his fierce Spirit was furnamed Hell, ordering him to bring what Forces he could presently get together for his Relief; whereupon, it being Midsummer-day, and a great Fair then held at Cheffer, Roger gets rogether a tumultuous Rout of Fidlers, Players, Coblers, and debauched Persons, both Men and Women, and marches immediately towards the Earl; and the Welfb perceiving a great Multitude coming, raifed the Siege and fled.

The Earl being thus freed, comes back with his Constable to Chester, and by a Charter gives him Power over all the Fidlers, Letchers, Whores and Shooemakers in Chefter, in Reward and Memory of this Service, to him and his Heirs.

Afterwards about the End of King John, or beginning of Henry III. Roger Lacy being dead. his Son John by Deed grants to one Hugh Dutton, his Steward, and to his Heirs, the Rule and Authority of all the Letchers and Whores in all Cheshire in these Words : Sciant prasentes & futuri quod ego Johannes Conflabularius Cestria dedi & concessi & hac prasenti Charta mea confirmavi Hugont de Dutton, & Haredibus suis Magistratum omnium Leccatorum & Meretricum totius Cestria, sic ut liberius illum Magistratum teneo de Comite, salvo Jure meo mihi & Haredibus meis. His Testibus, &c. By which Saving, the Constable reserved to himself and his Heirs, the Authority over the Shoemakers, but the Authority over Fidlers and Minstrels was pass'd to Dutton, and his Heirs, as neceffary Concomitants with Whores and Rogues. But

But Time hath somewhat moderated this Cuflom; for though the Grant to Durton mentions Letchers and Whores, yet the Privilege and Cufrom used and claimed of late, has been only over common Fidlers and Minstrels of Chefter and Cheshire, which Privilege and Authority is enjoyed by the Heirs of Dutton to this Day; who in Memory thereof keep a yearly Court at Chefter on Midfummer or St. John's Day, being Chefter Fair, and in a folemn Manner ride attended through the City to St. John's Church, with all the Minstrelfy of the whole County playing before them, and then at the Court renew their Licenses yearly. For to this Purpose a Court is alfo then held, where all the Fidlers and Minstrels of the City and County are to attend and play before the Lord of Dutton, and none ought touse their Minstrelfy, either within the City or County of Cheshire, but by an Order and License : of that Court under the Hand and Seal of the faid Lord or his Steward.

And Note, In 14 H. 7. a Quo Warranto was brought against Lawrence Dutton of Dutton, Esq; to know why he claimed, That all Fidlers and Minstrels of Cheshire and the City of Chester, should meet before him at the said City yearly on St. John Baptist's Day, each Fidler to give him four Bottles of Wine and a Launce, and every Minstrel to pay to him 4d. And every Whore in Cheshire, and in the City of Chester, Officium snum exercente, 4d. to which he pleaded Prescription.

And whereas by the Statute of 39 Eliz. cap. A. Fidlers and Minstrels are declared to be Rogues; yet by a special Proviso in that Statute, and in the Statute of 1 fac. I. an Exception is made of those those in Chester and Cheshire, that shall be licensed by John Dutton of Dutton, his Heirs or Assigns. And those Statutes being repealed by the 30th Section of this, therefore, the Right of the Heirs and Assigns of the said John Dutton is preserved by this Section, which is transcribed verbatims from the like Clauses in 39 Eliz. and 1 Jac. I So that the Fidlers and Minstrels of Cheshire, it licensed by the Heirs or Assigns of Dutton, are no Rognes or Vagabonds within this Act, tho they wander, Oc. Sed vide 43 Eliz. c. 9. Sect. 27.

other than such as shall be authorized by Noblemen, under their Hands and Seals; All Jugglers, Tinkers, Pedlars, and Petty-Chapmen wandering abroad; All Labourers which wander and refuse to work for Wages reasonably tax'd, having no Living otherwise to maintain themselves; All Persons deliver'd out of Gaols, which beg for their Fees, or otherwise do travel begging; All which wander abroad begging, pretending Loss by Fire, or otherwise; And all such Persons (not being Felons) wandering, and pretending themselves to be Egyptians, shall be adjudged Rogues, Vagabonds, and sturdy Beggars.

III. If any fuch Vagabond shall be taken begging, wandering, or misordering him or herself, he or the, by the Appointment of any Justice of Peace, Constable, Headborough, or Tything-man there, (the two last being assisted by the Minister, and one other of the Parish) shall be stripped naked from the Middle upwards, openly whipped till their Body be bloody, and forthwith fent the next Way from Parish to Parish, by the Officers of each Parish, towards the Place of their Birth: But if it cannot be known, then towards the Place where they dwelt, by the Space of one whole Year before fuch Punishment; and if that cannot be known, then to the Town thro' which they last pass'd without Punishment; and if it cannot be discovered where they were born, or last dwelt, as aforesaid, then are they to be conveyed by the Officer there to the House of Correction, or common Gaol of the County, to be employed in Work, or placed in some Service, and so to continue by the Space of one Year; or in case they be not able in Body, that Town

Town is to keep them till they may be placed in some Alms-house within the same County.

IV. After which Whipping, the Vagabond shall have a Testimonial under the Hand and Seal of the said Justice, Constable, Head-Officer, Tything-man and Minister, or any two of them, testifying the Day and Place of his Punishment, the Place to which he is to be conveyed, and the Time limited for his Passage thither; which Time, if by his own Desault he exceeds, he shall from Time to Time incur the like Punishment, till he arrive at the Place limited; the Substance of which Testimonial shall be registred by the said Minister, in a Book provided for that purpose, in Pain of 5 s.

V. If any fuch Rogue feem dangerous, or will not be reformed, two luttices of the Peace, (one of the Quorum) thall commit him to the House of Correction; and if at the next Quarter-Seffions. by the more part of the Justices there, he shall not be thought fit to be delivered he shall by them be banish'd, and at the Charge of that County. shall be conveyed to fuch Parts beyond the Sea. as shall, by fix or more of the Privy Council for that Purpose be assign'd, whereof the Lord Keeper or Treasurer to be one; otherwise adjudg'd to the Gallies of the Realm, as the faid Juffices thall think fit : And if a Rogue so banish'd return without Licence, he shall suffer as a Felon, to be try'd in the County where he shall be apprehended.

VI. If a Constable, Headborough, or Tythingman, be found negligent in the due Execution of this Act, they shall forfeit 10 s. for every Default; and none shall make Rescous against any Officer, Ch. 10. Refolutions of the Judges thereupon. 233 or hinder the Execution of this Law, in Pain of 51, and to be bound to the Good Behaviour.

VII. None shall transport such a Rogue out of Ireland, Scotland, or the Iste of Man, (being born in any of these Places) in Pain to forfeit 20 s. to the Use of the Poor where he lands: And if any then shall be hereafter found in England or Wales, they shall suffer Punishment, and be conveyed the next Way home, as aforesaid, or (in ease they came by Sea) to the Place where they landed, from whence they are to be transported, at the Charge of that County, to the Place from whence they came.

VIII. No impotent poor Person shall pass to the Bath or Buxton, without being licensed to pass, by two Justices of Peace where they dwell, and provided with Relief, both for their Journey and Abode there, and shall also return within the Time limited by their Licence, in Pain to be reputed and punished as Rogues: And the City of Bath, or Town of Buxton, shall not be chargeable with any fuch.

IX. Justices of the Peace of the Counties shall not intermeddle in Cities or Corporations, but only the Officers of the same, who shall have like Power there, as the said Justices have in Counties.

X. This Act shall not extend to restrain the Power which the City of London hath in the Government of St. Thomas's Hospital in Somtwark, or to prejudice any Jurisdiction or Inheritance of John Dutton of Dutton, in the County of Chester, Esquire.

XI. The Forseitures and Fines which shall accrue by this Act (other than that above otherwise limited) shall be employ'd for the Mainte-

234 Statutes relating to the Poor, and Ch. 10. nance of Houses of Correction, or the Relief of the Poor where the Offence shall be committed, at the Discretion of the said Justices of Peace, and may be levied by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of two Justices of Peace, by Distress and Sale of Goods. And here the Confession of the Offender, or Proof by two Witnesses before two such Justices, shall be sufficient Conviction.

XII. Two Justices of Peace (one of the Quorum) shall have full Power to hear and determine all Cautes which may come in Question by reason of this Act.

XIII. The Lord Chancellor or Keeper for the Time being shall have Power to make Commissioners, to enquire of Money given towards the Erection or Maintenance of Houses of Correction, Stocks for the Poor, or other such like Uses.

XIV. A Seafaring Man suffering Shipwreek, not having wherewithal to relieve himself, and having a Testimonial under some Justice of Peace his Hand and Seal near the Place where he landed, declaring the Time and Place of his Landing, the Place of his Dwelling or Birth, unto which he is to pass, and the Time limited for his Passage, may in the direct Way home, and within the Time so limited for his Passage, ask and receive necessary Relief without incurring the Penalties of this Act.

XV. This Act shall not extend to Children under seven Years old, nor to Glass-men, which travel without begging, by Licenses under the Hands and Seals of three Justices of Peace (one of the Quorum) of the County thro' which they travel.

Ch. 10. Resolutions of the Judges ther cupon. 235

XVI. Stat. 39 Eliz. 17. Wandering Soldiers and Mariners, and all others wandering as Soldiers or Mariners, which will not settle themselves to work, or have not a Testimonial under the Hand of some one Justice of Peace near the Place of their Landing, setting down the Place where they landed, the Place whither they are to pass, and the Time of their Passage; or having a Testimonial, exceed the Time therein limited above sourteen Days, or counterseit a Testimonial, or produce one which they know to be counterseit; shall in all these Cases suffer as Felons, without Benefit of Clergy.

XVII. Justices of Assize, Gaol-delivery, and of Peace, in their Sessions, have Power to proceed against these Offenders, as in case of Felony, without Clergy; unless some sufficient Man (allowed by the Justices) will enter into Recognizance of 10 l. to the Queen, to retain the Offender for one whole Year, and to bring him to the next Sessions of Peace, and Gaol-Delivery after the Year ended. And if he within the Year depart that Service without Licence, he shall afterwards fuffer as a Felon without Clergy.

XVIII. Soldiers and Mariners, which fall fick in their Passage home, shall be excused, the they exceed the Time limited in their Testimonial, so that they perform this Act in convenient Time after their Recovery.

XiX. If when they come home they cannot get Work, the two next Justices (upon their Complaint) shall take Order, that they may be provided of Work, or otherwise shall tax the whole Hundred for their Relief, until Work may be had.

XX. The Soldier or Mariner (licensed by a Justice of Peace to whom he shall make his Poverty known) having not wherewith to bear his Charges home, may ask and take Relief, so it be in his direct Way home, and within the Time limited by his Licence.

XXI. These Offences shall cause no Corruption of Biood.

XXII. Stat. 1. Jac. 7. Noble Personages shall authorize none to go wandering abroad; and Glass-men shall be reputed and used as Rogues, notwithstanding the Statute of 39 Eliz. 4.

XXIII. Instead of banishing an incorrigible Rogue, or committing him to the Gallies, (as was ordained by 34 Eliz. 4) he shall in open Selsions be branded in the left Shoulder with a Burning Iron, having a great Roman R upon it as broad as a Shilling, and from thence shall be sent to the Place of his last Dwelling; if that cannot be known, to the Place of his Birth: After which Time, if he offend again, he shall suffer as a Felon, without Benefit of Clergy.

XXIV. Every Person that seeth or knoweth any Rogue to beg, shall convey, or cause him to be conveyed, to the next Constable or Tythingman, in Pain of 10 s. to be levy'd and employ'd as the Forseitures of 39 Eliz. 4. and in Default thereof, then by the Lord of the Leet, or his Officer, in like Manner as the Persons authoriz'd by the said Statute should have levy'd and employ'd the same. And here also, if the Constable or Tything-man do not punish him according to that Statute, he shall forseit 20 s. to be also levy'd and employ'd as by the same Statute is appointed.

Ch.10. Resolutions of the Judges thereupon.237

By Statute 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 18. 'tis Enacted,

I. That if any Vagabond, Beggar, &c. be brought to any Constable, or other Officer, with a Pass, or other Writing, to be relieved or conveyed; such a Vagabond, &c. shall be taken by the Constable before the next Justice of Peace, who shall carefully examine such Persons, and, as the Case requires, either send them to the House of Correction, or to such Town of the next County as he shall think most proper, giving the Constable a Certificate of the Persons so ordered to be punished or conveyed, with the Manner how and when, and whence conveyed, and with what Assistance.

II. And the faid Justices shall tax the Allowance to the Constable on the Back of such Certificate, which being delivered to the chief Constable, he is to pay it out of the Gaol and Marshalsea-Money, delivering the Receipt for it to the Treasurer of the County, who shall discount the same, and be allowed it on his Treasurer's Account: And if the Gaol and Marshalsea-Money have not a Surplus, the Justices at the Quarter-Sessions shall raise the Money as they do for Gaols and Bridges, and pay the chief Constable a Quarter's Payment before-hand for the said Purposes.

III. But the Petty-Constables shall not charge the Place, Go. for such Relief or Conveyance.

IV. Constables neglecting their Duty, or to apprehend such Vagabonds or wandering Beggars, shall forfeit 20 s. one Fourth to the Informer, and three Fourths to the Poor, to be levy'd 238 Statutes relating to the Poor, and Ch.10. by Warrant of any Justice of Peace on the Oath of one Witness.

V. This Act to continue for three Years from the 24th of June, 1700. and thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament.

VI. The feveral Ridings, Divisions of Counties, Liberties and Towns Corporate, shall be taken as Counties at large in the Execution of this Act.

VII. A Clause touching the Hospital of Trinity-House in Kingston upon Hull. Vide the Statute.

The Resolutions of the Judges concerning Rogues, &c. set forth in the second Book of Mr. Lambard, Chap. 7. p. 207, &c. To which the Lord Coke, in 2 Instit. 735. doth refer, which Mr. Lambard there saith were ascribed to His Majesty's Justices at Westminster.

Thus (faith he) they stand in my Copy.

I. A Rogue affirmeth, That he was born in such a Town in such a County; then ought he to be sent thither, if it may not otherwise appear that he was born elsewhere: And if he were not born there in Truth, that he is to be said an incorrigible Rogue, and is to be sent thence to the House of Correction in the County to which he is sent; and if there be none there, then to the Gaol, until the next Sessions, there to be dealt with according to the Statute.

II. The

Ch. 10. Resolutions of the Judges thereupon. 239

II. The same Course is to be observed, if it appear not where he was born, or if he untruly affirm, that he was last dwelling in such a Town in such a County, by the space of a Year, and was not.

III. If the Husband and Wife have a House, and the Husband or Wife rogue about, they ought to be sent to the Town where that House is: And fo of an Inmate.

IV. The Wife and Children (under seven Years of Age) being vagrant, must go and be plac'd with the Husband. If the Husband be dead, then with the Wise where she was born or dwelt: And the vagrant Children (above seven Years of Age) must be sent to the Place of their Birth: And if the vagrant Parents with their Children (under seven Years) be placed at the Place of Birth of their Parents, or at the Place of last Dwelling (as the Case shall fall out) if afterwards the Parents or either of them die, or run away, yet the Children once settled must remain there still, and may not be sent to their Place of Birth, though after they grow above the Age of seven Years.

V. The Wise being a vagrant Rogue, ought to be sent to the Husband, tho he be but a Servant in another Town.

VI.If the Rogue whose Place of Birth or Dwelling cannot be known, hath a Wise, and Children under seven Years of Age, they must go with the Husband to the Place where they were last wilfully suffered to pass without Punishment; where the Children must be relieved by the Work of their Parents, tho the Parents be committed to the House of Correction.

240 Statutes relating to the Poor, and Ch.10.

VII. If any (not being Rogues) shall travel with their Children through a Town, and the Father or Mother die, or run away, the Town is not bound to keep them where they die, nor to send them away, but only in Charity, except they become wandering Beggars.

VIII. If the Parents be able to work, and may have Work, they are to find their Children by their Labour, and not the Parish; but if they be overburthen'd with Children, it shall be a very good Way to procure some of them to be plac'd Apprentices according to the Statute.

IX. No Man is to be put out of the Town where be dwelleth, nor to be fent to their Place of Birth (or last Habitation), but a vagrant Rogue, nor to be found by the Town, except the Party be impotent, but ought to set themselves to Labour, if they be able, and can get Work; if they cannot, the Overseers must set them to Labour: And so of them that have or shall have Houses, when their Estates be expired, and Servants whose Time of Service is ended, tho they cannot get Houses: For they must provide themselves Houses a-new, if they be not impotent.

X. Such Persons as be of any Parish, and have able Bodies to work, and be no Wanderers abroad out of the Parish, though they refuse to work at such Wages as are tax'd (or commonly given) in those Parts, are notwithstanding not to be sent to the Place of their Birth, or last Dwelling, by the Space of a Year, but to the House of Correction, upon Consideration had of both the Statutes of the Poor and Rogues. But if they have any lawful Means to live by, tho' they be ot

Ch. 10. Resolutions of the Judges thereupon. 241 of able Bodies, and refuse to work, yet are they not to be fent to the House of Correction.

XI. Such as will remove or put any out of their Parish that be not to be put out, this is against the Statute concerning the Relief of the Poor, and finable: And if any have been fo fent, they may be fent back again.

XII. If any be fent to a Town whereto he ought to be fent, and is refused, (being a sturdy or an impotent Rogue,) the Persons resuling shall forfeit five Pounds; and he that is fo to be fent, is to be offered to the Churchwardens and Overfeers.

XIII. To fend the Rogues by a General Paffport, without conveying them from Parish to Parish, is a Let to the conveying of Rogues according to the Statute, and so a Forseit of five Pounds upon them. And to go with fuch a Passport, is but still to continue a Rogue, to be punished by Whipping,

XIV. If the Officer will not receive a Rogue, to convey him to the Place where he was born (or dwelt) this is a Forfeiture of five Pounds in the Officer, that shall not receive the Party to convey him or her over.

XV. None may be suffered to take Relief at any Man's Door, tho' within the same Parish, unless it be by the Order of the Overseers, according to the Statute; neither may any be fuffer'd to beg by the Highways, though in their own Parish.

XVI. By this Word [Parents] is understood a Father or a Grandfather, Mother or Grandmother, being Persons able.

242 Statutes relating to the Poor, and Ch. 10.

XVII. Within the Word [Children] is included any Child or Grandchild, being able. Vide Stat. 43 Eliz. c. 2.

XVIII. Parsons or Vicars, &c. be bound (as Inhabitants) to the Relief of the Poor, as well as others that inhabit within the Parish.

XIX. Every one that hath Tithes impropriate, Coal-mines, or Lands in manual Occupation, &c. is chargeable; and fo for fuch as have faleable Woods, proportioning the same to an annual Benefit.

Other Resolutions of the Justices of the Assizes, 1633. Set at large in Dalton's Justice of the Peace, last Edit. 162, &c. to which this Treatise and others oftentimes refer.

I. Of inforcing Persons able to take Apprentices.

R. THAT the Statute of 43 Eliz. which faith, That Churchwardens and Overseers of the Parish shall put out Children to be Apprentices, necessarily implieth, that such as are fit must receive Apprentices; and the putting out poor Children to be Apprentices, is one of the best Ways for the providing for the Poor.

II. Of giving Money with Apprentices.

R. There is no Necessity that Money must be given, but that must be lest to the Discretion of the Churchwardens and Overseers, all Circumstances of Age and Ability being consider'd; and if they cannot agree with the Party, then the Justices of Peace near adjoining, or, in their Default, of the Sessions of Peace, are to determine these Controverses.

III. What

to the Selfions, on Alliver:

244 Statutes relating to the Poor, and Ch. 10.

III. What Persons are bound to entertain Apprentices.

R. Every Man who by Calling or Profession, or Manner of Living, that entertaineth, and must have Use of other Servants of the like Quality, must entertain such Apprentices, wherein Discretion must be given upon due Consideration of Circumstances.

But Note, This is fince otherwise adjudg'd.

IV. Whether a wealthy private Person may be insore'd to take such an Apprentice?

R. For the receiving of such Apprentices, the Answer may be referred to the Question next before: But out of Doubt, every such Person must contribute to the Charge, as to other Charges for the Provision for the Poor.

V. When such Apprentices may be put unto other Parishes?

K. The Justices may provide Masters for them in other Parishes within the same Hundred; if the same Hundred be not able, then out of that Hundred in the rest of that County, as for other Provision for the Poor, which must be at a Quarter-Sessions.

VI. Of Persons refusing to take such Apprentices.

R. If any refuse, let such a one be bound over to the Sessions, or Assizes; if he refuse to give such Bond, let him be sent to the Gaol, there to remain until he shall give such Bond.

VII. What

Ch. 10. Refolutions of the Judges thereupon. 245

VII. What if he shall refuse at the Sessions, and what if the Parents refuse, &c.

R. If at the Sessions or Assizes such a one resuseth to take an Apprentice, and his Excuse be not allow'd, it is sit he be bound to the Good Behaviour; and it will be a good Course to indict such a Resuser for a Contempt, and thereupon to sine and imprison him: If he resuse to be bound to the Good Behaviour, let him be imprison'd till he will; and the King's Book of Orders directs, That such be bound with good Sureties to appear at the Council-Board: And if the Parents of such poor Children resuse to suffer their Children to be bound Apprentices, or being bound entice them away, themselves not being able to maintain them, let them be committed to the House of Correction.

XII. Of the Settlement of a Woman gotten with Child.

R. The Place where such a Woman was lawfully settled, is the Direction in this Case, not where she was begotten with Child.

XIII. A Woman gotten with Child, if her Master is to provide for her till her Delivery?

R. If the Master has legally discharg'd his House of such a Servant, he is no more bound to provide for her than any other.

XIV. Whether the Tenants in ancient Demesne within a Parish shall contribute with the Guildable for Relief of maimed Soldiers, &c.

R. The Statute doth not distinguish between the Ancient Demesne and the Guildable: In these Cases, Ubi lex non distinguit, ibi nec nos distinguimus.

R. Such Persons being out of Service, and not having visible Means of their own to maintain themselves without their Labour, and resusing to serve as an hired Servant by the Year, may be bound over to the next Sessions or Asszes, and to be of the Good Behaviour in the mean Time, or may be sent to the House of Correction.

XVIII. Taxes for the Poor, how to be made according to the Statute.

R. The Land within each Parish is to be tax'd to the Charges, in the first Place equally and indifferently; but there may be an Addition for the personal visible Ability of the Parishioners within the Parish, according to good Discretion, wherein if there be any mistaking, the Sefsions, &c. or the Justices, may judge between them.

XIX. Whether Shops, Salt-pits, Profits of a Market; &c. be taxable to the Poor, as well as Lands, Coal-Mines, &c. express'd in the Statute 43 Eliz.

R. All Things which are real, and a yearly Revenue, must be tax'd to the Poor.

XX. Tax for the County-stock, Gaol, and House of Correction, how to be made.

R. If the Statutes in particular Cases give no special Direction, it is good Discretion to go according to the Rate of the Taxation for the Poor; but when the Statutes themselves give Direction, follow that.

248 Statutes relating to the Poor, and Ch.10.

XXI. Tax for the Charges of Petty-Constables.

R. It is fit to relieve the Constable and Tything-men, in such Sort as hath been used in the several Places where they live.

XXII. Concerning a Justice's discharging a Woman-Servant with Child out of her Service.

R. If a Woman, being with Child, procure herself to be retained with a Master, who knoweth nothing thereof, this is a good Cause to discharge her from her Service; and if she be gotten with Child during her Service, it is all one: But the Master in neither Case must turn away such a Servant of his own Authority. But if her Term be ended, or she lawfully discharged, the Master is not bound to provide for her; but 'tis a Missortune laid upon the Parish, which they must bear, as in other Cases of casual Impotency.

XXIII. Baftard-Children, how to be dispos d.

R. The Bastard Child must be placed with the Mother, so long as it is within the Quality or Condition of a Nurse-Child, which shall be till seven Years of Age, and then it is sit to be sent to the Place of its Birth to be provided for, the Mother or reputed Father not being able. And the Parish where the Child is born shall not be forced to contribute to the Charge as long as the Mother lives, and the Child be under seven Years old.

XXIV. If illegal Unfettlement is to be allowed?

R. If a Man or Woman having House or Habitation in one Parish be thrust out, this is an Illegal Unfettling, which the Law forbiddeth; for none must be inforc'd to turn Vagrant: And fuch one must be return'd to the Place where he or the was last lawfully fettled, and the Child also born in the Time of this Distraction.

XXV. Upon an Apprentices being put out in another Parish, where the Master dies.

R. Servants and Apprentices are by Law fetled in that Parish; and if they become imporent there, the Parish must abide the Adventure after their Term or Time of Service be lawfully ended.

XXVI. What is accounted a lawful Settling in a Parish, and what not.

R. That every one who is fettled as a Native, Housholder, Sojourner, an Apprentice, or Servant, for a Month at the least, without a just Complaint made to remove him or her, shall be held to be fettled.

Note, This is fince alter'd by feveral Statutes.

XXVII. Upon a Rogue's misconsessing the Place of his Birth or Habitation, and being whipp'd, and Sent to S. his Birth is there known to be as W.

R. In this Case it is fit to fend such a Rogue to the Place of his Birth; for this at S. is but a mistaken, and no legal Settling.

A Certificate for obtaining a Brief upon a Loss by Fire.

To the Right Honourable William Lord Cowper, Baron of Wingham, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain.

THE His Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the County of S. do certifie your Lordship, That at His Majesty's Court of General Quarter-Seffions of the Peace holden at M. for the faid County of S. on Monday the 9th of March last paft, it did then and there appear unto us the faid Justices sitting in open Court, as well upon the Oaths of A. B. and C. D. Carpenters. and C. D. and E. F. Bricklayers, as also upon the Oaths of G. H and J. K. two of the most substantial Inhabitants of the Town of W. within the faid County of S. That on Monday the 28th of February 12st past, between eight and nine of the Clock in the Evening of the same Day, by Cafualty and great Mischance, a sudden and terrible Fire did break forth at the faid Town of W. which by reason of the Fierceness thereof (within the Space of fix Hours) burnt down and confum'd the Dwelling houses, Barns, Stables, Cow-houses, and Out-houses of above ten of the Inhabitants of the faid Town of W. together with their Corn, Hay, and most of their several Goods and Househo'd-stuff, to the great Danger of the Bodies of them and their Families, and to their exceeding great Loss and Impoverishment: And that the whole Loss sustain'd thereby did amount to 3000l. and and upwards; so that the said Inhabitants with their Families are totally impoverished, and are no Ways able to subsist, but must necessarily perish, unless they shall be timely relieved by the charitable Benevolence of well-disposed People. And we do farther certifie, That we have taken Bond of several of the Inhabitants, that no Part of the Money collected shall be applied to the Benefit of any Landlords, or other Person of Ability, either in rebuilding his House, or otherwise, nor that the said Inhabitants shall assign over their Collections to any other Person or Persons whatsoever. In Mittness, &c.

A Licence and Testimonial for such as have suffer'd Shipmreck.

To all Constables, &c.

S. st. R. G. of W. in the said County, Esq, one of His Majesty's Justices, &c. $102\text{ as a ship called the search hereof, L. M. aged about Twenty-four Years, having lately been at Sea in a Ship called the, &c. and hath suffered Shipwreck, and got to Land at D. in the said County of S. upon the third Day of, &c. last past, as I am credibly informed, as well by the Report of the said L. M. as also by the Testimony of divers the Inhabitants of S. aforesaid. And for that the said L. M. hath not wherewithal to relieve himself in his Travel homewards to K. in the County of H. where he saith he was born, (or hath a Dwelling, &c.) These are therefore to pray you, and every of you, to whom these Presents

Inall come, not to molest or trouble the said L. M. in his Travel to K. aforesaid, where he is limited to be within, &c. Days next after the Date hereof, but desiring you rather to relieve him in his Necessity as to you shall seem meet; and withal, you the Constables of every Town where he shall come, to help him with Lodging in convenient Time, so that he travelleth the direct Way to K. aforesaid, not doing any thing contrary to the Laws and Statutes of this Realm. In California, &c.

Note, But now by Stat. 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 25. & 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 27. Hawkers, Pedlars and Petty-Chapmen are to be licensed by Commissioners appointed by the said Statutes. But if such Hawker, &c. upon Demand of any Justice of Peace, Mayor, Constable, or other Officer of the Peace, resuse to shew his Licence, he shall forfeit 5 l. to the Use of the Poor of the Parish where the Demand was made, and for Non-payment suffer as a common Vagrant, and be sent to the House of
